A Beautiful Souvenir Spoon

Halletts new souvenir spoon representing our own beautiful city, is a work of art and the success with which he is meeting in the sale of it illustrates plainly the appreciation for a meritorious souvenir. The work is of a chaste refined order and such as will please the most exacting. In the bowl of the spoon will be seen a most lifelike picture of the state capitol building and in other respects the spoon calls forth admiration for Lincoln The oxidized work is deftly executed while the carving and designing is superbly excellent. A description does not do justice to this seautiful piece of silver ware and it must be seen to be appreciated. Ask Hallett to see it.
