The following clipping from the Times at Fort Morgan (a suburb of Denver) will be interesting news to the many friends of the young gentleman mentioned therein, and THE COURIER takes pleasure in being the first to extend congratulations: "Fred Apples 30c Kruse jumped in on us last Saturday morning much to our surprise, if not to a certain other party, and grasped our brawny hand with his old time hearty manner. People say those visits of his breathe of suspicion, but no one sees guilt in quantities sufficient to warrant them in putting a detective on the gentleman's track.'

A meeting of the Pleasant Hour club is called for Monday evening at Hardy & Pitchers store to arrange for the closing party which is to take place after Lent. There seems to be a general opinion that a fancy dress or masquerade would be a fitting and enjoyable close for the season, and this among other important matters will be brought before the club. Diamonds, unlike almost any other article always retain their value and represent 100 cents on the dollar if bought right. Eugene Hallett, the pioneer jeweler, always on the alert for novelties in jewelry set with dia-monds, has now a finer and much larger stock than ever and his excellent judgment shown in selecting these precious pieces of adornment is certainly appreciated by persons in search of unique and pretty goods. You should never think of buying diamonds or jewelry of any kind without first consult-ing Hallett, the jeweler.

Pratt s treatment for the scalp, has during the past year received considerable extra advertising by way of court trials, etc., but after the siege the old pioneer, Dr. S. A. Pratt comes out on top with flying colors and has established new office quarters at 132 north Eleventh street, first door north of the old acation. In conversation with the inventor of Pratt's treatment for the scalp, he said that once again he was sole proprietor of this are and will yet be appointed throughout the United States. Dr. Pratt's new offices are elegantly furnished, everything being W. M. Shipman, Gen'l A. Telephone 684. neat and new, and his friends may now call in at any time and be received as formerly by the welcome hand of a genial host. Pratt' treatment has made wonderful strides into popularity since its introduction, and now that the management is the same as formerly the continued prosperity of the business will only be measured by the doctors excellent ability to push the same. The remedy has in the past worked wonders for bald heads and other heads that were getting bald, and have ing already achieved an enviable reputation not only at home, but throughout the entire country, it will hereafter be in greater de mand than ever, and Dr. Pratt is to be congratulated on once more being solely in harge of his valuable invention.

Kouse and White have just received their new line of gasoline stoves and ranges and in another column of today's issue will be found their handsome display advertisement. The new "Reliable Process" stoves have many advantages over others, one among the many being a new and easy way of cleaning the flues by simply removing a cap. The Re-liable stoves are noted for their economy, eleanliness and durability, and one must but see them to be convinced that they excell all competitors. Mesers Kruse & White will be pleased to have you call and examine these

Spring. Written for THE COURIER. The blust'ry month of March is here, The first month of the spring; The wind blows cold, the squ shines clear The snow flakes coldly sting. The sun looks warm, but it's very cold To face the north wind blast; Had we some power the time to mould

Then March would hurry past. We would introduce bright April, then, And follow with May and June, And then we'd smile and sigh again, For summer would come too soos Could I the control of season take 'Twould always be spring or fall; The little birds their nests could make, And come and go at my call. Of all the months I like the best-

The Best Cough Medicine.

"One of my customers came in today and sked me for the best cough medicine I had." says Lew Young, a prominent druggist of Newman Grove, Neb., "Of course I showed him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and he did not ask to see any other. I have never yet sold a medicine that would loosen and relieve a severe cold so quickly as that remedy does. I have sold four dozen of it within the last sixty days and do not know of a single case where it failed to give the most perfect Mr. Collings patronage is among our best classes most of whom do not care to have satisfaction." 50 cent bottles for sale by A. stend of weeks, there is a general flutter of anticipation and preparation all along the line. Society is more than ready to bestir itself and looks forward with pleasure to the resumption of the winter gaieties which were cut short by Lent. However a shorter season in the winter means a longer one af ter Easter, and there will now be fully two months of post-Lenten entertainments. The birds of passage are about returning from their southern trips, and hints are rife of all manner of pleasant things in the way of gay-eties and dissipations. Prominent among these according to the precedent of late year will be the Easter weldings. There is a com fortable outlook for those whose business it is to design and furnish the thousand and one articles of apparel which adorn a Findu sie cle belle, and dressmakers, etc., are full of bustle just now. Redfern especially is crowded with orders and is daily evolving fresh inspirations. Among the most chic of his new designs are the dressy cape wraps, to be worn at day weddings and receptions, and for calling.

The first is of subergine cloth, covered with rings braided in gold cord. The collar and strap epaulets are also braided and the lining is a rich silk, a couple of shades lighter

In this their most i, Rousses, corded silk in dark sapphire blue. It is bordered with a band of silver braiding, and the epau ets and collar are finished with a stiff silver gimp. The lining of this beautiful cape is of an op d tint shading from grey to . These elegant silk linings are one of the Redfern specialties which go to make up that perfection which is the hall-mark of all his productions

Dyspepsia

Makes many lives miserable, and often leads to self destruction. Distress after eating, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, mental depres sion, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hord's Sarsaparilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestion, relieves sick headache, clears the pepsia. Read the following:

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense an of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced. It relieved me of that faint, tired l-gone feeling. I have felt so much better since I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I am happy to recommend it." G. A. Page, Watertown, Mass. N. B. Be sure to get only
