The North American Review for April brings forward many subjects of public concern, handled exhaustively by the foremost men of the times.

A notable literary article will appear in the April Forum by Mr. Phillip G. Hamerton, who discusses the important subject of the Learning of Languages.

The complete novel in Lippincott's Magazine for April, "But Men Must Work," is by the well-known and popular author, Rosa Nouchette Carey.

The April number of the North American Review will contain articles on Patriotism and Politics by Cardinal Gibbons; on the Olympic Religion by Mr. Gladstone; on the Negro Question by Thomas Nelson Page; on Michigan's Presidential Electors by the governor of Michigan; on The Free Zone in Mexico by the Mexican minister; on the Modern Cart of Theopis by the comedian, W. H. Crane; on Money and Usury by Henry Clews; on Typhus Fever by Dr. Cyrus Edson; on Reciprocity and the Farmer by Hon. Hilary Herbert; chairman of the Committee on Naval Affairs; on French Girls by Mrs. Adam; and on Immigration by the Hon. John B. Weber, United States Inspector of Immigration, and Charles Stewart Smith, president of the New York Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Gladstone, the wife of the famous British statesman, in the first of her articles, "Hints From a Mother's Life," gives much valuable advice in the April Ladies' Home Journal, which comes promptly to its hundreds of thousands of readers in a dainty Easter cover of pink.

LITERARY NOTES. Money and Usury are to be discussed in the April number of the North American Review by the well-known banker, Henry Clews. Governor J. N. Irwin has written for the April Forum a review of the causes of the political change from Republican to Democratic ascendancy in Iowa.
