LINCOLN SOCIETY

Matters socially are, to use a slang expression, "out of sight," as our columns will show. Such, however, will be the state of affairs during the heated term. Most Lincolnites who can get away and have enough loose change handy to defray expenses are off to some of the resorts and only those who must remain at home to eke out an existence during the heated term. Yet we unfortunates, as some call it, have no cause to complain at the treatment we are and have been receiving thus far at the hands of "Old Sol." The atmosphere has not been very warm, while the nights without an exception have been comfortable and oft times very cool.
Under such circumstances the stay-at-homes have fared nobly—in fact even far better than some of our eastern tourists, where it is claimed the weather has been exceedingly warm.

The elegant home of J. E. Houtz was the scene of an auction sale Thursday and Auctioneer Kaley's stentorian voice was heard crying the sale of the household effects. The furniture and in fact nearly everything brought a very fair price and he said with credit to Mr. Kaley, he made a big success of the sale. He has a strong voice, speaks clearly and always keeps the crowd in good humor. The sale was attended by the elite of Lincoln all of whom seemed to regret that Mr. Houtz's home and effects were being disposed of, thereby losing a prominent and popular citizen and family. Health however being first and foremost in life, and Mrs.
Houtz's condition faring better in California the change is one of necessity and not of choice or pleasure.

Monday night Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Keyes gave a party in honor of Mrs. Dr. Kelso of Clyde, Mo. The early part of the evening was pleasantly spent in high five. Light refreshments were served at 11 o'clock after which an impromptu musical programme was given which was enjoyed by all. An egigant hand painted souvenir was given to each guest on leaving. Those present were Mr and Mrs L. W. Snow, Wells, F. W. Stevens, M. H. VanHorn, F. A. Wilson, Mrs Kelso and
A. G. Kellum.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Imhoff, accompanied by their bright little son, Richard, left Sunday for New York. After a weeks visit in Gotham they will proceed to Mr. Imhoff's summer home at Spring Lake Beach, on the coast of New Jersey, near Long Branch.
Mr. Imhoff will return about the middle of July, leaving his family to enjoy a seashore season until its ending. Mr. I. M. Raymond and family are also there, and report it one of the most sightly and best bathing spots on the coast.

Louie Meyer & Co. who sold a steamship ticket to Messrs. J. D. Macfarland and G. M.
Lambertson, received a cable message Thursday that both gentlemen had arrived at South Hampton that morning. They left New York on the evening of June 30th via the Hamburg American line and having arrived on the morning of the 7th, makes the trip one of but six and one-half days. The arrived in Hamburg Thursday evening making the trip total to Germany in seven and one-half days.

The parks all did a rushing business on the Fourth and Burlington Beach came in for a like share of favors. There were numerous small parties that went out to enjoy the day and as no accidents are reported, it may well be said and with due gratitude too, that Lincoln escaped luckily. The day was cool and pleasant and accordingly much enjoyed by everyone.

Miss Josie Ehrlich was the honored guest at a box party given at the Lansing theatre Monday evening by her sister, Mrs. L. Wessel, Jr. The play was "Gloriana," by Chas.
Frohman's company and the party occupying the box comprised: Misses Josie Ehrlich of St. Joseph, Sadie Graham, Amanda Kohn, Ida Friend, and Mr. and Mrs. Wessel, Jr.
The exodus just now is toward New York.
The exceedingly low rates to the convention of the Y. P. E. of C. E. attracted nearly three hundred from Lincoln and the National Educational society meeting at Saratoga next week will probably draw fully as large a gathering from here.

The Kansas City Star says: Mrs. A. C.
Perry, Miss Ada Firey, Mrs. W. H. Dilside and Mrs. E. K. Criley and daughters, Misses Kate and Mattie, and von, Theodore, formed a party which left over the Santa Fe this morning for Cascade, Col., where they will spend the summer.

Miss Emma Lane, daughter of Mrs. and Dr. Lane, who has been visiting her parents for some time, returned Friday to her home in Emporia, Kansas. Miss Lane holds the position of court reporter and has already distinguished herself in that work.
Misses Gertrude and Annette Abbott left for Omaha Saturday to visit with relatives.
Miss Gertrude returned Thursday evening, while her sister will remain in the metropolis for several weeks.

Hon. J. E. Hill was awarded the horse, Sir Albeit, which was put up as a prize at Hurlbut's to the patron guessing the number of beans in a jar. Mr. Hill's guess was 17,681.

There is much rejoicing at the home of Capt. J. C. McCune of the fire department and a new baby boy which arrived Tuesday is all the cause thereof.
Mrs. Wm. Harrison left Monday for Cleveland, O., expecting to be absent about three months visiting friends.

Mrs. Dr. Tucker is entertaining Mrs. P. O.
Hedlund of Holdrege at her elegant home in the Lyman Terrace.

Mr. J. L. Murphy enjoyed his Sunday dinner in Lincoln with his brother's family at 1211 A street.

Rev. Norman Plass leaves Monday for a four weeks vacation in the pleasure resorts of Minnesota.

A Yost typewriter and cabinet, almost new, for sale cheap. Call at this office, 1134 N street.

Mrs. Dr. Protzman and son, Charles, left Wednesday for Burlington to visit with relatives.

Miss Millie Preston of Fort Scott, Kansas, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. R. Taylor, 1305 C street.

After spending a month in the Black Hills, Mrs. C. D. Pitcher, Mrs. A. E. Kennard, Mrs. C. M. Keefer and Mr. T. P. Kennard returned Sunday. Charlie Keefer and Alva Kennard, anxious to renew the acquaintances of their betterhalves, went out to meet them and joined the returning tourists at Grand Island.

The Lincoln Oratorio society, under the direction of Mrs. P. V. M. Raymond, will be one of the features of the Chautauqua assembly at Crete. The chorus will sing next Monday and Friday evenings, and it is expected that special trains will be run from this city on these occasions.

Mr. Homer J. Edmiston left Thursday for Philadelphia to reside permanently and will enter the employ of Githens, Rossmer & Co., wholesale importers. He is a graduate of the class of '92 of the State University, and one of Lincoln's most popular young men.

Mrs. Dr. Kelso, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kellum, 1000 Euclid avenue, left for her home in Clyde, Mo., on the Burlington Thursday morning.
Mrs. F. A. Wilson and Mrs. D. E. Kelso accompanied her as far as Omaha.

Mr. Otto Mohrenstecher, junior partner of Herpolsheimer & Co., is doing New York commercially. Incidentally he will run down to Coney's Isle, dip in the sad salt waves, and take in other of the resorts and amusements before returning.

Miss Annie Barr, after a six months visit in New York, returned home Monday. Miss Barr's musical education has been liberally benefitted by a course under the noted Prof.
Conway. Lincoln may well feel proud of such musical talent.

Mr. C. R. Richter, now of St. Joseph, enjoyed the Fourth in Lincoln. "Bobby" is a welcome and frequent visitor here and his friends are now wondering how many more visits he will make before the important event is announced.

A small party of Lincolnites are sojouring at Lake Osakis, Minn., out for a general good time fishing, hunting, etc. Mr. C. H.
Morrill and family, John D. Knight and family, and Earl McCreary are among the party.

Grace M. E. church was a most beautiful place of worship last Sunday. It was children's day and the interior was made resplendent with floral decorations which added materially to an excellent service.

Among the arrivals of the week a most prominent one registered at the home of his honored, Judge Allen Field, on N street. The little fellow, a boy, arrived Tuesday and all hands are doing well.

Miss Sadie Becker entertained very pleasantly a congenial company of friends at an informal lawn party Thursday evening, in honor of her guest, Miss Fishburn of California.

Mr. E. Baker, the clothier-district clerk, left with his family Tuesday for the coast and will spend several weeks visiting the scenes of bygone days in Wilmington, Delaware.

Mrs. R. T. Van Brunt left Tuesday for the east, Cape May and Atlantic City, both New Jersey seashore resorts, being the most prominent points to be visited.

Just now the exodus to the sea shore, mountains and lakes is at its most popular stage, and as usual Lincoln is sending hundreds to the various resorts.

Mrs. Susan Upton and daughters, Misses Lucy and Belle, left Thursday for the Dakota Hot Springs. They will spend a month or more in the Black Hills.

Dr. F. A. Graham and brother, A. D. Graham, left Wednesday for San Francisco where their mother and sisters are enjoying Pacific coast life.

The Lincoln Turnverein returned Tuesday from St. Louis City where they distinguished themselves in the Turn Bezirk which closed their Monday.

Mr. M. L. Beach, a former Lincolnite but now a resident of Portland, Oregon, is visiting scenes of bygone days and friends in the capital city.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Thompson were the recipients on Saturday last of a sweet little chunk of new humanity. It is a boy and all's well.

The Epworth league of Grace M. E. church in East Lincoln celebrated its first anniversary Sunday evening in a most becoming manner.

Sioux City.

As many westerners have gotten the idea into their head that our own Buffalo Bill (otherwise the Hon. W. F. Cody of this state) and his Wild West Show has gone into history as far as its popularity in England is concerned, the following taken from a London cable letter under date of July 1st in the New York Sport Music and Drama shows that "our Bill" is still in popular favor across the water: "The long and short of America, otherwise Buffalo Bill and Marshall Wilder, are respectively in a state of ecstatic bliss, for the former has had the honor of amusing and being personally complimented by the queen of England, whilst the latter has had a like experience with the queen of song, Patti, the peerless. On Saturday last Col.
Cody took his troupe to Windsor, where in the park attached to the grand old castle a locket with the royal monogram in diamonds and rubies to Buffalo Bill. The show was a huge success, and has caused no little envy among the London theatrical managers and amusement caterers, as no English entertainment has received the royal command this season."

Carp et Laying, Cleaning, Etc.
