THE F STREET'S EASTER MEETING.

The F street club had the last meeting of the season, and in many respects its pleasantest one, with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sawyer on Friday evening. Mrs. Sawyer took advantage of the season to make the entertainment a novel one and that she succeeded admirably the following description will show.

LINCOLN WELCOMES NEBRASKA'S ORATOR. Congressman Bryan returned to Lincoln on Tuesday evening via the Burlington and his many friends and admirers turned out on mass to welcome him. A driving rain somewhat moistened the ardor of the reception, but only until the hospitable crowd could get their guest under shelter at the Lincoln. Two bands of music, however, accompanied the enthusiastic reception committee to the station and to the hotel where there was abundant display of warm feeling.

WOMAN'S CLUB AT TAIT'S. Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Tait entertained the Woman's club very pleasantly Wednesday evening at their home, 1013 A street. The company assembled early in the evening and at half past seven a delicious tea was served. The feast, which was one of unusual attractiveness, comprising all the goodies and substantial, was served at two large tables.

THE NEW F. S. CLUB. The home of Dr. G. B. Chapman was thrown open Friday evening to the members of the F. S. club and their lady friends. The time was agreeably passed with progressive high five and dancing, a fine luncheon which was served at 10:30 marking the dividing line between the two amusements. Miss Katie Klusach carried off the royal prize at cards while Miss Eva Ricketts received the consolation. This club has but recently been formed, the event of last Friday being its initial party, and the young gentlemen who are its originators are to be complimented on their management.

A DUPLICATE WHIST PARTY. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Farrell gave a very delightful whist party on Wednesday evening. The weather being so disagreeable without, the pleasures of the evening were enjoyed all the more within. The company was pleasantly adorned with flowers. The fascinating game of duplicate whist was played, and the refreshments, the most tempting, completed an evening of unusual pleasantness. The guests were Messrs and Mesdames Carl Funke, Alfred Hargroves, Abbott, Ed. Green, Will Green, Wilson, J. B. Wright, Ed. Holmes, Perry and Frank Hall.

MR. LINCH-COOLEY. Mr. William B. Linch and Miss Alice Z. Cooley, both of this city, were united in marriage on March 31st, 1892, at Trinity M. E. church. Rev. H. Cooley assisted by Dr. Huntington, the pastor, performed the ceremony. The presents were many and beautiful bestowed by their numerous friends. Mr. and Mrs. Linch are now at home at 3538 South Ninth street.

THE C STREET CLUB. Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Blish entertained the C street club on Friday evening with the popular game of high five. Very delightful refreshments were served and an exceedingly pleasant time was passed. The members are Messrs and Mesdames Teeters, Fink, Miltenberger, Parker, Munger, Henry Zebrung, Holm, Richardson, Whiting and Davis.

There is joy, peace and good will at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. Brucka, on Q street, and papa is now owner of five beautiful children, the last of which is a bright baby boy weighing twelve pounds, a Saturday visitor last week. Mother doing well, baby learning how to say papa, and Mr. Brucka just as proud as though it was a first-born.

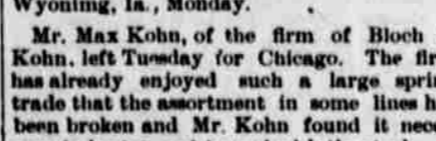

Miss Clarkie Pace has been visiting in Evansville, Indiana, where she took part in a musical entertainment. The Journal of that city speaks as follows of her part in the program: "Donetti was represented in solo by Miss Pace in a selection from Linditi Chamronix, most daintily rendered. Miss Pace shows marked success in her art, especially in the beauty and range of the higher tones."

Will Huffman has returned from New York and other eastern parts after a most beneficial trip of four weeks. There are two reasons why the term beneficial is used here, and they are mutual. First, the trip was beneficial to Mr. Huffman from a point of health, recreation and business, and secondly, it will be beneficial to his friends and patients because he selected a line of new spring suitings, such as has never before been seen in Lincoln and will certainly be appreciated by all lovers of good dress. He reports business east as greatly improving and that there is a general tendency all over the country indicating better times.

Last Saturday's advertisement in the COURIER announcing that J. W. Winger & Co. would sell their 40 cent China silk for 18 cents, was a great success, nearly all the goods having been sold by Monday noon. Following up this plan J. W. Winger & Co. today advertise a special two-day sale of laces in which they will allow a discount of 25 per cent or one-fourth off on all laces to persons who have seen the advertisement in the COURIER. These laces comprise all the newest spring goods, and it is the only chance that ladies will have to buy these goods at such remarkable figures. Sale is for two days only—today and Monday.

Quarter Off Lace Sale. All the newest laces go at 25 per cent off today and Monday at J. W. Winger & Co. 1109 O street.

An Original Method.

"That looks queer. What's Dobster going to do with that canvas?"

"Oh, that's the way Frank always starts. Gets his signature on and then paints around it."—Brooklyn Life.

Alarmed.

A good story is told of a very reverend and very dignified master of an English college. Although "the doctor" was a serious man, he was also a kindly one, and when a young man of his college fell ill did all in his power to procure him good care and the best medical advice.

Finally the invalid's sister arrived, and as she was young and inexperienced the worthy doctor endeavored by constant attention to lighten her load of anxiety.

She was most grateful and confided to her betrothed, who was at a distance, her desire that only "the dear doctor," the master of the college, should perform their wedding ceremony. The student recovered, and was now to accompany his sister home, there to be nursed into vigor again.

The doctor was present to say goodbye, and the young lady was full of gratitude.

"Doctor," said she, grasping both his hands, "you have been so good to me!"

"I have found great pleasure in your acquaintance," said the gentleman, in his most dignified and courteous manner.

"You have done so much for me, but I am going to ask one more favor! Will you promise to marry me?"

The doctor, amiable as he was, dropped her hands and started back in horror.

"My dear young lady," he stammered, "I—I'm afraid we shouldn't get on together!"—Youth's Companion.
