We kiss the faded flower she lost last night She is our sometime queen, and we adore The curl she gave us, fair and sliky bright We love her graceful and elastic step, Her glance coquettish, and above the rest, One habit that she has, we all agree Her riding habit is by far the best.

NEW YORK, April 2, 1891-Twenty years ago, or even less, a lady who indulged in an ago, or even less, a lady who indulged in an early morning canter in the Park, would have excited a good deal of attention, and provoked a considerable amount of comment but now it is nothing out of the common to see dozens of pretty riders, courting health aud enjoyment these bright spring morn-ings. This is a sensible custom which we have wisely taken from our English cousins, and now no fairer show of graceful lady and now no fairer show of graceful lady equestrians can be seen anywhere in the world than on the Boulevards or in the Park. Of course our girls are not content to wear the monotonous regulation habit that has done duty so many years, and demand some-thing nativer and brighter, so Redfern, the great English tailor, has brought out some more novel designs, which while irreproach-able in taste, and quite suitable for a gentlewoman, have the advantage of being chic and modish.

through express trains up the mountain grades quickly and with perfect ease. The Mt. Clare shops of the company have recently completed an order for ten switch engines of the highest type, and sufficiently powerful to make up a train equal to the full drawing power of a consolidation freight engine. Also three new heavy eight wheel passenger engines, having driving wheels five feet eight inches, and cylinders twenty inches by twenty-four. These engines are now doing excellent work; they are very powerful and susceptible of great speed. In addition to the foregoing the company has now under construction at its Mt. Clare shops ten powerful ten wheel engines designed for fast freight service, and for heavy passenger trains on occasion, also twelve consolidation freight engines of great power. These additions to its motive power are in line with the other great improvements constantly being made in the general betterment of the B. & O. property by its present management, which have been noted by the press from time to time, and the rapid augmentation of the passenger traffic of the Company indicates that the public is quick to recognize Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. THE BURLINGTON ROUTE.

To Chicago and East, Denver and West, Deadwood and North, St. Louis and South.

The great popularity of the Burlington was gained, not by running down her neighbors, but by "booming" her own line, until the legend "Burlington Route" has become a synonym of speed, safety and enjoyment. If you want to go east, west, north or south use the Burlington, for the simple reason that when you pay your money you naturaily want the best to be had, and you do not uiss it if you travel by this popular line. This is the direct route to Deadwood and Dakota Hot Springs, the great health resort of the Black Hills Estes park, in the Rocky Miss C. F.
