

POPULATION OF LINCOLN 66,000. H. R. NISSLEY & CO. COR. TENTH AND P ST. LADIES' FURNISHING GOODS

TAKE NOTICE! THE COURIER will not be responsible for any debts made by any one in its name, unless a written order accompanies the same.

We want to close out our P. D. CORSETS. If price is any object to your buying one, call and see us.

"Famous" Cor. O and 12th Sts. Opera House Corner

HEADQUARTERS MEN'S FURNISHINGS. W. R. DENNIS, 1137 O Street

Church Advertisements. Commencing April first, THE COURIER will insert notices pertaining to societies, festivals, lectures, meetings and sermons for all churches free of charge.

It's getting very late. Dear me, is that clock right? Yes, half past three. He said he'd come at three, but then he's not like all the other men.

HER NEW YEAR'S SOLILOQUY. Perhaps he's ill. Poor fellow—Well he's come I know, for there's the bell. Yes, Sarah, say that I'll be down.

H. M. Ives is in Boston, Mass. S. S. Voss of Guthrie is in the city. Rev. J. H. Ring left Monday for Peoria, Illinois.

Miss Maggie English has returned from a trip south. Dr. Reeves spent Christmas day in Nebraska City. J. Humphrey started Tuesday for New York City.

William H. Atwood left Tuesday for Albany, N. Y. Mrs. L. E. Bashedo started Tuesday for Goodland, Kan. A. G. Greenlee returned from his visit to Denver, Tuesday.

Mr. Fred Howe returned from Florida Tuesday afternoon. Miss Cora Talbot is spending the holidays at her home in Iowa. Mrs. N. C. Brock and daughter are visiting in Davenport, Ia.

Ernest Yates has returned from a five weeks trip through Iowa. William Little and M. Johnson started Monday for Marietta, Ohio. Misses Julia Longbridge and Nettie Taylor are visiting at Grand Island.

Miss Gertrude Laws will entertain the

Tuesday Evening club next Tuesday evening instead of New Year's night as was first understood. H. E. Johnson, who has been visiting friends in Manchester, England, arrived here Monday.

Mr. Aaron Buckstaff, who has been spending several months at Colorado Springs is in the city for a few days, having arrived last Sunday. Colonel C. C. Pace and wife, who have been at Hot Springs, Ark., for upwards of two months past, have returned home with health much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Means and son, Miss Kittle Means and Mrs. Kittle Butler of Clyde, Kan., are welcome guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Barwick, 3383 P street. Mr. and Mrs. Dr. C. C. Shinnick of Hot Springs, S. D., are stopping at the Lincoln. They will probably take up their residence in Lincoln, since both are delighted with the place.

Mr. Will Meyers, the German National's popular teller returned Monday from Quincy where he passed his annual holiday visit at the old home, mid scenes of early boyhood days. The Pleasant Hour club held a business meeting Monday afternoon at the store of C. R. Richter, when Messrs. Charles Miller and Phillip Wing were elected to membership.

The Rev. Dr. Martin, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Blanche, spent the Sabbath in this city the guests of Mrs. Cadwallader at Twenty-second and N streets. Senator Paddock, the originator of the idea to send a train load of Nebraska corn to Russia, was in the city a few hours Monday, where he was warmly greeted by many friends.

A. M. Davis, senior member of the firm of A. M. Davis & Son was presented with a beautiful gold headed cane, appropriately inscribed, by employees of the firm Christmas morning. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. F. McKesson of Emerald at home to their many friends Christmas day from one to six P. M., when the tenth anniversary of their marriage was celebrated.

Mrs. J. C. Johnson and Mrs. R. K. Clark, the latter a former resident of Lincoln, of Des Moines, are welcome visitors at the home of Mr. W. H. Clark, the general register of the land office. Mr. John F. Majors, acting special agent for the department of the interior, with headquarters at Duluth, Minn., has been visiting friends in town for a few days this week. Mr. M., is a native of Nebraska.

Miss Fannie Hawley attended a party given by Mr. Harry Wilson at Nebraska City, returning Friday morning, accompanied by her friend, Miss Sousey, who will spend the holiday vacation as her guest. Miss Helen L. Tew, superintendent of drawing in the public schools at Lincoln, has been entertaining her sister, Miss Tew of Beatrice, who is, superintendent of the drawing and physical culture departments of the schools at that place.

A merry crowd of young people enjoyed a sleighing party last Saturday evening. The participants being, Misses Hallie Hooper, Olive Latta, Gertrude and Carola Hill, Messrs. Fred W. Houts, Sam E. Low, Joseph B. Biggar and Resin Welch. The Resolute, a new local weekly has been received at this office. It is an eight page publication each of which contain four columns of society, dramatic and fraternity news, the publishers being Mr. Joseph Oppenheimer and Mr. J. E. Douglas.

The pleasant news reached Lincoln yesterday announcing the marriage of Mr. Harry Hall, one of our popular young men, to Miss Brew of St. Louis. The happy couple will reach Lincoln about January 5th and be at home to their friends at Fourteenth and G streets. A very pleasant German was that given by Miss Minnie Hawke at her home in Nebraska City last evening. A number of Lincoln people, including Miss Latta and Messrs. Dr. Reeves, C. R. Richter, C. E. McGraw, F. B. Burr, and F. C. Zehring attended and will return today.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cambridge entertained the Three Table card club Wednesday evening at eight o'clock and a most enjoyable evening was rendered each guest. Mrs. Cambridge proved a most amiable hostess. Miss Beulah on the half shell formed the particular feature of delicious oyster supper. Two gentlemen from New York were in the city this week looking up a location for a branch house for one of the most popular New York confectionery establishments. They have been employed at headquarters for a number of years and are capable of conducting a most elegant resort. They left last night for New York after securing an option on a prominent location, expecting to return shortly to open the new store.

Mr. James J. McConn of Omaha, well known to many Lincoln young people, has a number of very fine paintings in the exhibit of the Hayden Art club, two oil paintings, "Cherries" and "Fox Terriers" deserving special mention. He also has a number of water colors and crayon sketches, all betraying considerable ability. Mr. McConn is rapidly making a name for himself by his artistic achievements, and his friends in this city will be pleased to hear of his success. An exceedingly pleasant social event was the party given by the Henrietta club Thursday evening. It will be long remembered in the minds of all present as one of the most successful and enjoyable efforts yet put forth by this organization, which is saying not a little, considering the high reputation they already enjoy. The scenic Thursday evening was one of unusual brilliancy and beauty, and the pleasure derived from dancing the old year out and the new one in was keenly enjoyed by those present.

LINCOLNITES IN CHICAGO. CHICAGO, Dec. 30, 1891. DEAR COURIER:—I believe you are always glad to be given personal notice of interest to the Lincoln public. Kindly mention that Fred W. Krue left Lincoln December 24 for St. Louis, from whence he went to Chicago where he is being entertained by his old Lincoln friend, Miss Ida Bonnell; also that Miss Pearl Wycoff has been spending the holidays in Chicago, the guest of Miss Pearl Bonnell. Mr. Edgar Wessel late of THE COURIER force is enjoining in Chicago. A LADY READER. These books are all standard works and their cost aside from THE COURIER subscriptions, is less than twenty cents per volume. You can't buy the cheapest reprint in paper covers for double that amount. Come in and see these books. In case any subscriber desires the three sets special prices will be made on the lot.

We sell the genuine Canou City too. Betts, Weaver & Co., 1045 O Street. Telephone 440.

Fairly, Gadd, Cowdrey, Ollis Lansing, Curtice, Murray, Hammond, Murnester, McBride, Baldwin, Yates, Clark, Hubbert, Harry Lansing, Chapman, Lottridge, Winger, White, Marshall, Davis, Elliott, Raymond. A quiet and unostentatious wedding took place at the Church of the Holy Trinity at eight o'clock Thursday evening, where, standing before the tastily decorated altar, Rev. John Hewitt pronounced the words which made Russell J. Bryden and Miss Alice Minehart man and wife. The ushers were Messrs C. M. Camp, Frederick Kimball, and Charles and William Jeckell, the two latter preceding the bride party to the altar. Immediately after the ceremony a reception to personal friends only was held at the home of the bride, 1415 N street where an inviting supper was served. The house was prettily decorated with smilax, evergreen, and potted plants, nearly all of which were furnished by Miss Minehart's friends in Tennessee. The bride and groom were very handsomely attired and elicited much admiration on their way to the bridal altar. They will omit the customary wedding tour and make their home at 1415 N street for the present. About sixty guests were present.

Professor Lawrence Fossler of the State University has been pursuing a line of university extension work the past few months that has been extremely profitable. He has conducted a large class in the critical study of Goethe's "Faust", which has met every Tuesday afternoon. Last week the study of the first part of "Faust" was completed, and the class was invited by A. R. Raymond to meet at her residence Saturday evening, ostensibly for the purpose of talking over the work already done and to arrange plans for the future. But this was only one reason for the gathering as Professor Fossler soon discovered, when upon the arrival of the company he was presented with a beautiful Persian marble bust of Goethe on behalf of the class. The presentation was very graciously made by Miss Maud Miller, who made a handsome acknowledgement of the benefit received by the class through the professors painstaking and tireless efforts in the elucidation of the great German author's masterpiece. Professor Fossler was deeply affected by this evidence of appreciation, and made a happy response in which he pronounced a brilliant eulogy on Goethe. Refreshments were afterwards served and the evening pleasantly passed in the discussion of subjects pertaining to the study of the Faust poem.

The Cotillion club held its second German Christmas evening at the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Sheldon. The figures were various and elaborate and the favors were very beautiful, consisting of many Parisian novelties, comprising bonbon baskets for the ladies and bon-bou card balls for the gentlemen, seal leather pen wipers, rests of perfume, decorated tambourines, artistic books, ornamented hair pins, coral bracelets, Dresden china peacocks, silver and gold cupid and cut roses. Among the many figures were the introduction circle, hollow square, the course-way, contest of the candles, umbrellas, and the graces, running the gamut, flower girls, enchanted circle, wind mill, braiding silver scarfs, and the tug of war. The German was led by Lieutenant and Mrs. Townley. Mr. Frank S. Burr was chosen to lead the next German which will be held at the handsome new residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Buckstaff some time in the latter part of January. Light refreshments were served during the evening and it was a thoroughly enjoyable event. The participants were: Mr. and Mrs. Will Stealing, guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Buckstaff, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sheldon, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Little, Mr. and Mrs. Beeson, Dr. and Mrs. Ladd; Misses Gertrude Laws, Bell Sousey of Nebraska City, Fannie Hawley, Martha Funke, Maud Burr, Hallie Hooper, Messrs. Frank Zehring, Will Clarke, Frank Burr, Will Haruy, Dr. Reeves, and F. W. Little who was the guest of his brother, Professor Little, of this city.

There was but little New Years calling yesterday. my Kid. Written for THE COURIER. A dot of the hat, A clasp of the hand, A pleasant how d'ya do; Two friends have met upon the street, Two very good friends and true, Well, how's the folks and how's yourself, Why don't you come around? And see my kid the greatest lad With eyes so large and round They look like saucers, And as bright and twinkling as the stars The features of his face are just The image of his pa's; A disposition like a dove So sweet, so kind, so good, You never saw his equal, You bet though if I could I'd wring his tassel blasted neck And kick him out of sight For raising such a h—l of a noise In the middle of the night.—LIS STONE.

Now the holiday season has come and gone and everyone is poorer or richer in the way of tokens for its occurrence, let us all turn aside to think seriously on the regular modes of everyday life. Winter in reality has not set in yet. It never does of late in Nebraska, as residents know, until the new year commences. Don't think that after Christmas comes spring time. You will need warmer clothing now than you have heretofore and your locker will oft times need replenishing before the balmy breeze of spring comes with its vegetation, fruits and flowers. Louise Meyer & Co., Lincoln's pioneer grocers and drygoods merchants were never more prosperous than today and never enjoyed a larger holiday business as during the recent season. For this and for past favors are they appreciative and return them to you and all. That they will continue to cater to your wants in the most attractive manner goes without saying. They wish you a happy New Year full of peace and plenty and hope to continue past pleasant relations.

Now Does This Strike You? We offer new subscribers (and old ones that pay up in full to date) the following extraordinary bargains. Fifteen handsome cloth bound volumes of Dickens in a neat pasteboard box, and THE COURIER until January 1st, 1892 for $5.00. Ten handsome cloth bound volumes of Thackeray in a neat pasteboard box and THE COURIER until January 1st, 1892 for $4.25. Six handsome cloth bound volumes of George Elliott in a neat pasteboard box and THE COURIER until January 1st, 1892 for $3.25. These books are all standard works and their cost aside from THE COURIER subscriptions, is less than twenty cents per volume. You can't buy the cheapest reprint in paper covers for double that amount. Come in and see these books. In case any subscriber desires the three sets special prices will be made on the lot.

We sell the genuine Canou City too. Betts, Weaver & Co., 1045 O Street. Telephone 440.

REMNANT SALE! A Season's Accumulation Monday we place on sale our entire stock of remnants, consisting of Dress Goods, Linens, Domestic, etc. Our object is to close them out quickly to make room for new spring goods. You will find suitable lengths among the dress goods for ladies and children's dresses at about one-half the former price. Call Early. "ALWAYS THE CHEAPEST!" J W WINGER & CO. 1109 O Street.

INSPECT OUR COLOSSAL STOCK OF CHRISTMAS GOODS IN EVERY DEPARTMENT. It is within the reach of all, rich or poor. Call and look us through. We can surely please you. HERPOLSHMEIER & CO., EXPOSITION STORES.

IN IT ALONE. Now We Cut Profits in Two. Having purchased the interest of Mr. Sanderson in the late firm of Parker & Sanderson, which ended with the old year, I have decided to offer SPECIAL BARGAINS in all lines of goods for the next Thirty days. Ladies will do well to look up our bargains in Fine Street Wear and Party Goods. Remember the old reliable at the old stand. BARR PARKER. 1009 O STREET.

Comparative Measurements of Mrs. Langtry and Venus de Medicea. A London artist furnishes the following measurements of these two beautiful women, the one in flesh and blood, the other in marble: MRS. LANGTRY. THE VENUS. Height... 5 ft. 7 in. ... 5 ft. 7 in. Across the shoulders... 15 " ... 16 " Bust... 36 " ... 38 " Arm... 12 " ... 12 " High... 24 " ... 24 " Calf... 12 " ... 12 " Neck... 12 " ... 12 " Hips... 43 " ... 42 " Length of leg... 28 " ... 28 " Waist... 26 " ... 25 " Length of arm... 26 " ... 26 " Ankle... 8 " ... 8 " Foot... 8 " ... 8 " These figures will enable any woman to ascertain for herself how far she differs in proportion to the two famous beauties. On the whole the modern woman appears to be less muscular and more voluptuously formed than the ancient. Yes, our wall paper stock is mostly composed of exclusive patterns that cannot be obtained elsewhere in the city. We shall be pleased to show them to you, A. C. Ziemer, President. The Interior Decorative Co. 1338 O STREET. Earl Edgar Manager

NEWS—STATIONERY SUBSCRIPTIONS, ARTISTS' MATERIALS & NOVELS THE GOTHAM, 1136 O ST. Give us a Trial Order. —CANVAS STRETCHERS—