A BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY. Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Whiting entertained a company of friends at their home, 1025 C street, Monday evening, Mrs. Whiting's birthday. The house was decorated with flags and flowers. High five and refreshments were enjoyed. Those present were: Messrs and Mesdames Miltonberger, Teeter, McClusky, Fiske, Webster, H. Zehring, E. W. Baldwin, E. J. Bushnell, Dick Randall; Mrs. T. J. Curtis, Mrs. S. T. Cochran, Miss Lord.

SORORIS. Sororis met with Mrs. Dr. Norton Monday when the subject for consideration was "Huguenot Emigration," led by Mrs. W. Q. Bell. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Dr. Norton, when "Pure Foods" will be discussed.

AN EVENING WITH MAYOR WEIR. Mayor Weir and his charming wife entertained a company of friends at the Lindell hotel Wednesday evening with cards and a tea. The occasion was a delightfully enjoyable one and will long live in the pleasant memories of those in attendance as one of the brightest spots in the realm of social events. The genial host and hostess applied themselves with a will to the task of entertaining and, if such a thing be possible, eclipsed all previous efforts in this direction. It was indeed a pleasant affair, in which many of our best known citizens participated.

AGREABLY SURPRISED. A very pleasant surprise was tendered Arthur Bennett at his home, 520 South Twenty-fifth street, last Friday evening, by a large party of his friends. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and other amusements. Those present were: Messrs Maude and Lou Peables, Lasch, Stearns, Rieley, McGlumphy, Ellis and Ada Hagabuch, Waters, Ryans, Prescott; Messrs Bonebrake, Bert and Jim Bailey, Townsend, Benghart, Marine, Marsh, Doyle, Parr, Fansler.

A PLEASANT HIGH FIVE PARTY. Miss Florence Hale and her brother Guy, cleverly entertained their friends at their home, 382 South Twenty-seventh street, Tuesday evening, with one of the most delightfully enjoyable parties of the season. High five was the feature of the evening, but after the games were concluded, the merry mazes of the waltz, polka and quadrille were enjoyed until a late hour. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening, the clever entertainers leaving nothing undone that could add to the company's pleasure or happiness. The ladies' royal prize was captured by Miss Sadie Graham and the gentlemen royal by Gene Brown while the consolation prizes were awarded Miss Mabel Long and Bert Campbell, respectively. Those present were the Messrs Benzie Van Horn of Illinois, Lottie Clark, Amber Barnaby, Sadie Graham, Helen Bain, Mabel Long, Ada Ball, May Blair, Dottie Skye, Clara Smith, Genevieve Buncher, Neva Peterman, Louise Fowler, Stella Hoyt; Gene Brown, Bert Campbell, Geo. West, Will Griffith, Tom and Gene Hollister, Harry Radmore, Ray Winslow, Chas and Will Clark, Dupley Cook and Will Hatch. The party was doubly agreeable to Mr. Hatch, who formerly resided in Lincoln and who is well and favorably known, and is spending a brief vacation among the friends of his boyhood.

FIFTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY. Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Macfarlane entertained a number of friends at their residence, 1230 S street Monday evening, the happy event being the fifth anniversary of their marriage. The host and hostess received a number of useful and suitable presents. The evening was spent very pleasantly with progressive high five, the royal prize being awarded to Miss Sadie Lloyd and J. O'Neill. William Macfarlane captured the booby, a decorated "boon". Those present were: Messrs and Mesdames Halderman, Platt, Mahoney, W. Macfarlane; Messrs Campbell, Lloyd, W. Terman and Brown; Messrs O'Neill and Tucker. A dainty luncheon was served, after which the guests departed carrying with them mementoes but pleasant memories of the happy event.

MR. LANCTON SURPRISED. The friends of Peter Lancton treated him to a well planned surprise at his home, 1430 South Twelfth street Monday evening, the occasion of his birthday anniversary when a pleasant jollification was enjoyed. The surprisers reached Mr. Lancton's home about eight o'clock in the evening and from that time until their departure pleasure reigned supreme. The refreshments provided were both dainty and substantial. Those present were Messrs and Mesdames Prof. LeGross, M. Martin, William Harrison, Goodwin, Lancton; Besse, Ivy and Lena Lancton and Clarence Lancton.

THE C STREET CLUB. The C street club were entertained by Mr. Paul Helm at her home, 1345 O street, last Friday evening, where an enjoyable time was had with the pleasure of high five. Dainty refreshments were served by the pleasant hostess during the evening. Those present were Messrs and Mesdames Henry Zehring, W. Q. Bell, Whiting, Miltonberger, Richardson, Munger, Fiske, Parker, Davis and Teeters.

A BIRTHDAY SURPRISE. A very pleasant surprise party occurred at the residence of Mrs. James S. Parks, 690 South Nineteenth street, last Saturday afternoon, the occasion being Mrs. Parks' birthday anniversary. A number of friends and relatives having discovered the date, concluded to give her a surprise, so they loaded themselves with packages and bundles and promptly at 2:30 they took the home of their friend by storm. Mrs. Parks was overcome with embarrassment at first but recovered in time to entertain her guests and make them very welcome. After spending a short time in social chat and partaking of the excellent refreshments the guests after bestowing upon their hostess some very nice presents and many kind wishes for similar birthdays, returned to their several homes. Those interested were Mesdames E. A. Cole, Ada M. Bittenbender, C. M. Osborn, J. D. Waters, J. L. Hoyt, W. Koomts, W. E. Shelton, Z. Doris, S. A. Pratt, E. Herrick, D. Donahue, L. D. Woodruff, C. Beilfelt, W. Chapman, Schwab, Vought, Albey, R. Murphy, James S. Parks, Misses Maggie Wallace, Emma Towner, Anna Hood, Carrie Koons, Gertie Waters, Hattie Waters and Ada Parks.

IN MRS. WHEELER'S HONOR. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Shaw gave a very pleasant party at their home, 2026 K street, Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Shaw's sister, Mrs. Wheeler of Muscatine, Ia., who have been visiting them for a couple of weeks past. Charades, games, refreshments, etc., served to make an exceedingly pleasant evening for those present, including Messrs and Mesdames A. L. Guile, G. F. H. Schwake, R. E. Hawkes, L. W. Eldridge, J. W. Jordan; Misses Kearns, Roseman, Jordan, Emmert, Upham, Hattie and Besie Shaw; Messrs Link, Parsons and Berge.

EAST LINCOLN WHIST CLUB. The East Lincoln Whist club met with Mrs. M. W. Travis at her home 313 North Sixteenth street, Wednesday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served and a pleasant time enjoyed. Those present were: Mesdames Roberts, Wallis, Cochran, Dang Shilling, Wilson, McDonald, Geo. Spencer, Tuttle, Hale, Guy Brown, Col. Pace, Salisbury, Sawyer, Humphrey, Leavey and A. Smith.

THE F STREET CLUB. The eleventh social meeting of the F street club was held Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Biggell. Choice refreshments were served and a happy evening enjoyed by all. Those present were: Messrs and Mesdames W. Q. Bell, A. M. Baird, A. Hurlbut, J. C. Salsberry, J. F. Lansing, Dr. F. W. Tucker, Dr. C. B. Manning, F. A. Brown, F. A. Sohen, F. H. Benon, Landy Clark, M. A. Warren, Cass, Mills, Tipling, A. J. Sawyer; Mrs. Bryan, Mrs. Tuttle, Mrs. Hard, Miss Emma Brown; Messrs Will Painter, Hutchins, Hollwig and Aitken.

AN EVENING WITH MRS. TIFFANY. Mrs. M. D. Tiffany gave an exceedingly pleasant card party at her home, 116 south twenty-ninth street, Friday evening. Yellow was the predominating color of the evening. The house was beautifully decorated with plants, flowers and smilax. Delicious refreshments were served at 11:30 by Mrs. Grube. The ladies' royal prize in the contest at high five, a silver after-dinner coffee spoon with gold bowl, was won by Mrs. L. H. Austin and the gentlemen's royal a silver pocket paper knife, by Mr. Spencer. Altogether it was a highly enjoyable and creditable affair. Those present were: Messrs and Mesdames Salisbury, Wickersham, Spencer, McDonald, Tuttle, Hicketts, Grube, L. H. Austin, Burr, Lewis, J. E. R. Miles, Melick, McCandless, E. T. Roberts, Hale, Oppenheimer, Rudge, Dorgan, Dr. Gibson; Messrs J. Oppenheimer, Harry Grube, Robert Dorgan, Guy Hopkins, Beardsley; Misses Melick, Beardsley and Mrs. Brown.

WITH THE MESSES MERRILL. Electa Chapter, No. 8, were entertained by Miss Kate L. Merrill, assisted by her sister, Miss Mabel, at their home, 293 south Eleventh street, Tuesday evening. The pleasures of progressive high five were thoroughly enjoyed, the ladies' royal prize, a china fruit basket, being captured by Mrs. Boyce and the gentlemen's royal, a handsome whisk broom and holder, by M. K. Davey. The consolation prizes went to Miss Perky, who secured the drum, and Miss Byam, the candelabra. Choice refreshments were served during the evening and a very pleasant time enjoyed. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Davey, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Green, G. H. and Mrs. Dr. Crandall, Mesdames L. W. Garrouette, J. B. Paddock, Dinges, Boyce, Nelson, Misses Mary Byam, L. Beas Paddock, Marie Lord, Ramsey, Metro Crandall, Pierce and Dr. Perky; Messrs, H. M. Harris, E. M. Lamb, Dr. Lord, C. W. Fisherick and H. J. Byam.

THE HENRIETTA'S RECEPTION. The reception tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. McCall by the members of the Henrietta club at Temple hall Monday evening was an unqualified success. About thirty-five couples were present, who enjoyed to the utmost the pleasure of the occasion. The costumes were exceedingly beautiful and elicited many words of praise, and commendation. A delightful supper was served at Odell's in his usual superb style. Those present were: Messrs and Mesdames, C. B. McCall, C. Keefe, A. M. Stewart, F. M. Blish, Thomas Love, Thomas Tate, John Barber, H. B. Clarkson, James W. Smith and A. A. Scott, Messrs Griffith, Charles and Will Clark, Brown, Charles and Ed Weckbach, McDonald, Lanaster, Wilson, Bert Howie, Miller, Bart Heffley, Hall, Aitken, Heister, Thomson, Evans, Johnson, C. Mr. P. J. Bonwit of the Bazar, 1023 O street, who has been in New York since the twentieth of January has broken all previous records in securing an immense line of dress goods, silks and washgoods at such low prices that every lady who has inspected the new purchases has only words of praise.

Roy Chapman is at present in Chicago selecting a line of goods for the branch wholesale agency here of D. B. Fiske and company of that city of which he is manager. Business is combined with pleasure on this trip, for we notice he was present at the party given Friday evening by the Kenwood club at its beautiful club house on Lake avenue. Mr. Chapman will return next week.

The Y. M. C. A. String Quartette has recently made its appearance before the public at Temple hall Monday evening. It consists of: first violin, A. M. Smith; second violin, F. W. Ferris; violoncello, George W. McKinney; Cello, L. A. Bonstreak. The young men are excellent musicians and are rendering some very fine music. They are now playing every Sunday at four p. m. at the Young Men's Gospel meetings at Y. M. C. A. hall.
