for a two weeks trip among the lakes of Minnesota. Mr. Lane will be absent until September 1st.

Mr. Myron Wheeler entertained his father, Major Dan Wheeler of Omaha, this week.
The major came down as a delegate to the convention.

Dr. F. W. Chase, of the Copeland Medical Institute, has moved his family to Lincoln and now occupy a cozy home at Fourteenth and F streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stewart have gone to Chicago, which city they will make their future home. They will be missed by a wide circle of friends.

Mr. J. Ingerman and family are visiting friends and relatives in Wisconsin during which time the lake region will receive due attention at their hands.

Mr. T. E. Lewis, formerly an Omaha Republican representative in Lincoln but later-ly a boomer of western commercial centers, is visiting here for a few days.

Mr. J. W. Johnson and Mr. F. A. Pyle together with their families returned Tuesday from Curtis Lake where they have been enjoying ten days of rustic tent life.

Mr. Edward Wessel, the haberdasher of Omaha, otherwise and more familiarly known to his Lincoln friends as "alivers," was a Sunday visitor at his brother's home.

Messrs. Frank DuTill and Foster Beach after cycling to Chicago and back are at home once more in Lincoln and speak of the adventure as a romantic and very successful one.

Mr. Sewell Sanderson returned Saturday from a two weeks trip to Minnesota. The rest of the party of which Mr. Sanderson was one, will return today by the "prairie schooner" route.

The members of the Boston Opera company visited the insane asylum Tuesday afternoon and rendered a delightful concert before the unfortunates that seemed to be thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Hon. M. B. Reese locked up house and home Thursday and together with his family hid themselves to a more congenial climate.
They are now enjoying mountain air at Denver and vicinity.

D. H. R. Patton has been visiting friends in the city for the past two weeks and left yesterday for Denver where he will extend his vacation a week longer before returning to his home in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Bertig, of Paragould, Ark., arrived in the city Thursday and until last evening were the guests of Mr. and Mrs.
Lou Wessel, 1827 L street. The two ladies were chums and schoolmates in early girlhood days.

A number of Lincoln horsemen and others that enjoy the sight of flying horses around a track, attended the races at Friend this week. Several well known Lincoln horses were in the races and some of them distinguished themselves by carrying off prizes.

The fact that the Boston Opera company has been engaged to remain another week at Lincoln park is good news to the hundreds of people who have been going out each evening to witness their clever productions. They furnish an enjoyable performance and Lincolnites are not slow to appreciate a good thing.

Miss Fannie Newman left Monday for Chicago from which place after a few days visit she will depart for New York to visit with her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Newman. Miss Newman will visit Mrs.
Judge Bundy and daughter, Miss May, at Newport for a month and after re-visiting the metropolis expects to be home about October 1st.

A very pleasant gathering of friends had a merry time at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Leming, 3133 R street, the occasion being the wedding nuptials of their daughter, Miss Carrie L. Nice to Edwin M.
Coffin. Only a few near friends and relatives were invited, and the presents were both elegant and numerous. Excellent music was discoursed and a general good time had.

A party of merry picnickers, members of the Palladian Society of the State University, enjoyed themselves at Lincoln park Thursday evening. The party consisted of Misses Getner, Lewis, Yates, Coffin, Rose, Marsian, Bullock, Trester and Hammond. The lucky gentlemen, for it was a leap year picnic, were Messrs. Polard, W. D. Reed, Summers, Babcock, Cullen, Marlay, Fisher, R. E. Johnson and Tucker.

Mrs. F. V. M. Raymond, accompanied by her sister, Miss Stella Rose, left Saturday for a two weeks sojourn in the Black Hills, during which time Sioux Falls, Dell Rapids and Hot Springs will be visited. On her return, Mrs. Raymond will go to the Atlantic seashore and join Mrs. I. M. Raymond who is summering there, and will remain about a month. Certainly no one deserves so delighful a vacation more.

Mr. S. Oberfelder, late of Omaha, has become a full fledged citizen of the capital city and opened extensively in the wholesale liquor business on P street opposite the postoffice. Mr. Oberfelder is a gentleman of means, a brother of I. Oberfelder, the well known wholesale milliner of Omaha, and will doubtless do a thriving and successful business in a field that is as yet but partially occupied. He will move his family to Lincoln about September 1st.

Mrs. Jennie Marine Sanderson, Lincoln's popular supervisor of music in the city schools, left Monday for Highland Park, Ill., a suburb of Chicago, to improve her already excellent musical ability. Mrs. Sanderson will receive expert instruction in chorus training for her Lincoln school work at Highland and to further her own voice culture she will take a thorough course under the noted Prof. B. B. Young at the Chicago Auditorium conservatory, expecting to divide her time between the two places.

There will be a big time at Cushman park tomorrow, the occasion being the second annual picnic of the Lincoln social club. A big program comprising baseball, dancing, music, boating, bathing, etc., has been arranged and a general good time awaits all. A matched game of ball between the Lincoln Diamonds and a picked nine from Hickman will be one of the features, and a grand concert by the Lincoln Military band will be another great attraction. Refreshments of all kinds will be supplied and the day given up in general to liberal outdoor amusements. Trains leave B. & M. depot at 2:30 and 3:30 p. m. and return at 6 and 9 p. m. Boating will be at 10 cents per hour and admission to park also but 10 cents.

Mr. George A. Savage of Oil City, Pa., was installed as steward and assistant manager of the Lindell hotel Monday. Mr. Savage has had an extended experience in the hotel business, having been connected with the Arlington at Oil City for the past five years and previously with the Revere House at Boston, the Weddell at Cleveland, Ohio, and other leading hotels. Messrs. Hoover and Son are displaying commendable enterprise in remodeling and enlarging the Lindell, and when all the improvements in progress have been completed they will have one of the finest hotels in the west. On Tuesday they occupied for the first time their spacious and elegantly fitted new dining room. Mr.
Steve Hoover, since his father's illness, has had entire charge, and that his management is popular with the hotel's large patronage is evinced by the favor in which he is held and the increase in business which the new Lindell continues to enjoy. With the enlargement of the hotel and the increase in business an assistant became necessary, and the services of one with Mr. Savage's experience will greatly relieve the management.

The leading feature of society this week was the wedding which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Aitken, 1617 F street Wednesday evening, on which occasion their daughter, Mrs. Jean A. Hard was united in holy bonds of matrimony with Mr. Ferdinand Hellwig. At eight o'clock after the large number of guests had arrived the happy couple wended their way into the parlor where Rev. E. H. Chapin delivered an interesting service which made the matrimonial candidates duly elected man and wife. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the new home of Mr. and Mrs.
Hellwig, 1525 F street, where a reception was in progress from nine until eleven. Refreshments were handsomely served and the time intervening pleasantly passed in social converse, extending congratulations and having an enjoyable time generally. The list of presents was large, many of them being both elegant and valuable. The bride is a well-known Lincoln lady, whose presence in society has always been a charm, and, having all the accomplishments of modern woman, will be most amiable help to her companion in life.
Mr. Hellwig is one of our prosperous business men, proprietor of the Lincoln glove factory and a gentleman of excellent business qualifications. Mr. and Mrs. Hellwig are now quartered in their newly furnished home, which is their own fig tree, where they will be pleased to see their friends, at 1525 F street.

Some Good Spelling.

EDITOR COURIER:—Aunt Samantha does not profess to be either a critic or a scholar, but as she read quite an interesting article in last week's COURIER entitled "Our Language" with your permission would like to correct a few words. In speaking of the buoy they should have spelled "Sun" Sun and "fair" should be fare, and everybody nose that awl spells "all" and that "not is spelled knot, and "him" by awl mienss Eye think these pease is about perfect as far as spelling is consured, eye would advise awl who have not red this article refered too above, too look it up and read it for it is very interesting. Hoping this may nete with your approval, eye am yoor's truly, AUNT SAMANTHA.

Why Will Ye Swelter?

Yes, "swelter" is the word—the only term to express the condition of humanity witt-ing under the scorching city heat. Why do you endure it, while the pine-clad peaks of the White Mountains rear aloft into clear, cool, invigorating atmospheres. Why do you suffer in the heated, dusty city, when the cool, sparkling waters nestle in the shadows of the Adirondacks and invite you to refreshment? Think of the swirling, wishing waters of the rushing St. Lawrence, with the shade of the Thousand Isles. Think of the bold bluffs of beautiful Mackinac Island with the cooling breezes from the icy waters of the lake. Think of the lovely islets of Les Cheneaux and the toothsome fish darting through the rapid waters. Think of the rest and the comforts and the pleasures, and fly —fly from the torrid city! You haven't your wings, perhaps, but you have that old friend, the Michigan Central, the famous old standby of the tourist, and it will fly for you, carrying you swiftly to regions of cool delight and unalloyed comfort. The hot weather is here to stay. Take the Michigan Central and fly from it. 8-6-92

Cheap money for home builders can be obtained by investing in some shares of the Lincoln Loan and Building association which entitle the holder to borrow one hundred dollars on each share held, gives him a pro rata share of all the earnings of the corporation and enables him to pay off the loan in easy monthly installments, but little in excess of rent. This is a purely mutual and home institution. Office in rear room, First National bank.

Notice to Boys or Others.
