THE OFFICIAL PROGRAMME.

Prepared for the National Columbian Public School Celebration of Oct. 31.

It is now known to all readers that President Harrison has issued a proclamation naming Oct. 31 as the true anniversary of the discovery of America, and recommending its observance by suitable exercises in all the schools of the United States.

A uniform programme for every school in America, to be used on Columbus Day simultaneously with the dedicatory exercises of the World's Columbian exposition grounds in Chicago, will give an impressive unity to the popular celebration.

The following programme has been prepared by the committee:

1. READING OF THE PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION. By the Master of Ceremonies.

2. RAISING OF THE FLAG. By the Veterans.

3. SALUTE TO THE FLAG. By the Pupils.

4. ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF GOD. Prayer or Scripture.

5. SONG OF COLUMBUS DAY. By Pupils and Audience.

6. THE ADDRESS. "The Meaning of the Four Centuries."

7. THE ODE. "Columbia's Banner."

8. ADDRESSES BY CITIZENS AND NATIONAL SONGS.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. Francis Bellamy, chairman, representing The Youth's Companion, Boston.

John W. Dickinson, secretary of the Massachusetts board of education.

Thomas B. Stockwell, commissioner of Rhode Island public schools.

W. B. Garrett, superintendent of public instruction of Tennessee.

Ferris S. Fitch, superintendent of public instruction of Michigan.

Not Very Long. Clerk (of summer hotel)—How long do you expect to be with us, sir?

Guest (pleasantly)—I thought I would remain here long enough to get thin enough to wear my last year's fall overcoat.

THE FASHION PLATE GIRL.

Let me endeavor to give you a picture of what this part of Broadway is—fifty hotels, two hundred restaurants, twenty theaters, a hundred cigar stores, and I don't know how many millinery shops, jewelry stores, haberdasheries and drinking saloons.

Until I visited New York I had never believed the sort of gowns one sees pictured in the Paris fashion plates had any real existence.

SCENE ON SPORTING ROW.

and fitted to women who know how to wear them. Fittingly to characterize the gowns and the millinery of Broadway I shall have to employ the expression which I heard a woman use.

Broadway gowns and millinery are worth going miles to see.

The more you study Broadway beauty, however, the greater is your admiration for modern art, for this beauty, much of it, is the product of art.

All these things were pointed out to me by a woman who described the processes, who told me that hundreds of women are earning small fortunes in New York beautifying other women.

A case in point. Along Broadway walked a marvelously stylish, fascinatingly beautiful woman.

Such are the triumphs of art along Broadway.

ON ACTORS' CORNER.

ors are partial to the Sturtevant. Southern visitors, who formerly registered at the old New York hotel, now go to the Victoria.

With few exceptions the New York hotels are conducted on the European plan, and I should judge all are managed with a view to making millionaires of their owners in the shortest possible time.

If you want a fairly decent room, high up and perhaps "inside" merely a place to sleep, if you have a fairly decent room, three or four dollars a day. A room with bath is from five to seven dollars.

If you want a parlor or room, you may pay ten or as many more dollars per day as you like.

These prices, mind you, are for the rooms alone. Your meals you pay for as you get them—as long as your money holds out.

A fair dinner will spoil a two dollar bill. Your supper or luncheon is $1.50.

Two Bartlett peaches cost you forty cents; coffee with cream—and what civilized man ever heard of coffee without cream?—is only thirty-five cents in New York!

Nevertheless there are thousands of people spending their money in these hotels and cafes. Hundreds of fashionable restaurants are crowded all the time.

Broadway financiers is queer. Champagne is sold at the regulation price of $3.50, but beer is a dime and whisky twenty cents a drink.

Until I visited New York I had never believed the sort of gowns one sees pictured in the Paris fashion plates had any real existence.

Such are the triumphs of art along Broadway.

How's This? We offer one hundred dollars reward for any one of our kind that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.
