Harburt, sister of Mrs. Canfield of Denison Iowa, J. E. Houtz, Dr. Everett, Miss Stearns, Mr. E. A. Barnes, and Mr. Everett.

The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Winger was thrown open last evening to about two hundred invited guests. Mr. and Mrs. Winger were assisted in receiving by Miss Katie Stoddard, Miss Winger and Mr. M. Winger. The floral decorations were very elaborate and the refreshments thoroughly delightful. Excellent music was rendered by the Philharmonic orchestra and the evening passed very pleasantly to all concerned.

The Tuesday Evening Club was entertained very pleasantly Wednesday evening by Miss Deas Loomis. The subject under discussion was France and a very entertaining program was rendered by Miss Cora Hardy, Miss Clara Walsh, Mr. Stull, and Mr. F. C. Zehring. After the regular program Lieutenant Pershing was initiated. Those present were: Misses Cora Hardy, Olive Latta, Maud Miller, Clara Walsh, Gertrude Smith, Anna Barr, Dona Loomis, Maude Smith, Messrs Sam E. Law, H. S. Freeman, W. E. Hasty, W. Prof. O. V. P. Stout of the state university was given a delightful surprise party last week by Mrs. Stout. The house had been beautifully decorated and prepared for the occasion and at the proper time was invaded by Mrs. Stout and the invited guests, who were: Messrs. James B. McDonald, Frank H. Woods, Paul A. Calson, Burnell Calson, Fred A. Barnes, Edward E. Nicholson, Jesse B. Beecher, Hugh La Master, Bert Forbes, Charles D. Chandler and G. H. Baughman, all members of the university of Nebraska chapter of Beta Theta Pi, of charter members. Congratulations were showered upon the professor by all present, and an elegant luncheon prepared by the charming hostess was served in a suitable manner. Conversation and games formed the evening's entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McFarland entertained the Patriarchs in a delightful manner Wednesday evening at their elegant home on Q street. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers, and this, with elegant refreshments and a charming host and hostess, contributed toward making this one of the most successful meetings ever held by this popular organization. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames O. W. Webster, Will Green, Edward Green, D. C. Van Dusen, James J. A. Buckstaff, Ogden L. M. H. Grund, S. H. Burnham, Henry Lewis, Frank Lewis, Edward Holmes, Charles Dawes, Perry, Fuller, Lieutenant and Mrs. Towley; Misses Jeannette Wilson, Sarah Harris and Harwood; Messrs. Cook, Fannon, and Harwood; Mesdames Atkinson, Muir and Wilson.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hurt, 319 north Eleventh street Wednesday evening, the most interesting parties being Miss Henrietta Scanlan and Mr. Charles E. Alexander. The parlors were handsomely decorated with roses and amiaz, the ceremony being performed by Rev. O. A. Williams in the presence of the intimate friends of the family. Shortly after eight o'clock Miss Mary Kaufman sounded the wedding march and the bridal party, consisting of the bride and groom attended by Mr. Sidney J. Spence and Miss Effie Scanlan, took their places under the floral arch between the two parlors. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander are widely known in Lincoln and both are deservedly popular, the bride having for some time held a responsible position at Nisley's, the groom being an efficient reporter on the local news staff of the State Journal.

Miss Mollie Law entertained a number of friends very delightfully Saturday afternoon at her beautiful home, 1043 D street. Cards formed the principal entertainment and the prizes were carried off by Miss Music Underwood and Miss Mary Moore. Elegant refreshments were served and Miss Law proved to be a most charming hostess and entertainer. The house was brilliantly illuminated and the elaborate decorations were of beautiful cut flowers, the scene presenting a very pleasing picture to the eye. The following were present: Misses Burr, Leland, Oakley, Graham, Gregory, Burks, Kleutch, Jennie Underwood, Masie Underwood, Moore, Case, Kuntzen, Williamson, Smith, Richter, Camp, Hooper, Emerald Jones, Marie Jones, Alice Matland, Grace Matland, Garten, Fisher, Hunsinger, Cochran, Baldwin, Raymond, Ricketts, Winger, Andrus, Freeman, Marley, Greutter, Hass, Imhoff, Heaton, Folk, Hartley and Mrs. Harris.

The residence of Rev. F. S. Stein at 633 south Fourteenth street was thronged with people Wednesday evening, the occasion being a farewell reception to the faithful pastor who has creditably filled St. Paul's pulpit for two and a half years. Mr. J. G. Norland, (Oakley, Graham, Gregory, Burks, Kleutch, Jennie Underwood, Masie Underwood, Moore, Case, Kuntzen, Williamson, Smith, Richter, Camp, Hooper, Emerald Jones, Marie Jones, Alice Matland, Grace Matland, Garten, Fisher, Hunsinger, Cochran, Baldwin, Raymond, Ricketts, Winger, Andrus, Freeman, Marley, Greutter, Hass, Imhoff, Heaton, Folk, Hartley and Mrs. Harris.

Now that the holidays are near at hand and that the average reader commences to figure on buying some sort of token for friends and relatives, it might not come amiss for us to direct your attention to the fact that no where in Lincoln is the assortment or the line of suitable gifts that are to be found at Eugene Hallett's. And it matters not how much or how little you will want to spend for there you can select suitable articles ranging in price from 50 cents to $500. You know where Hallett's place is. Why not stop in when down town and pick out what you want even if you don't want it now, he will lay it aside for you.

A New Art Store. Arthur Betz, late with G. W. Crancer & Co., has formed a co-partnership with A. C. Townsend, under the title of the Lincoln Frame and Art Co. Their place of business is 236 south eleventh street, in the Elite studio. The firm will soon be ready for business.

A Beautiful Lot of Plumbing Fixtures. Hooker & Orr, Lincoln's leading plumbers, were some time ago awarded the contract for furnishing the plumbing fixtures for the new residence of J. A. Bucks'uff, corner of Seventeenth and G streets. They are now on the floor of their show room and can be seen until Monday night. The bath, one of the most elegantly appointed, is an imported tub of the celebrated Roman pattern, with complete arrangement of showers, douche, hand spray, etc. The mountings are of brass and nickel. The lavatories are of the celebrated Tennessee marble, with nickel-plated trimmings. The balance of the fixtures are of the finest order and latest patterns, nearly every piece being especially imported.
