

IN SOCIETY

The Pleasant Hour club gave their opening party at Hotel Lincoln, Friday evening, and while the last week's COURIER was being ground out on the presses, the merry assemblage was enjoying the delightful exercise of the entrancing torch-dance. The initial party took the form of a reception to Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hall, whose auspicious nuptials were but recently announced. Shortly after eight o'clock the guests began to assemble; the dancing hall, parlors and reception rooms were thrown open, and with beautiful and artistic costumes made brilliant by numerous electric lights, a most dazzling scene of beauty was presented to the eye. The music of Irvine's orchestra coming from the south end of the large dining room, was never more entrancing, and the dancing program passed unusually fast. About midnight an elegant supper was served, to which all did full justice. The programs, composed of twelve numbers, were dainty affairs, being white cards edged with gold. Particular commendation is due to Mr. F. C. Zehring, the master of ceremonies, who, as usual, by his tact and skill made everything pass pleasantly and afforded everyone a most enjoyable evening, dancing being indulged in until Saturday's day "stood tip-toe on the mountain top," when all repaired happily to their homes. The costumes were handsome and many novel and unique.

Mrs. C. E. Hall, the honored guest, received in a beautiful gown of white satin, cut decollette, en train; diamond ornaments, white slippers, gloves and fan. She carried a large bouquet of white roses.

Last Saturday evening the young gentlemen of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity gave an informal reception in honor of visiting Phi from the State University of Kansas, who came up to see the football game played Saturday afternoon. The early part of the evening was passed in delightful conversation pleasantly varied by an informal program of music. Miss Hammond and Miss Riser each rendered a beautiful selection on the piano, Mr. Higgins, of Kansas, amused the company hugely with two humorous recitations and a song, and Mr. Jones, accompanied by Miss Griggs, sang "Love's Old Sweet Song," charming his hearers with his rich sweet voice. After simple refreshments, served by the young men themselves, dancing was indulged in on the floor of the large hall, canvassed for the occasion. But "the next day" was Sunday and twelve o'clock brought the festivities to a close. Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Welch acted as chaperones and contributed much to the enjoyment of the occasion. Those present were Messrs. Alder, Seethorn, Tremon, Groh, Burkes, Jennie Underwood, Mary Underwood, Broady, Griggs, Hammond, Riser, Snyder of Mt. Pleasant, Ia., Jury, Lau, Raymond, Hershey and Florence Winger. The gentlemen were Messrs. Higgins, Holmes, Leonard, Gillespie, T. LeNard, and McMasters, all of the University of Kansas. Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Stearns entertained a congenial company of friends at high five Wednesday evening at their pretty home D and Seventeenth streets. The house was very prettily decorated throughout with roses and chrysanthemums. Everything was arranged with a view to the pleasure and convenience of the guests, and all truly enjoyed themselves. A toothsome repast was served in the middle of the evening. Mrs. Frank Brown who proved herself to be the most skillful lady player of the evening carried away a handsome Wedgwood olive dish as a monument of her skill. Mr. Benton, for his proficiency in the art of manipulating cards, received a hammered silver match safe and whist counter. After playing was finished a cake containing a consolation prize was cut and each guest received a piece. Mrs. Helwig, much to her delight, found the prize, a silver souvenir spoon, in her portion of cake. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames E. E. Brown, Buckstaff, O. M. Thompson, Frank Brown, Hulbert, Bignell, Geo. Brown, Benton, Wheeler, Trapbagen, Riggs, Strode, R. E. Moore, Davis, Helwig, Ewing, Dr. Billings, Miss Della Scudford, Mr. J. K. Knox, Mr. Bushnell and Mrs. Herwick.

A congenial company of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Dahl Friday, which was the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. The evening was very pleasantly spent in social intercourse. A delightful supper was served. At a late hour the guests, departed leaving behind them many valuable presents to express their good wishes and congratulations. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Easterday, Sohus, Hanson, Christensen, Erickson, Wilson, Johnson, Bradt, Rasmussen, Cron, Easterday, Misses Easterday, Finney, Mrs. Crandall, Messrs. Frincke, Messrs. Hancock, Schmidt. Several of the guests were from out of the city.

Miss Maude Hammond gave a very delightful informal party to a number of her
