

POPULATION OF LINCOLN 65,000. Full Line of Summer Corsets, Silk Mitts, and Gauze Underwear. H. R. Nissley & Co. 107th and P Sts. 10 Styles Handles in Silk Sun Umbrellas and Wash Goods on Sale.

TAKE NOTICE! The COURIER will not be responsible for any debts made by any one in its name, unless a written order accompanies the same. Semi Annual Display of PATTERN HATS AND MILLINERY • NOVELTIES. "Famous" Next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 21st, 22nd and 23. You are invited to call.

The Courier Can be Found At Hotel Lincoln News Stand, Windsor Hotel News Stand, Capital Hotel News Stand, Red Duke Cigar Store, 1020 O Street, Ed. Young, 1207 O Street, Casan, Fletcher & Co., 1120 O Street, Moore's News Stand, 118 South 11th Street, Casino Cigar Store, Brace Block, 18th & O

Fall Hats and Furnishing Goods. W. R. DENNIS & CO. 1137 O Street

Local and Personal. Whitebreast Coal and Lime Company. L. Barr, jeweler, removed to 11330 street. Mann & Hall's new pharmacy 1300 O street. New location, L. Barr, jeweler, 1133 O St. Dr. Ruth M. Wood, Brace building, rooms 410, 411 and 412. Archer, dentist, Brace block, over Merchants Bank. Cannon City Coal at the Whitebreast Coal and Lime Co. Sampson Sisters, artistic dress-making, 1125 N street, over Dorsey's. Archer, dentist. Fine gold and bridge work a specialty. Brass block. K C Baking Powder, 25 ounces 25 cents. Absolutely Pure. Have you tried it? Call up phone 457 and order your Sunday or cream of the new Bon Ton bakery. Miss Anna Dick, Modiste, cor. 11th & P sts. over Lincoln Savings bank, entrance on P st. Mann & Hall's pharmacy makes a specialty of prescription work. Call at 1300 O street. Telephone 506. The Whitebreast Coal and Lime company is always at the front supplying the finest grades of all kinds of coal. It is a noticeable fact that Cook-Bailey Grocery Co. is daily becoming headquarters for fine teas, coffees and spices. Special orders for fine cakes, superb ice cream and ices promptly delivered to any part of the city. Telephone No. 457. Wild cherry wine is the most popular summer drink in Lincoln. Ask for it. Made by Lincoln Bottling Works. Telephone 449. Finest ice cream in the city and hand-somest refreshment parlors, at the Bonton-Poehler's old stand, Twelfth and P streets. When you want first-class, pure and wholesome summer drinks for family use call up telephone 449, the Lincoln Bottling Works. Orders for piano tuning left with Young and Elder, 208 south Eleventh street, will receive prompt attention by S. C. Quick. If you want a suit made to order at reasonable prices see the new fall and winter patterns at Wannamaker & Brown's tailoring agency, Y. M. C. A. building. Coal of every size from the best mines in Ohio, Kentucky, Illinois, Missouri, Colorado and Wyoming for sale by Geo. A. Raymond. Telephone 260. Office 1184 O street. If you will make it a point never to get a picture framed until you have seen the Lincoln Frame & Art Company's goods, you will always get the latest styles. Prices are always the lowest. K C Baking Powder, 25 ounces 25 cents. Absolutely Pure. Have you tried it? Why have your horses feet butchered, have some horses and have them suffer! Take them to Charlie Slatery's new shop, 416 South Eleventh street, and such will never be the case. Dr. Parkman Cures chronic diseases. Consultation free. Medicines furnished at office. Office hours 10 to 12 a. m. 2 to 5 p. m., and 7 to 9 p. m. Sunday 4 to 6 p. m.

ABOUT-PEOPLE..

Harry A. Reese left Thursday for Chicago. Dr. B. F. Bailey has returned from a trip to the lakes. Mrs. W. Q. Bell is entertaining Mrs. W. M. Marshall of Denver. Hon. N. S. Harwood made a business trip through Wyoming this week. Mr. G. L. Tait of Chicago spent a part of the week in the city with friends. Mrs. W. W. Allen and mother left Wednesday for a month's visit in Missouri. Mrs. Edna Bennett of San Francisco is visiting her nephew, Mrs. S. W. Inman. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hickey are entertaining Miss Maude Smith of Des Moines. Mr. and Mrs. George H. Clarke are at home after an extended trip through the east. Hon. J. Sterling Morton was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sawyer a part of the week. Miss Ota Imhoff left Monday for Baltimore, where she enters a ladies' seminary for the year. Hon. John Fitzgerald in company with his son and nephew have returned from a visit to Ireland. Captain Phelps Paine left last Saturday for Washington, D. C., to attend the G. A. R. national encampment. Miss Anna Barr has returned from a three months visit with Mrs. Ethel Drain in Spokane Falls, Washington. Misses Olive Latta and Annie Funke and Mrs. Frank Smith of Alliance are enjoying a trip through the Black Hills. Misses Ida and Josephine Lehr and Mrs. Dr. Shill of Lafayette, Ind., are visiting their brother, Mr. Frank Lehr. Misses Marie and Rosa Carson are entertaining Misses Harpham and Taggart of Pittsburg, Pa., at the Lincoln hotel. James F. Pershing of Chicago was in the city a part of the week visiting his brother, Lieutenant Pershing of the State University. The Young Men's Christian association will hold a reception this evening for the new and old students of the various universities of the city. An interesting musical was given last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. Sanders by the Episcopals for the benefit of their choir. Miss Flora Weatherwax of Denver, after a pleasant visit with the family of Mr. H. Freiligh, proceeded east for a visit to Washington, D. C., this week. Mrs. D. F. Chidester and her three sons returned Tuesday to their home in Illinois after a visit of four weeks with her husband of Frawley, Chidester & Co. Miss Almira Parker, Lincoln's diatna, quished dramatic reader, has opened a school of elocution at room 505 Brace building. See advertisement in this issue. Mrs. J. A. Buckstaff and daughter, Miss Clara, and Miss Fay Marshall, left Tuesday for Davenport, Ia., where Miss Clara enters St. Catherine's Episcopal school. Mr. Roy R. Chapman, with Gage Bros & Co., is in Chicago on business, and his friend, John Lotridge, who accompanied him, is also enjoying the delights of that city. Prof. F. W. Taylor of the State University came home Monday to take up his duties for the ensuing year. He has been spending his vacation in travelling over the continent. Mrs. E. D. Bignell has been enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. J. C. Riethey of Des Moines, Ia., who after a ten days sojourn in Lincoln returned home Thursday. A pleasant surprise party was given by Mrs. J. L. Hoyt at her pleasant home, 1540 N street, in honor of Mr. Hoyt's forty-third birthday. A pleasant time was had by all. The wheelmen of Lincoln have organized themselves into a club known as the Capital City Cycling Club, and are manifesting much enthusiasm in this helpful and enjoyable exercise. Mr. James Heaton and Mr. Frank Graham will wander eastward tomorrow in search of their better halves, who have been visiting in Illinois and other parts of Uncle Sam's domain. After a delightful summer spent at Spring Lake, N. J., a lovely spot on the Atlantic coast, Mrs. I. M. Raymond returned last week to her beautiful home at Sixteenth and R streets. Mr. F. L. Hathaway, who has been traveling through Europe for the past several months, has returned home. His traveling companion, C. Y. Smith, stopped for a visit in Boston. The annual fur opening of W. R. Dennis & Co. will occur October 31, 4th and 5th, and a grand display will be seen. Read the displayed announcement on page five of today's COURIER. A reception was given by the young people of the Frat Christian church Wednesday evening to the students of the various colleges. A short program was rendered and all present enjoyed a general good time. Mrs. Frank Sheldon and Miss-Bertie Burr returned to Lincoln Wednesday. Miss Burr has been attending school in Massachusetts for the last year. Mrs. Sheldon will spend part of the winter with friends in Lincoln. Rev. D. D. Forsyth of Gottenburg and Miss Myra Clarke of Sutton were united in marriage Tuesday evening at the bride's home in Sutton. Both graduate at the State University, and have a host of friends both in and out of college circles who wish them every happiness in their future life. They will reside in Lincoln. Mrs. E. Hallett will return this evening from Ottumwa, Ia., where she was called a month ago by the sickness of her mother, who has now entirely recovered and celebrated her eighty-second birthday on the 16th inst., on which occasion there was a reunion of the family at which twenty-seven members were present. Wednesday afternoon, unexpected, unsuspected and unannounced, "Chicago," THE COURIER's brilliant correspondent at the world's fair city, entered the editorial sanctum of this paper for a brief but pleasant hour and good bye visit. Miss Bonnell is as good a friend of Lincoln today as she ever was while a resident of this city, and never fails to say a good word for her former home when opportunity affords. A very pleasant reception was given by Mrs. Lou Kennard-Riggs last Saturday afternoon and evening at her new "Studio Revere," 336 South Twelfth street, on which occasion her work in painting was exhibited to the public. The walls of the three rooms were adorned with paintings, all of which showed Mrs. Riggs' skill and artistic taste. She was assisted by Mrs. T. H. Benton, Mrs. Chas. Keifer and Mrs. Alva Kennard.

A PRACTICAL EDUCATION.

His Daughter Could Drive a Nail Straight Every Time. The old man gently stroked the brown hair of the sweet girl nestling upon his breast. It was evident that he was very proud of her, and when with a fond kiss she left the room he turned again to the visitor, his eyes filled with parental affection. "Wonderful girl, that," he mused, rubbing his hands together gleefully. The frelight sent a fitful gleam to illumine his fine, venerable face. "Splendid education," the old man observed. "Ah, indeed!" The father stared into the glowing grate and chuckled with satisfaction. "Cost lots of money," he murmured, "but it pays." He appeared to be very well satisfied indeed. "Very!" The visitor felt it necessary to make some comment. "Accomplished, I dare say." "Accomplished be hanged!" The old man was quite violent. "No, sir," he insisted. "My daughter has a practical, industrial education, the most finished that money could buy." "I want to!" The visitor professed a polite incredulity. "Know. Sewing and housekeeping, I suppose?" "No." The old man noticed the look of astonishment his negative occasioned. "No, sir, no sewing or housekeeping, but she can drive a nail straight every time. A practical education, sir, strictly practical!" The frelight sent a fitful gleam to illumine his fine, venerable head.—Detroit Tribune. What He Is. The tramp had appealed for a dime and had it safe in his pocket. "Why don't you go to work?" asked the donor of the dime. "I don't have to," he replied. "Why not? Have you enough money to live on?" "No, sir, but I have a position, sir." "But I thought you said you didn't work?" "I don't." "And you have no private fortune?" The tramp smiled negatively. "Then what kind of a position do you hold?" "I'm the connecting link between labor and capital. See?"—Detroit Free Press. A Great Work. "It won't go through that door!" "Who said it would, madam?" "And if you can't get it into that room what are you going to do with it?" "You needn't get excited over it. What's the matter with taking the partition down?" "Who's getting excited? It'll cost something to take the partition down, won't it?" "Well, if you can think of any better way to dispose of it let's hear your plan, madam." "There's no occasion for alarming the neighbors, anyhow. If you must have such a thing as this in the house why don't you build an addition expressly for it?" "You know well enough that"— "Or why couldn't you have had it made so it would go through an ordinary door?" "Madam!" "Sir!" "I am going to have it moved into that room if it takes a whole month and costs a thousand dollars!" "Then you can have the premises to yourself, sir! I shall not stay here to see the house all torn up! I am going back to mamma's!" This family disturbance, gentle reader, grew out of the circumstance that a copy of the new Chicago city directory had been unloaded at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Billiger McSwat.—Chicago Tribune. An Indifferentist. I put aside the world and pride full many years ago. For all the strife of earthly life but ends in futile show. Presumptuous man's weak aims and plans aren't worth a copper penny. So, wisely, I have ceased to sigh or struggle after any. I do not care to know from where the protoplasm came; I never joke or drink or smoke, or play a little game; I do not yearn at all to learn the riddle of the Sphinx; I do not crave acquaintance with the missing link or links. I don't expect to tridiseest an inoffensive arc; I wouldn't change a circle's range to make an angled mark; I'm not inquisitive about th' Aurora Borealis; I wouldn't seek a single week to find a Holy Chalice. I do not care a single hair who wore the iron mask; Who punished William Patterson I've never deigned to ask; Who wrote the Julius letters doesn't bother me a particle; On the Presidential Outlook I do not read an article. In all things I can crucify the flesh and quell its fire. And yet my whole, sad, earnest soul is fraught with one desire— One wild unrest within my breast still rages evermore. For still I yearn and ever burn to question, What's the score? —J. Edmund V. Cooke in New York Sun. Let the Children Have Pets. If you will bring up your children to love pets I doubt if they will ever be brutal to animals under any circumstances. Theodore Parker says the turning point in his life was when he took up a stone to throw at a tortoise in a pond. Something in him bade him stop, and he did stop. Then he went home and asked his mother what it was that compelled him to put down the stone. She told him it was the voice of God in his soul—that if he lived listening to that he would never fall to do right.—Mary E. Spencer in St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A PRACTICAL EDUCATION.

His Daughter Could Drive a Nail Straight Every Time. The old man gently stroked the brown hair of the sweet girl nestling upon his breast. It was evident that he was very proud of her, and when with a fond kiss she left the room he turned again to the visitor, his eyes filled with parental affection. "Wonderful girl, that," he mused, rubbing his hands together gleefully. The frelight sent a fitful gleam to illumine his fine, venerable face. "Splendid education," the old man observed. "Ah, indeed!" The father stared into the glowing grate and chuckled with satisfaction. "Cost lots of money," he murmured, "but it pays." He appeared to be very well satisfied indeed. "Very!" The visitor felt it necessary to make some comment. "Accomplished, I dare say." "Accomplished be hanged!" The old man was quite violent. "No, sir," he insisted. "My daughter has a practical, industrial education, the most finished that money could buy." "I want to!" The visitor professed a polite incredulity. "Know. Sewing and housekeeping, I suppose?" "No." The old man noticed the look of astonishment his negative occasioned. "No, sir, no sewing or housekeeping, but she can drive a nail straight every time. A practical education, sir, strictly practical!" The frelight sent a fitful gleam to illumine his fine, venerable head.—Detroit Tribune. What He Is. The tramp had appealed for a dime and had it safe in his pocket. "Why don't you go to work?" asked the donor of the dime. "I don't have to," he replied. "Why not? Have you enough money to live on?" "No, sir, but I have a position, sir." "But I thought you said you didn't work?" "I don't." "And you have no private fortune?" The tramp smiled negatively. "Then what kind of a position do you hold?" "I'm the connecting link between labor and capital. See?"—Detroit Free Press. A Great Work. "It won't go through that door!" "Who said it would, madam?" "And if you can't get it into that room what are you going to do with it?" "You needn't get excited over it. What's the matter with taking the partition down?" "Who's getting excited? It'll cost something to take the partition down, won't it?" "Well, if you can think of any better way to dispose of it let's hear your plan, madam." "There's no occasion for alarming the neighbors, anyhow. If you must have such a thing as this in the house why don't you build an addition expressly for it?" "You know well enough that"— "Or why couldn't you have had it made so it would go through an ordinary door?" "Madam!" "Sir!" "I am going to have it moved into that room if it takes a whole month and costs a thousand dollars!" "Then you can have the premises to yourself, sir! I shall not stay here to see the house all torn up! I am going back to mamma's!" This family disturbance, gentle reader, grew out of the circumstance that a copy of the new Chicago city directory had been unloaded at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Billiger McSwat.—Chicago Tribune. An Indifferentist. I put aside the world and pride full many years ago. For all the strife of earthly life but ends in futile show. Presumptuous man's weak aims and plans aren't worth a copper penny. So, wisely, I have ceased to sigh or struggle after any. I do not care to know from where the protoplasm came; I never joke or drink or smoke, or play a little game; I do not yearn at all to learn the riddle of the Sphinx; I do not crave acquaintance with the missing link or links. I don't expect to tridiseest an inoffensive arc; I wouldn't change a circle's range to make an angled mark; I'm not inquisitive about th' Aurora Borealis; I wouldn't seek a single week to find a Holy Chalice. I do not care a single hair who wore the iron mask; Who punished William Patterson I've never deigned to ask; Who wrote the Julius letters doesn't bother me a particle; On the Presidential Outlook I do not read an article. In all things I can crucify the flesh and quell its fire. And yet my whole, sad, earnest soul is fraught with one desire— One wild unrest within my breast still rages evermore. For still I yearn and ever burn to question, What's the score? —J. Edmund V. Cooke in New York Sun. Let the Children Have Pets. If you will bring up your children to love pets I doubt if they will ever be brutal to animals under any circumstances. Theodore Parker says the turning point in his life was when he took up a stone to throw at a tortoise in a pond. Something in him bade him stop, and he did stop. Then he went home and asked his mother what it was that compelled him to put down the stone. She told him it was the voice of God in his soul—that if he lived listening to that he would never fall to do right.—Mary E. Spencer in St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

GRAND Fall = Opening Monday, September 26th.

A MAGNIFICENT Display of all the Novelties. You are cordially invited. Irvine's New Orchestra. Afternoon, 2:30 to 5:30; evening, 7 to 9:30. DORSEY'S 1121-23 N STREET.

For Fashionable Millinery CHAS. A. BROAD, 1124 O Street.

We beg to call your attention to our large and well selected stock of Fall and Winter Millinery. We are better prepared to serve you than ever before, and urge an inspection of our stock before purchasing. You will find the same low prices as in the past, which means a saving to you of from 25 cents to $2.00. THINK OF IT! Come and get our prices; then go to our competitors and see what they will ask you for the same article. The same factories make our goods as theirs. You will find courteous salesladies to wait upon you, and whether you wish to purchase or not, give us a look.

The Recognized Low Priced Millinery House OF LINCOLN. Always in the Lead. STRICTLY CASH. Cash is what makes the prices at

Broad's Great Dept. Store

The State Fair Display IS A Failure

When compared with the Display of New Furniture That has just been received for the Fall Trade at THE RUDGE & MORRIS CO., Hardware and Furniture Leaders, 1118 to 1124 N Street.

NOW FOR CUT PRICES —IN— MILLINERY!

THE Summer season is here and we've got too many hats, bonnets and flowers on hand. If you want anything in that line, come in and we'll guarantee prices will be satisfactory.

THEY MUST GO! PRICES NO OBJECT Step in and see for yourself. All the latest goods at sacrifice bargains. 1211 O Street. THE LEADER.

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder. Used in Millions of Homes—40 Years the Standard.