Why She Puckered Her Lips.
(Written for THE COURIER.)

I will tell you how it happens
That on some times wild make lips.
We were sitting close together
When she puckered up her lips.
Yes, she puckered them so sweetly,
It seemed that Cupid beckoned.
I took up the invitation,
And I kissed her in a second.
She blushed and quickly turned her head,
Came within an ace of crying:
Said,—"I never dreamed of such a thing,
But to whistle I was trying."

There was worship and devotion in every feature of the service given Wednesday evening at the church of the Holy Trinity. The story of the resurrection of the daughter of the Jewish ruler, Jairus, which is particularly appropriate to Easter tide, was told in the form of Stamer's well known sacred cantata by the Holy Trinity choir, and a special chorus under the direction of Mr. H. J. W. Seemark. The church was completely filled and the reverential character of the music and the fact that the whole rendition of the cantata took the form of a religious exercise, made the occasion one of unusual impressiveness. The work was given creditably throughout, the chorus singing smoothly and showing evidences of painstaking in training. The soloists were Mrs. E. S. Lippincott, soprano; Mr. Seemark and Mr. O. Easterday, tenor; Mr. T. Berridge, bass. Mrs. Lippincott was particularly effective in the recitation "She is Not Dead, But Sleazeth," the soft passages being exquisitely rendered. The organ part by Miss Stella Rice added not a little to the finish of the production, which was throughout a performance of more than ordinary merit. A generous sum was realized from the offertory, which will be appropriately used in defraying the choir expenses.

The reception of the East Lincoln social club given by Miss Lula B. Thomas Friday evening at her pleasant home, 614 north Twenty-sixth street, ended a series of delightful winter evening entertainments given by the ladies of that society. In the thoughtful arrangement of every detail, Miss Thomas proved herself a most agreeable and accomplished hostess. The evening was as pleasant and diversified in character as could well be conceived, from a quiet tete-a-tete in the alcove to the most amusing and intricate charades. Vocal and instrumental music added much to the enjoyment of the evening. At 10 o'clock an elaborate and tempting luncheon, calculated to tickle the palates of the epicure was served. The evening was declared the most enjoyable of the season, and one to be long remembered by the club. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. S. Thomas, Misses D. and B. Green, Taylor, S. and L. Hoagland, Rosewell, Easterday, Orr, Harlow, Duncumb; Messrs Crittenton, Orr, Hoagland, Love, Cook, Bell, Campbell, Wood, Oscar, and Prof. Frank Easterday.

On last Friday evening Florence and Wilson Winger gave a most delightful party to a number of friends. The evening was one of rare enjoyment. Those present were: Miss Leland, Minnie Franklin, Ono Imhoff, Nellie Lau, Dora Harley, Jo Lottridge, Blanche Garten, Lucy Phillips, May Moore, Maydie Bierworth, Grace Oakley, Katie Klautsch, Maud Oakley, Anita Muir, Jessie Jury, Estella Elliott, Ella Raymond, Joy Webster, Allie Marsh, Edith Fluke, Marie Marshall, Helen Gregory, Lucy Griffith, Eva Ricketta, Lottie Seacrest, Estella Currier, May Burr, Grace Burr, Minnie Parker, Fan Hawley, Tillie Franklin; Messrs Frank Seacrest, Otis Weeks, Foss Seacrest, John Farwell, George Gadd, Will Raymond, Ray Leese, Ernest Galsom, John McBride, Evans, Mack Buford, Guy Harbut, Case Edwards, Frank Woods, Roy Chapman, Matt Baldwin, Arda Chapman, Weimer Murray, Ed Franklin, Charlie Elliott, Fred White, Frank Smith, Frank Cowdry, Ross Curtice, Clair Hobard, Frank Sanders, Charlie Hammond, Charlie Lyman, Cecil Graham, Charlie Blair, John Lottridge.

A choice company of intimate friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Clara Marine in East Lincoln Saturday afternoon, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Jessie Marine and Mr. C. C. Sanderson. Miss Marine is a well known woman, having charge of the music in our public schools during the past two years. She has won unusual esteem. Mr. Sanderson is one of Lincoln's rising young merchants. A pleasing feature of the occasion was the presence of Rev. Henry Buchtel, D. D., and family of Denver, who are old time friends. Dr. Buchtel performed the ceremony. Warm friendship for the young couple was expressed in the many tokens left as mementoes of the occasion. Mrs. Sanderson will continue her work in the schools for the present. The residence of the newly married couple will be at 708 North Twenty-seventh street.

Tuesday was Miss Clara Smith's birthday. She had not thought much about the day except to ponder over the fact that every year we are so much older. Her many friends were not forgetful of the date, and proposed that she should have cause to long remember it. Accordingly a few minutes after the young lady concluded she was sleepy and had retired, her friends to the number of thirty swooped down on the house at Thirteenth and N streets, and calling her down stairs proceeded to congratulate her. The evening was very pleasantly spent in social amusements, and the young lady was presented with a handsome rocking chair. In elegant supper was prepared and was duly enjoyed.

Miss Venice Bigelow entertained a party of friends at her home in Lincoln Heights Friday evening. The time was spent in social games and music till a late hour. Light refreshments of ice cream, cakes and fruits were served by the hostess, and the last electric car downward carried away a happy crowd. Those present were Misses May Kinmore, Jennie Stewart, Maud Hawley, Blanche Fuller, Florence Mesarvey; Messrs Ray Husong, Clarence Scott, Burton Clough, Lou Husong, Roy Stewart and Thomas Hitchcock.

The following young ladies of the conservatory of music left Saturday for a week's vacation and rest at home: Misses Nellie Taylor and Jessie Benton, Central City; Misses Lillie and Lottie Jaeger, Loup City; Mrs. Bina Clark, Bennett; and Mrs. Alice Hyatt, Western, Neb.

John R. Richards, well known a Lincoln as a member of the firm of Richards Bros., owners of the Richards block at the corner of Eleventh and O streets, died Saturday at Seattle, Washington, of congestion of the lungs. About four weeks since the deceased accompanied by his brother, L. C. Richards, left in apparent good health for a trip to California, and the announcement of his death was therefore entirely unanticipated and indicated a terrible shock upon his family. Deceased was fifty-nine years of age and had lived in Lincoln about twelve years, being recognized as one of the city's foremost and most respected business men. His home was on the southwest corner of Sixteenth and P. The remains arrived in Lincoln Thursday evening.

Friday evening was Mr. A. R. Talbot's birthday, and his wife reminded him of the fact by giving him a surprise party. The surprise was complete. The following were present: Messrs F. A. Brown, E. R. Sizer, Frank Hall, J. W. Dewese, Frank Hole, O. D. Harris, J. E. Riggs, G. A. Keith, Dr. T. B. Lewis, Dr. C. B. Manning, Dr. F. B. Crumm, Dr. H. M. Cassbeer, Dr. Holyoke, Dr. T. C. Page, W. C. Witte, J. E. Houtz, J. E. Warren, J. C. White, Jas. Boshmer, Ed. Hignell, G. E. Hibner, L. L. E. Stewart, W. J. Bryan, J. J. Davis, A. E. Kennard, Geo. Hastings, W. S. Hamilton.

The Women's Furrugat Corps No. 10, had a splendid meeting Saturday afternoon at the elegant residence of Mrs. Davis at No. 1430 R street. Fifteen of the society were royally entertained and accomplished much good work in a good cause, each lady present being enthusiastic in her work. Another meeting will be held at the residence of some of the members in the near future.

Hon. John Steen of Wahoo, ex-commissioner of public lands and buildings was in town Saturday and looked into his old quarters at the state house. He was accompanied by his daughter Miss Nora who is enjoying a spring vacation from her studies at Mt. Vernon, Ia. Miss Effie Steen accompanied them to Wahoo to visit over Sunday.

The dates for the May music festival have been fixed and superior soloists have been engaged. On the 11th of May "The Crusaders" by Gade will be given; on the 12th a miscellaneous concert, with a chorus of misses as a special feature, and on the 13th the festival will close with a splendid production of "The Creation."

The residence of Mr. George Bosselman, 1225 K street was the scene of a pleasant social gathering on Wednesday evening. High five was the order of the evening. Those participating in the games were Mr. and Mrs. Turner, Frank Perkins, Patrick, Alisdorf, Preston, Bosselman; Misses Carmody and Effie Steen.

Cards are out announcing the wedding of Mr. Robert Silverstein of Omaha to Miss Belle Meyers of St. Joseph, April nineteenth. The groom is well known in this city, and the bride is a most estimable and accomplished lady of St. Joseph. Mr. and Mrs. Silverstein will be a home at 2578 Harney street, after May first.

Miss Lizzie Mines, a charming young lady who has been visiting in this city during the past two weeks, returned to her home in Hastings on Monday. Her departure was much regretted by all her friends, but dame rumor says she will ere long make Lincoln her home.

Mrs. Benton entertained the Ladies' Kensington Club on Friday afternoon. The following ladies were present: Mesdames Bosselman, Turner, Preston, Wise, Outcalt, Newmark, Wheeler, Perkins, Maurittus, Plank, Riggs, Benton, Wells.

Miss Nellie Mullen left Tuesday for New York city, where she will spend several months with her sister, Mrs. J. G. White, and take special lessons on the organ, on which instrument she purposes to receive a thorough training.

Dr. A. G. Warner started Tuesday evening for Washington to assume the duties of his position as superintendent of charities of the District of Columbia. Mrs. Warner and daughter will remain at Roca during the summer.

Prof. L. A. Sherman of the State University spent Wednesday evening with the East Lincoln Chautauqua circle at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Stull, 105 north Twenty-fifth street. The subject was one of Shakespeare's plays.

Mr. John Schmittle and family leave today for Denver, where they will make their future residence. Mr. Schmittle has been a resident of Lancaster for over twelve years. Now reluctantly is compelled to live elsewhere owing to the ill health of his wife.

Rev. Henry A. Buchtel and family of Denver, Col., arrived in the city Saturday afternoon. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Elliott. Rev. Buchtel preached at the St. Paul M. E. church Sunday morning.

Friends of Hon. A. R. Humphrey, land commissioner, and his estimable wife, were grieved to learn of the death at 2 a. m. Saturday, of their infant son Carl, aged eighteen months, from membranous croup.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian Church gave a concert Monday evening at the church at which Mrs. Walsworth, Mr. Treynor of Council Bluffs, Prof. Bagnall, Mrs. P. W. Plank and Miss Julia F. Smith participated.

On Friday evening the faculty of the conservatory gave a concert and presented one of the attractive programs yet given by them. The house was crowded to its utmost capacity.

Hon. M. Strauss of the wholesale millinery firm of Lederer Strauss and Co., and president of the State Savings bank of Des Moines, Iowa, is in the city and the guest of Mr. Louie Meyer.

The military band of the Wesleyan university, directed by Mr. William O'Shea, Jr., is rapidly coming to the front. Preparations are being made for a public concert this term.

The Spring Medicine.
The popularity which Hood's Sarsaparilla has gained as a spring medicine is wonderful. It possesses just those elements of health giving, blood-purifying and appetite-restoring which everybody seems to need at this season. Do not continue in a dull, tired, unsatisfactory condition when you may be so much benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood and makes the weak strong.

THE BURLINGTON ROUTE.

To Chicago and East, Denver and West, Deadwood and North, St. Louis and South.

The great popularity of the Burlington was gained, not by running down her neighbors, but by "booming" her own line, until the legend "Burlington Route" has become a synonym of speed, safety and enjoyment.

If you want to go east, west, north or south use the Burlington, for the simple reason that when you pay your money you naturally want the best to be had, and you do not miss it if you travel by this popular line.

This is the direct route to Deadwood and Dakota Hot Springs, the great health resort of the Black Hills. Estes park, in the Rocky mountains, is another cool retreat reached only by the "Burlington," in fact, there is not a point of prominence in the country that cannot be reached by this route.

If you want any information whatever pertaining to railroads, or want to reserve sleeping car accommodations days, or even weeks in advance, you can do so by applying at B. & M. depot or city office, corner O and Tenth streets.

A. C. ZIEMER,
City Passenger Agent.

Henry Harpham the popular harness maker has left Twelfth street to locate on Eleventh near P street opposite the Capital hotel. There with increased facilities and more central location Mr. Harpham's business will undoubtedly increase. For anything in the harness line Harpham is bound to lead and if at anytime you want anything in his line don't forget to give him a call.

Never order a photograph or picture of any kind until you have seen the work done at the new Studio Le Grande, 124 south Twelfth street.

Haines Haskell, the new milliners 1136 O street employ one of the finest hat trimmers in the west. The lady is direct from New York and thoroughly understands her occupation. There's where you should get your new spring hat.

Wedding invitations, either printed or engraved in the finest style of the art at THE COURIER office. Correct forms and best quality of stock guaranteed. Samples cheerfully shown.

C. W. Wheldon of Rochester, N. Y., is paying Lincoln another visit, the guest of H. W. Orr.

Peculiar

To itself in many important particulars, Hood's Sarsaparilla is different from and superior to any other medicine.

Peculiar in combination, proportion and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom.

Peculiar in its medicinal merit, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown.

Peculiar in strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "100 doses one dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Peculiar in its "good name at home"—there is more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers.

Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time. Do not be induced to take any other preparation. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Sold by all druggists. $1.50 per bottle. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

Man that is married to woman is of many days and full of trouble. In the morning he draws his salary, and in the evening behold, it is gone. It is a tale that is told: It is vanished, and no one knows whither it goeth. He riseth up clothed in the chilly garments of the night. And seeketh the somnambulant pargoric wherewith to soothe his infant posterity. He cometh as a horse or ox. And draweth the chariot of his offspring. He spendeth his shekels in the purchase of the linen to cover the bosom of his family. Yet himself is seen at the gates of the city with one suspender. Yet! he is altogether wretched.
