Dr. C. R street, being the second of a series of en-tertainments contemplated by the Woman's club. It was probably the first appearance in this city of this enjoyable pastime, which of necessity could come only from the inventive brain of an ingenious frenchman, and judging from the pleasure extracted from the game Saturday night, it is destined to become as popular here as elsewhere, According to the rules the game was commenced at so'clock, closing with much merriment at eleven, when the party was served with re-freshments. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Rehlaender, Mr. and Mrs. Myron E. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cambridge Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harpham, Mr. and Mrs T. W. Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Richard O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Teisbetts, Mr. Everetts and Miss Wyrick. The royal prize for femi-nine skill at the game, fell to Miss Wyrick. Mrs. Rehlaender took the booby trophy. To keep up credit of the family Mr. Rehleander bore away the gentlemen's royal prize and Mr. O'Neill was awarded the booby.

THE BURLINGTON ROUTE.

and South.

The great popularity of the Burlington was gained, not by running down her neighbors, but by "booming" her own line, until the legend "Burlington Route" has become a synonym of speed, safety and enjoyment. If you want to go east, west, north or south use the Burlington, for the simple reas-ally want the best to be had, and you do not miss it if you travel by this popular line. This is the direct route to Deadwood and Dakota Hot Springs, the great health resort of the Black Hills. Estes park, in the Rocky mountains, is another cool retreat reached only by the "Burcington," in fact, there is not a point of prominence in the country that cannot best be reached by this route. If you want any information whatever pretaining to railroads, or want to reserve sleeping car accommodations days, or even weeks in advance, you can do so by applying at B. & M. depot or city office, corner O and A. C. ZIEMER. Tenth streets.

A Red Letter Day.

February 6th was a red letter day for hamberiain & Co., Des Moines, Iowa. They made their first shipment of goods to the Hawaiian Islands on that day. It consisted of 106 cases containing over four hundred dozen of their medicines, to the leading wholesale drug house in Honolulu. A large share of this shipment consisted of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, so much esteemed Mr. Grant Campbell of Rawlins, Wyoming wherever it is known for its cures of colds s back visiting his relatives, after an ab- and as a preventive and cure for croup. Chamberlain & Co., have contracted for advertising in all the leading newspapers in the Hawaiian Islands, and expect to make their remedies as popular there as they are in any part of the United States. NAUTICAL DRESSES.

Special CourteRCorrespondence, NEW YORK, April 1891. It has not been Redfern's custom to force the season, but he has been called upon to design some gowns for those who spend the spring months in the south, and as our own rivers and bays will in a few weeks be dotted with white wings, it does not seem am ss to present today a couple of new models, so that the yachting

In this first sketch Redfern gives us a very pretty yatching gem gown for a bloade. It is of cream colored serge with a narrow line of dark blue braid at the top of the hem. The girdle and sleeve are of dark blue serge, but the cuffs are of the cream color, with three rows of blue braid. The waist is loose and has wide revers edged with braid and decorated with embroidered design. The cap is of blue and cree

The other model is rather stylish and rath er more elaborate. It is of dark blue serge with narrow lines of gold braid around the skirt and forming the front panel. Nine rows of braid, in clusters of three trim the sleeves, which also have small gift buttons on the outside seam. The vest is of white serge

Each Season

Has its own peculiar malady; but with the blood maintained in a state of uniform vigor and purity, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the system readily adapts itself to changed conditions. Composed of the best alteratives and tonics, and being highly concentrated, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the most effective and economical of all blood medicines.

"For some years, at the return of spring, i had serious trouble with my kidneys. I was unable to sleep nights, and suffered greatly with pains in the small of my back. I was also afflicted with headache, loss of appetite, and indigestion. These symptoms were much worse last spring, especially the trouble with my back. A friend persuaded tne to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I began taking it, and my troubles all disappeared."
