ADDITIONAL SOCIETY

Continued from eighth page. The Thimble club was entertained Saturday afternoon and evening by Miss Maud Miller at the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Raymond on R street. The following were present: Misses Rachel Brock, Jeannette Wilson, Margaret Baird, Fay Marshall, Hallie Hooper, Olive Latta, Fannie Hawley, Florence Hawley, Katie Miller, Maud Miller, Jennie Underwood, Messrs. Martin Atken, Oscar Franke, H. S. Freeman, F. Connell Zehring, Frank Burr, Lew Marshall, John Dorgan, Dunlap of Denver, W. Morton Smith, McBird of Denver, Will Meyer, C. D. Mullen, and Lieutenant Pershing.

Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Davis, 538 south Tenth street, the marriage ceremony uniting the lives of Mr. Hamilton S. McGoogon and Miss Lillie Mitchell was solemnized. Rev. O. A. Williams of the First Baptist church officiating. After the large number of invited guests had bestowed congratulations and inspected the numerous costly and handsome presents a sumptuous wedding supper was enjoyed. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Robert Mitchell and is very popular in the circle in which she moves. The groom is bookkeeper in the employ of H. S. Sanders and a most estimable gentleman. Mr. and Mrs. McGoogon will make their home at 316 south Ninth street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hargraves entertained another company of friends at cards last evening. Mrs. Hargraves as usual proved a most affable hostess and there was nothing left undone to complete the happiness of the merry gathering. High five and delicious refreshments filled the evenings program which was duly enjoyed by the following ladies and gentlemen: Messrs. and Mesdames John Donahue, R. A. Perry, J. A. Buckstaff, A. G. Benson, Jim Green, A. C. Zelmor, W. R. Dennis, Carl Funke, A. B. Coffroth, A. M. Baird, S. H. Burnham, J. B. Wright; Misses Robinson and Tarleton of Chicago, Miss Forbes of Milwaukee, Messrs C. R. Richter, W. M. Leonard, Ernest M. Comstock, and J. E. Houtz.

Mrs. M. G. Mayberry celebrated her eighty-ninth birthday Wednesday and the occasion was fittingly observed by a delightful afternoon luncheon which was given in her honor by her daughter, Mrs. H. P. Foster at the elegant family residence, corner Twelfth and J streets. It was a most enjoyable affair throughout and reflected as much credit upon the affable hostess as it did honor to the genial old lady. Mrs. Mayberry is still in excellent health and vigor and goes about her knitting sewing and reading like a girl of eighteen, besides keeping up a large correspondence. Those present on this auspicious occasion were: Mesdames, W. S. Latta, S. B. Nisbet, Buckingham, J. R. Webster, E. P. Holmes, Caroline Williams, Irwin, Rosa Funke, Smith, Ewing, Sr., Howell, W. N. McCreery, J. N. McMurry.

The Tuesday Evening club was royally entertained this week by Mr. F. Connell Zehring at his elegant home on H street. The program of the evening, subject Germany was delightfully rendered as follows: Mr. Sam E. Low, Universities of Germany; Mr. A. Bruce Coffroth, Government of Germany; Mr. W. E. Hardy, Passion Play at Oberammergau; Miss Maud Miller, Essay on Wagner; Messrs G. W. Gerwig and Frank S. Burr, music. A delightful luncheon was served at the close of the program. The participants were: Misses Clara Walsh, Cora Hardy, Maud Miller, Gertrude Laws, Anna Barr, Olive Latta, Dena Loomis, Grace Griffith, Mrs. W. F. Sapp of Council Bluffs, Miss Post of Columbus; Messrs W. E. Hardy, W. Morton Smith, Sam E. Low, Frank S. Burr, G. W. Gerwig, Oscar Funke, C. D. Mullen and Mr. and Mrs. A. Bruce Coffroth. The club will be entertained by Miss Clara Walsh at its next meeting.

On arriving home Wednesday evening Mr. Matt Baldwin was agreeably surprised to find the house brilliantly illuminated and a host of friends to greet him, and extend congratulations on the happy event, his birthday anniversary. The evening was spent very pleasantly at cards, high five being in order. The royal prizes were won by Miss May Moore and Frank Cowdrey, the boobies by Miss May Hobbey and Casa Edwards. Very tempting refreshments were served during the evening. Those present were: Misses George Camp, May Hobbey, Grace Oakley, Grace Burr, Adele Simons, Marie Marshall, Joe Winger, Stella Curtis, Bessie Graham, Jessie Leiland, May Moore, Libbie Seacrest, Flo Winger, Messrs Guy Hurlbut, Foss Seacrest, Case Edwards, Fred White, John Lottridge, Winger, Graham, Frank Cowdrey, Weim Murray, Sanders, Yates, Roy Chapman, Hammond, Harry Lansing.

The cozy home of Mrs. Walter C. Davis was comfortably filled Thursday afternoon with a congenial company of lady friends, the leading feature of the occasion being cards and dainty refreshments. The home was tastefully decorated with palms and hot house plants, all present voting Mrs. Davis a most charming hostess. Those present were: Mrs. Mark H. Tilton, T. H. Benson, A. R. Talbot, M. A. Warren, Dr. Caselberg, Geo. Cook, C. A. Keith, Dr. Dayton, A. P. Fair, Geo. Clark, A. E. Kennard, H. Northam, W. L. Rehlander, C. O. Strickland, L. A. Bowers, Willard Mills, M. A. Canfield, Jno. B. Wright, Will Tate, John Barber, Richard O'Neil, F. A. Wilson, A. Hurlbut, Dr. Holyoke, Bert E. Betts, P. W. Plank, A. D. Kitchen, Misses Ellison, Robinson of Chicago, Tolerton of Sioux City, Sterns of Keithsburg, Ill., Nellie Newman, Sarah Graham. The first prize was won by Mrs. Dayton, the second by Mrs. C. A. Keith.

The early days of December, the last month of good old 1891 are with us and with them come thoughts of happy Christmas tide. Your dear wife or that sweetheart of yours must receive attention, and what is there that will bring joy to her heart as quick as a pretty diamond. No—it's not necessary that you "blow in" a big sum for one either. You can get a pretty stone at Halllets for fifty dollars or less and as high as a thousand dollars, and the fact that you cannot afford to get a large one does not signify that you cannot get one. A small, clear, stone is a beauty and nothing that you can give a lady meets with as much admiration. A ring, lace pin, eardrops or a diamond set in most any piece of jewelry is by far the richest and most appreciative token that you can get. Eugene Hallett's diamond stock for the holidays is now all in and selections can now be made and laid away for future delivery. Or, if desired, a diamond may be secured now on weekly payments up to the time wanted. Consult Hallett on diamonds always before buying.

Silverware Gifts as Meyers. As recently announced in these columns, L. Meyer & Co., are now giving their customers silverware absolutely free of charge. This is a good opportunity to beautify your sideboard, china closet and table at the expense of this energetic house. With every dollar worth of goods bought you get a coupon good for ten cents. Each piece of silverware, which by the way comprises most everything for table use, is marked a price at which no jewelry house in the west would duplicate them for. These coupons will be taken in as cash on every purchase of silverware. For instance: say you want a spoon holder and the price thereon is four dollars. It would take just four dollars worth of coupons to carry it off—without a penny cash outlay. And here another admirable feature; you do not have to buy five, three or even one dollar worth to get a coupon. Every purchase of ten cents or more gives you a coupon calling for ten percent redeemable in silverware. You keep your tickets, everytime you get enough, stock up amply with silver butter dish spoon holder, tea pot sugar bowl, cream pitcher, etc. L. Meyer & Co., is a most excellent place to trade and since their gift enterprise has been inaugurated, they are becoming even more popular than ever. In the dry goods line or for groceries their stock and prices are seldom equaled—never excelled.

Wake Up. The age is one of rapid progress—and we are in it. Our patrons are among the most progressive of the nation. They are quick to take advantage of a good offer. We make a great many; but when we recently offered a set of memoirs, either of Grant, Sheridan, Sherman, McClellan, or Lee, in their respective original editions, for 50 cents a set, in connection with a year's subscription to this paper, $2-$5.50 in all—we fairly outdid ourselves. Thousands of orders have already been received by the publishers, so that if our friends wish to avail themselves of this extraordinary opportunity, they must wake up. No such offer has ever before been made to the reading public, and it is doubtful if it will ever be duplicated. Again we say "Wake up!"

A STATE EMPLOYEE He tells a Reporter About Being Cured by Dr. Dennis, the Catarrh Specialist.

Nothing succeeds like success. This adage is more than exemplified by the experience of Dr. Dennis in this city. His success in curing many bad cases of catarrh who had despaired of relief has filled his office with patients from morning to night. The following is only one of the many statements which could be made public if space did not forbid.

A PLAIN STATEMENT. Ten years ago I was attacked by that dread disease, Catarrh. It began after I had had a bad cold as a stopping up of the nostrils so I could not breathe except through my mouth. It grew worse from year to year. I would hawk and spit almost constantly; my appetite was poor; bowels costive; felt weak and unable to engage in any physical exertion; my ears began finally discharging a bad smelling substance and my nostrils pained me to breathe through them; I became alarmed. I had tried everything and paid out a great deal to physicians. I finally went to the mountains near Denver. About September 1, 1891, I placed my case in Dr. Dennis' hands for treatment, and today, November 1, I consider myself entirely well. The cure has been a surprise, but a most happy one. I will take great pleasure in answering any inquiries about Dr. Dennis and his treatment. Any person can, by calling on Dr. Dennis, learn this gentleman's name and address, which he does not wish to have printed in the papers. He is an employe at one of the state institutions in this city and well known.

C. Warren Dennis, M.D. Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Surgeon and Specialist in Catarrh, graduate of three medical colleges; 10 years' experience. Hundreds of cases successfully treated. Charges reasonable. Consultation free. Correspondence solicited. Patients at a distance treated by correspondence. References, many of the best people in Lincoln, who have been cured. Office, over First National Bank, 10th and O. Hours, 9 to 12, 2 to 5, and 7:30 to 8:30; Sundays to 5 p. m.
