Mr. J. K. Honeywell is taking a well earned vacation in Colorado, and together with his daughter, Miss May, is taking a ten days visit in Denver and Manitou.

South Seventeenth street, when paved, will be one of the finest for driving and cycling in the city, and the work of paving seems to progress quite rapidly.

A trio of ladies, Mrs. P. J. Cunningham, Mrs. Mary Callery and Mrs. T. H. Spellman, left Monday for a month's visit to Manitou and other Colorado resorts.

Mr. J. E. McMurry and Miss Olive Latta left Tuesday for Chicago where they will meet Mrs. McMurry. After a week's visit there the trio will return to Lincoln.

The new clothing house of Fisher & Warfel opened Thursday at 1130 O street and is coming in for its share of business. It will be a popular factor in Lincoln commercial circles.

Mrs. Jennie Murphy, otherwise known to COURIER readers as "Aunt Samantha," returned home Thursday evening to find that a burglar had entered her house and as a memento of his visit took her handsome gold time piece.

Hon. and Mrs. J. B. Wright, after having spent several months touring the great northwest, including the Puget Sound country, are once more in town at their cozy home on east M street.

Hon. J. C. F. McKesson, the representative from Emerald, was a Lincoln visitor Thursday. There seems to be no doubt of Mr. McKesson's re-election to the legislative halls this winter.

"Tony" Hamilton, Barnum & Bailey's press agent, enlivened the COURIER headquarters Thursday morning with an hour's chat and reminiscences. The great show will be with us September 10th.

The death of Miss Nellie Boardley at Weeping Water created much sorrow in this city where that popular young lady had legions of friends, a number of whom attended the funeral Thursday.

Mr. L. C. Burr and family are now at home at 1113 H street in the Lyman terraces, where they expect to reside until their beautiful new home on Capitol square, now in course of construction, is completed.

The Knights of Pythias lodges of the city gave a large and enjoyable dance in the pavilion at Burlington Beach last night. There was a large assembly present and the affair proved a success financially as well as socially.

Mrs. L. C. Burr, Mr. Chas. L. Burr, Miss Mae Burr, and Mr. S. T. St. John returned from Lake Okoboji Thursday. The party claims to have had a most delightful time and return much pleased with their trip and outing.

A very pleasant kettledrum was given last evening at the home of Mrs. Angie Newman, on east M street to the members of the W. U. T. U. The arrangements were deftly carried out and every one experienced an enjoyable evening.

Rev. F. S. Stein consummated a contract Sunday evening at his residence on Capitol square which made Mr. Albert Hood and Miss Ada L. Parks man and wife. The ceremony was witnessed by only a few friends and was a quiet affair.

Mr. Harry P. Irvine of Omaha, the gentleman who is about to organize a new orchestra in this city, was a Lincoln visitor Thursday. While here he engaged a number of musicians and will bring the balance from Omaha next week.

Mr. L. A. Bumstead has purchased an interest in Mr. Gardner's gentle furnishing goods store, and the firm hereafter will be known as Gardner & Bumstead. They are at home in the new Y. M. C. A. building and ready to receive their friends.

Lieut. Pershing of the State university military department, after returning home last week, spent a few days in the city and proceeded thereafter to Chicago where he will remain until his duties call him back, which will be after the state fair.

Mrs. L. Brucks gave a pleasant party Thursday evening in honor of a visiting young lady, Miss Beatrice Rosenfield of Hastings. The guests were invited to tea and spent a delightful evening, the exercises being composed of various games, etc.

Mrs. Belle C. Betts has applied to the courts for a divorce from her husband, Gorman F. Betts. Mrs. Betts claims that her husband was frequently intoxicated and in May last deserted her and left her without support. She asked for her maiden name.

Prof. Frank Strong, having shaken the dust of St. Joseph from his patent leathers, arrived in Lincoln Wednesday accompanied by his estimable lady. Mr. Strong is a pleasant and courteous gentleman and his popularity will soon be established in Lincoln.

Several hundred young folks too numerous to mention went down to Beatrice Wednesday to attend the Y. P. S. C. E. convention. They had a delightful time and are unanimous that the Chautauque grounds is a delightful spot and the citizens of Beatrice a pleasant and hospitable people.

Miss Adda Prentice of Carthage, Ill., who has been spending the week with Miss Laura Easterday, left for home yesterday. Miss Prentice has been sojourning in Denver and vicinity for the past two months and enroute homeward bound, stopped here to renew friendship with former residents of Carthage.

Hotelling, the O street grocer, has anything you may want in the way of lunch or picnic specialties, such as puddings, jellies, tongues, beef, potted meats, deviled ham, fish of various kinds, pickles, oysters, dressing, canned fruits, vegetables, cookies, potato chips, etc., etc., and so on and so on.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cutright had the pleasure of entertaining the former's brother, Mr. James H. Cutright of Peoria a few days this week. Mr. Cutright is one of those "Mason" men who have been to Denver, and enroute home could not resist the temptation of visiting his brother and the great city of Lincoln. It is needless to add that the visitor was handsomely entertained while in the city.

The fact that Lincoln is to have a really first class orchestra this winter for dance music is cause for rejoicing among society people. Mr. Irvine's Musical Union orchestra has always furnished the music for all the well affairs in Omaha, and the many Lincoln people who have attended the assemblies and other leading social affairs are jubilant over the fact that same music will soon be heard at Lincoln parties.

And so Lincoln is to have the "Last Days of Pompeii" during the fair. It is an undertaking of immense magnitude and the enterprising Lincoln Street Railway company has assured it all. Now all Lincoln owes it to itself and its reputation to work for the success of this monstrous entertainment. Never before has the exhibition been presented in a town as small as Lincoln and the engagement will therefore speak volumes for the pluck and energy of this wonderful city. Lincoln, however, is equal to almost any undertaking and the state at large may rest assured that she will magnificently carry out this stupendous event just as she has other great affairs in the past. Meanwhile Lincolnites should bear the "Last Days of Pompeii" constantly in mind and give it a "boost" whenever they can.

Our readers are again reminded of the fact that we desire their contributions of social items, personal notes, etc. Send them in on a postal card, by letter or via telephone 353. Such favors are duly appreciated and will always receive proper attention. Should you require the assistance of a reporter at any time a request for one will be promptly answered. Kindly remember this hereafter.

Mr. Henry R. Ecker, junior member of the firm of Wilson & Ecker, Lindell hotel druggists, left for Clinton, Ohio, on a hunting expedition Monday. When Mr. Ecker returns he will be accompanied by a charming society belle of Clinton, and the wedding, so Cupid tells us, is to take place next Wednesday. On that day Mr. Ecker will lead Miss Lillian Hunting to the altar.

Affliction, as is said to be the custom, never comes singly. Sunday evening Mr. W. H. Irvine, who is confined in the county jail for the murder of Ed. Montgomery, received the sad intelligence announcing the death of his sister at Marion, Ind. Bereavement under such circumstances must be almost beyond human endurance. Certainly the condemned unfortunate has the sympathy of a large circle of friends and acquaintances at such a time.

After six months' close devotion to the study of the best sugar industry, Prof. H. H. Nicholson of the State University has returned "chuck full" of information on this great subject, which at this time is demanding more attention at the hands of Nebraskans than ever. Professor Nicholson had a delightful visit to the great European centers, and as a trip of business and pleasure combined, it was certainly a decided success in every particular.

Milford has been visited by a number of Lincolmites this summer and it is apparent that the popularity in this resort is increasing. Mrs. Samuel Shears and Mrs. W. Henry Smith chaperoned a party from this city who spent a week by the Blue in the sanitarium and who returned Tuesday morning. The party, including visitors, comprised Misses Lila Shears, Mame Carson, Rose Carson, Anna Broady, Bessie Hall, of Omaha; Anne Funks, Olive Latta, Fay Marshall, Pryor L. Markel, W. Morton Smith, Harry C. Shears, A. Coch-Andriano, Oscar Funks, George Harper, W. E. Clarke, Lew Marshall, W. F. Meyer.

The merchant's outing at Lincoln park Wednesday combined all the grateful elements of complete success that were lacking in similar ventures of several past years. It drew out not only all of the wholesale and retail merchants in dry goods and groceries, but nearly all other branches of trade together with their friends. The feminine population of Lincoln was especially well represented, testifying the place held in the hearts of the fair sex by the men who afford them opportunities for shopping. Hon. I. M. Raymond delivered an interesting address on the past, present and future of Lincoln as a commercial center, a topic he is so well qualified to discuss intelligently and fluently. Over 4,500 people participated in the pleasures of the day. A fine program of athletic contests was executed and cash prizes awarded the victors. Dancing in the pavilion drew crowds that taxed the capacity of the floor, and the groves were filled throughout the afternoon with merry parties clustered around bountiful spreads of picnic refreshments. The outing was in every way successful and the enterprising young men who projected it may well be proud of the result of their effort to afford Lincoln merchants and their employes a day of enjoyable recreation. The merchants' annual outing will excite more attention next year.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c.
