Mrs. Chas. Neely of Humbolt Neb., was the guest of Dr. Ruth M. Wood a few days this week. Mrs. Neely will be remembered by many of the older Lincolnites, having lived here some ten years ago.

Mr. Simon Greenbaum, one of the efficient salesmen at the Globe clothing house has been lying seriously ill at the home of Mr. M. A. Newmark on M street. His condition was however improved on last reports yesterday.

What prettier present than a box of elegant correspondence paper with engraved monogram die embossed thereon could be selected for a lady's Christmas present. Call and see samples of the work we are turning out in this line at Wessel Printing Company.

The Whitney Mockridge concert given at first Congregational church Wednesday evening was greeted by a good house and reflects much credit on the Y. M. C. A. It was an entertainment of high musical culture and much appreciation was shown by repeated encores.

Mrs. Miller and daughter, Miss Katie, who have been visiting in this city for the past few weeks were compelled to shorten their visit and return to their home in Lafayette, Ind., Wednesday on account of the burning of their home in Lafayette, Indiana. They were accompanied by Mrs. Will Green.

Mr. William Hognull and Miss Anus Enright were quietly married Monday morning in the Catholic church near Davey, Rev. Father Murphy officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends of the young couple, both of whom have the best wishes of many friends in this city. The happy couple left on the noon train for Denver.

Mrs. Dr. Holyoke left Wednesday for Utah in response to a telegram notifying her of the death of her sister, Miss Kate Snelling. Miss Snelling was a resident of Lincoln and was the daughter of Mr. W. H. Snelling who removed to Utah a few months since. Miss Snelling's sad and sudden death is a source of real regret to her many friends in this city.

Mr. W. D. Womack, the corpulent and handsome general agent for that popular household necessity, the Standard sewing machine, was a Lincoln visitor Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. Womack is a veritable hustler in the sewing machine field as his work in Lincoln has shown. The Standard was really a stranger in the city ninety days ago—now it is the most dangerous rival that the competing machine firms have to deal with.

The Womens Club was entertained Tuesday evening at a seven o'clock tea given by Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cambridge and a most enjoyable evening was spent. After tea the prevailing feature was High Five. The following were present: Messrs and Mesdames Barber, Northam, O'Neill, Jas. Miller, Guille, Rhelander, D. Shilling, Strickland, Tate, Trogden, Vandusen, Myron Wheeler, Miss Doran, Mr. R. M. Johnston. Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Tate were awarded the royal honors.

"The Lacking Club", a new organization composed of a set of jolly young people, held their initial meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Florence Dale on south Twenty-seventh street. High five was the attraction and dainty refreshments added greatly to the pleasure of the evening.

Those present were: Misses Hale, Bain, Blair, Peterman, Vivyan, Carrie Vivyan, Buncher, Barnaby and Smith; Messrs, Campbell, Kimble, Hollister, Gene Hollister, Me-Shane, Will Clark and Hale.

In recent issues of the COURIER mention has been made of the gatherings of a nameless club which meets each week at members homes. Thursday evening the club met with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Trogden, 228 south Eleventh street and the infant club was christened "The Three Table Card Club." As usual high five was discussed and a repeat enjoyed. Those composing the club membership are: Messrs and Mesdames R. Rehlander, W. R. Cambridge, C. E. Vandusen, R. O'Neill, Hal. Northam, Dr. and Mrs. Trogden, and Miss Doran.

The Patriots were delightfully entertained Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Phillips at their palatial home on D street. The following participated: Messrs and Mesdames J. D. Macfarland, Ogden, S. H. Burnham, A. S. Raymond, Charles Gere, R. H. Oakley, Carl Funke, J. A. Buckstaff; Mesdames Burgess, D. D. Muir of Denver; Misses Cora Hardy, W. E. Shull, Sarah Harris, Maud Miller; Messrs W. E. Hardy, Will Stull, Fauson, Cook, Van Durn.

Mrs. R. J. Green perpetrated a surprise on her large lord Wednesday evening in which she was assisted by Messrs and Mesdames, J. B. Wright, A. G. Benson, A. D. Barr, A. E. Coffroth, P. L. Sheldon, Mrs. Miller and Miss Katie Miller, the two latter ladies being from Lafayette, Ind. The occasion for such jollification was caused by the fact that on that day Mr. and Mrs. Green had lived four very blissful years together and the invaders all joined in best wishes to the happy couple that at the turn of every mile post they may be found as happy as now. The balance of the evening was spent in high five ending with a most delicious supper.

It Will be Popular with Nebraskans.

Now that winter with chilling winds and disagreeable weather is at hand many of our citizens are seeking information regarding some attractive and healthful resort, and the COURIER is pleased to be able to furnish just such information. Messrs Imhoff and Elliott two of Lincoln's most prominent capitalists have formed a company, titled The San Marino & Gulf View Hotel Co., and bought the two hotels, embodied in the firm name, at Sutherland, Florida. In the illustration at the head of these columns we present a picture showing the San Marino, the larger of the two hotels. Its interior appointments are said to be handsome throughout and every luxury of metropolitan city and seashore life is amply provided. The Mammoth size of the hotel may be imagined when the size is given. It has a frontage of 280 feet to the Gulf with a rear wing of 200 feet which is not shown. There are 150 rooms, single and ensuite, besides the various parlors and reception rooms. This hotel has been placed under the management of Mr. Dan H. Porter, late of Hot Springs, S. D., where his connection with The Minnesota, the leading hotel, was cause for furnishing many Lincolnites with pleasant quarters and a most enjoyable sojourn.

Sutherland is one of the most delightful winter resorts on the Gulf coast. Its location gives it a distinction among similar resorts. It is situated in the sweet orange belt twenty miles from Tampa and but five miles from Tarpon Springs. A beautiful view of the Gulf is here to be seen and whether swamps or low marshy land can be found in or near the city. Sutherland is easy of access, the railroad facilities being all that could be asked for. This is certainly a most excellent place to spend the winter and if you want further information, it will cheerfully furnished you by calling on or addressing Elliott and Imhoff, 137 south Twelfth street.

June in December.

If ever there was a time in Lincoln for the ever watchful housewife to make glad the heart of her hubby, it has certainly been since June, the fish and oyster man located on Thirteenth and O streets in the city. He constantly keeps on hand and daily receives fresh consignments, all the delicacies in the line of fresh oysters, various kinds of cheeses, celery, fruits, vegetables and numerous etceteras. At June's, the seeker for good things to satisfy the inner man always finds a delicious menu.

THE FUR FLEW.

Swipes and Snags have had a row. This would be starting news to people who have known these rascals at all well, but this scrap was to a finish. Evidence yesterday morning pointed to their having a regular monkey-and-parrot time of it during Thursday night. Snags' nose, back and feelings were badly harrowed, and swipes' hair seemed to have congealed white in a vertical position, from his nose to the tip of his tail. Snags is our watch dog and he has no earthly use for the feline race. Swipes is our office cat, and he has figured out that life would be one sweet dream were this world utterly devoid of the entire canine species. Swipes sleeps in the wall paper department and Snags in the stock room. Swipes is an all-wool and a yard-wide democrat, tooth and nail, while Snags is a staunch republican, body and hair, and we infer that it must have been a question of politics again. These rogues disagree with each other on every point save the one of respect for ourselves. They think we're all right, and that we are selling the right kind of wall paper in the right kind of way. They don't buy any themselves, but aside from that they are mighty observing "critters".
