I take them with reverent fingers.
These tokens of passion now dead;
The lines full of tenderest yearning, Through which your love seemed to be burning.
Can move me as when first I read.I know love is now stranger to us.
Our paths in the world never will meet,
And yet as I burn these old letters I wish once again for the feters You broke, though I thought them so sweet.And now nothing's left to remind me Of the days when our love was so true, But still as I gaze with wet lashes At the fire where smolder the ashes, I sigh for the past and for you.A Cherry sweet lady in honor of her sister Miss S. L. Wise of Lansing, Mich., issued invitations for a lemon party this week which read as follows: "Mrs. Keyes, at home, Wednesday 7 p. m. Pleasure bring a lemon." Of course, every one who received one of those mysterious summons was consumed by curiosity. After greeting each guest, the hostess asked her to "take her lemon to the dining room and register." The dining room was illuminated by lamps with lemon colored shades, relieved by a center piece of sunflowers and golden rods.
At a side table sat a lady and gentleman who, all were informed, composed the "queuing committee." This committee took the name on a register, and tied a ribbon, marked in such a way as to be distri-guishable on each lemon. After the arrival of the guests, and the marking of lemons, the "queuing committee" counted the seeds.
Each lemon was cut in half, the seeds extracted, and after being counted and duly accredited to the owner on the register, they were placed in a transparent glass bowl. The lemons were then taken and placed in a punch bowl, after which the guests were invited to a repast of a city lemon drink—lemon ice and lemon cream, lemon jelly, lemon cake, lemon pie, lemon blancet, lemon wafers, tongue salad with lemon, and lemon confectionery. After pre-taking of this unique repast, the punch containing the seeds was placed on the table and a prize offered to her who should guess the number of seeds therein, and a "booby prize" to her who should have the least accurate guess. The winner of the grand prize received a pretty lemonade glass, while the "booby" was made happy with a wooden lemon squeezer. A prize was awarded to the lady having the most seeds, and another to the one having the fewest. Meanwhile skillful hands had prepared a punch in a large bowl into which the lemons were squeezed. Cards completed the evening's pleasure, and a tiny fan was presented to each guest as a souvenir of the occasion. It was a novel and very enjoyable affair.A notable wedding took place at Wynore Wednesday in which many Lincolnites are interested. The event took place at high noon at the pretty home of the bride's parents and solemnized the nuptials of Mr. O. W. Fifer and Miss Georgia Taylor. The ceremony took place in the parlor under a huge floral bell. Rev. W. H. Vance officiating in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends who had recently celebrated their golden wedding being among the number.
After showering congratulations a splendid wedding dinner was served, during which the health of Mr. and Mrs. Fifer was toasted with champagne water. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for Denver and the Colorado resorts for a two weeks bride's tour. The bride and groom are extensively known in Lincoln where the former resided for a number of years prior to 1888, graduating from the high school the previous year. An estimable and accomplished young lady with lovely womanly traits, the bride is well adapted to the higher sphere just entered upon with such bright prospect. Mr.
Fifer has been a resident of the capital city since childhood, having completed his studies at the state university, being a member of the class of '90, after which he attended the Theological college at Evanston, Ill., preparatory to accepting a pastoral charge, for which he is well fitted. The presents were valuable as well as useful and ornamental.
Following were present from abroad: Grandma and Grandpa W. Taylor, of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyer and daughter Miss Lyle, of Tecumseh, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Phillip and family of Omaha, Mr. S. J. Taylor of Omaha, and the following from Lincoln:
Mr. and Mrs. Fifer, Mr. and Mrs. Cookey, Mr. and M. J. F. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. E.
Baker, Mr. and Mrs. S. Weese, Mrs. Beach, Miss Cora Beach, Dr. E. B. Finney, and Messrs. E. Gillespie, T. Fieison, O. J. Wilcox and C. Brody.The home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wessels, 816 South 11th street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock. The contracting parties were the eldest daughter, Miss Auguste K.
Wessman and Mr. Charles E. Schroll of Decatur, Ill., the Rev. E. H. Chapin of the Universalist church performing the ceremony in the presence of about thirty relatives and friends. The bride was adorned in a becoming costume of crepe de chine, en train and trimmed with white lace, with orange blossoms and pink and was assisted by two pretty little girls, Gladys and Wanda Sherman, who distributed floral souvenirs among the guests. After heavy congratulations were showered upon Mr. and Mrs. Schroll by the priest, a delightful luncheon was served and the couple departed on the evening train for a visit to Chicago, Milwaukee and other points. The bride is an estimable and accomplished young lady and has won many warm friends during her short residence in this city and the groom is a prosperous lawyer of Decatur.The marriage ceremony uniting Mr. George J. Smith and Miss Myrtle E. Dill was performed at the home of the bride's mother, 1108 T street, Wednesday evening at six o'clock, in the presence of the relatives and immediate friends of the contracting parties.
Rev. O. A. Williams, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated. After the ceremony and congratulations had been showered upon the bride and groom, an elegant wedding supper was served and the delightful occasion was one that will long be remembered by those present. The popularity of the young couple was attested by the numerous tokens of regard and esteem that were bestowed. The groom is bookkeeper and yard manager for the A. H. Weir Lumber company. The bride is the daughter of Mrs.
C. H. Dill and is a very estimable young lady. Among the guests were Mayor A. H.Weir, Mrs. H. K. Smith of Muscatine, Ia., mother of the groom; Miss Maud McCain, Mr. B. F. Dill, Messrs and Mesdames L.
Stull, Finney, H. B. Vail, G. H. McCain, ing gentlemen went out to lunch: Messrs.

R. H. Oakley, O. R. Oakley, C. L. Hooper, Dr. Berman and Dr. Graham.One of the most pleasant and enjoyable social events of the past week was an outing at Lincoln park Monday afternoon and evening. The party drove out in a band wagon and after disposing of a tempting spread, prepared by the young ladies, passed the evening with dancing in the brilliantly illuminated pavilion which was decorated with tertiarian music rendered by Brown's orchestra. Mrs. O. H. Davidson of Des Moines, Ia., chaperoned the party which comprised the following young people: Misses Sadie Becker, Maud Burr, Margaret Baird, Nellie Lill-bridge, Martha Funke, Jennie Erb, Nellie Whit's and Miss McLaughlin; Messrs Charles Montgomery, Frank Pelt, Martin Aitken, Charles Hawley, F. C. Zebrung, Lemist, Dr.
Reeves and Dr. Spahr.One of the most enjoyable dancing parties of the outgoing season was given by a large party of young people at Lincoln park Thursday evening. Those participating were:
Messrs and Mesdames, Comstock, Kofer, Stewart, Misses Effie Sison, Clara Gar-nold, Minnie DePue, Maggie Walker of Ottumwa, Ia., Amy Covert, Ina Barch, Cora the home of the bride's parents 2747 Pearl street, the Rev. H. S. Wannamaker officiating, the marriage ceremony was performed which united the lives of Mr. Albert H.

Langbridge, a prosperous commercial traveler, and Miss Lily Hoagland, well known as an efficient instructor in the Lincoln public schools. Only a few friends of the family were present and after receiving congratulations the happy couple departed for a visit to Omaha and other points before going to Grand Island which will be their home in the future. They were the recipients of many kind and useful presents.The members of the Catholic club union and ladies of St. Theresa's congregation gave a very successful entertainment at Cushman park Wednesday afternoon and evening.
The afternoon's program included a foot race, a potato race, a race of fifty yards in which young ladies wearing "sweet sixteen" participated, and which was easily won by Miss May Flynn with Miss Lulu Krone as second. There were also several other interesting races. In the evening the pavilion was illuminated and dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.A very happy birthday surprise was given Mrs. L. C. Backus Friday last week by her daughter, Mrs. G. B. Chapman and Miss C. E. Loomis at the residence of the former, 1345 T street. The invited guests were Mesdames, Aitken, Beahm, Crivert, Montgomery, Stevens, Moore, Miller, Kimey, Lowe, Lecky, Floyd, Baker and Manchester.
Luncheon was served in parlors at 6 o'clock.
A pleasant feature of the afternoon was that the group was photographed in front of the residence by Mr. Clement.A pleasant outing of a number of relatives that had not assembled in one meeting for a family gathering for a number of years, enjoyed a most pleasant time at Lincoln park Thursday afternoon commencing at the following: Mrs. John Zebrung, Mr. and Mrs. A. Mc-Wood of Tuxedo, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Mc-Bride and family, Mr. and Mrs. Zebrung, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Huffman and daughter, the Misses Harriet and Hazel, Miss Nellie Zebrung and Messrs. Frank Zebrung, Harry Zebrung, and others.The ceremony which united the lives and fortunes of two young Lincoln people was solemnized Tuesday evening at the home of the bride, 222 South Twenty-second street.
The contracting parties were Mr. Edward Hittig and Miss Alma C. Look, both well known in this city. A large number of relatives and friends were present and the happy couple were the recipients of many costly and beautiful presents.A delightful outing took place at Lincoln

Dyspepsia

Makes many lives miserable, and often leads to self destruction. Distress after eating, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, mental depression, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestion, relieves sick headache, clears the mind, and cures the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia. Read the following:"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience faintness or tired, alligone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything.
Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relieved and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced. It relieved me of that faint, tired, alligone feeling. I have felt so much better since I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I am happy to recommend it." G. A. PACE, Watertown, Mass.
