

EMPIRE BODICES

IN SOCIETY

The Pleasant Hour club gave its second party Thanksgiving evening at the Hotel Lincoln. The same degree of success and congeniality that characterized the first party was a noticeable feature of this occasion.

The guests of the evening were Hon Patrick Egan, Messrs and Mesdames D H Wheeler, Jr, Bennett; Miss Nellie Baum, Mr Arthur Guile, Miss Carrie Wasmor, all of Omaha, Mr Frank Seltz of St. Louis, Miss Murphy and Mr Frank Platt of Grand Island, Mr and Miss Mansfield of Peoria, Mr and Mrs Chambers of Jacksonville, Ill, Miss Bosie Hall of Omaha, Miss Alice Eikenberry of Plattsmouth. Those present from the city were Messrs and Mesdames C P Ladd, G E Brown, C E Hall, Harry Hall, R D Muir, C S Lippincott, E E Henkle, F W Brown, H R Nesley, J A Buckstaff, E C Van Dusen, D E Thompson, Misses Martha Fun Olive Latta, Anna Funke, Maude Hammond, Mame Carson, Clara Walsh, Fannie Hawley, Hallie Hooper, Fay Marshall, Nellie White, Jeannette Wilson, Mullen, Marie Hoover, Kittie and Alice Cowdery, Bertha Burr, Messrs Pryor Markell, Fred Howe, Chas Burr, Eddie Fitzgerald, T E Kelley, Chas Hawley, Ed Fitzgerald, Oscar Funks, Ernest Funks, Matt Baldwin, Joyce, Phil Wing, Dan Wing, H T Westerman, C D Mullen, Harry Krug, Lew Marshall, John Dorgan, W Morton Smith. Among the many visitors were noticed Messrs and Mesdames L C Burr, White, McFarland, Hathaway, Harry Hall, Mrs Brock, Mrs Varney, Mr Will Meyer, Mr Adriano.

A complimentary banquet was given Hon. Patrick Egan, United States minister to Chile, Monday evening at Hotel Lincoln, by his friends and prominent citizens of the city. The affair was one of the most elaborate ever given in the city and was certainly a great compliment to a deserving and popular servant of the people. Mr. Egan must have felt highly honored with the flow of elegant language and eloquent addresses that greeted his ear for the toast list contained some of our most prominent and gifted after dinner talkers. Hon. A. W. Field presided at the toast master and the following program was carried out to the delight and interest of all. Our Guest—"We Honor a Citizen Who Has Fulfilled His Duties."—H M Bushnell, Response by Mr Egan.

The Diplomatic Service—"Civis Americanus Sum"—General Victor Vifiquain The Irish-American Citizen—"On Fame's Eternal Camping Ground"—Hon W P Gannon Nebraska—"Our Liberties We Prize; Our Rights We Will Maintain"—T M Marquett Lincoln, The Athens of the West.—The Ladies—"At Once Our Torment and Our Joy"—Hon W S Sommers

The banquet was served in ten courses. Landlord Shimer giving the service his personal attention, making it a special "fit for the gods." Irvine's orchestra furnished music for the occasion and right royally was it received. After nearly every number the large gathering, numbering 150, encored the work so that numerous extra selections were played. When the Irish or American melody was wafted upon the spacious hall the applause was almost deafening. Mr. Irvine's cornet solo was likewise received. The guests included many from abroad and the assembly was in every way one of social interest rather than political, all hands joining to render deserved honor to Lincoln's well known diplomat. The committee of arrangements, who also filled the function of reception committee, was: H. M. Bushnell, J. D. Calhoun, L. Wessel, Jr., John Fitzgerald, Jas. Kelley, J. P. Sutton, Sam McClay, J. B. Wright and W. B. Howard.

A thoroughly enjoyable and most delightful affair was the "Harvest Hunt" party given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Mary E. and Mrs. R. T. Van Brunt. The home was darkened and brilliantly lighted. The rooms were tastefully decorated with garlands, sprigs of ripe wheat and oats. Branches to which were attached bunches of grapes adorned the walls. The mantle in the parlor was lanked with pretty, grasses, grains, and autumn foliage. Above the double doors was effectively draped festoons of autumn leaves and sprigs of different varieties of grasses. The side board in the dining room was liberally covered with autumn fruits—apples, grapes, nuts, and pumpkins. As soon as all the guests had arrived they were seated at small tables and an elegant lunch was splendidly served. A pretty little book called "Harvest Hunt" was furnished each guest, the outside of which was artistically decorated in water-colors with a spray of grains, and inside of which were written a number of short verses and each one contained the name of one of more autumn products. The company labored long and hard to discern these names, and many encountered not a little difficulty. For example, "We hope a change will soon take place" in which is found the word peach; "Tell John a tornado has struck the town"—tomato, Mrs. J. B. Wright and Miss Hill proved themselves as the most skillful in working out these answers and received for their pains a large yellow pumpkin, the center of which proved to be filled with candied fruits. The afternoon was a most pleasant one and the hostesses may enjoy the knowledge of knowing that their party was one of the prettiest and most successful of the season. The invited list comprises Mesdames Wright, Webster, Patrick, Rowick, Lockie, Wolcott, Williams, Welch, Turner, Preston, Winger, Turner, Kirker, Hall, Curtis, Haggard, Brownell, Hartley, Crissey, Link, Yates, Chalfant, Hill, Shaw, Bilmeyer, Owens, Plank, Sutton, D. Campbell, Gibson, Jones, Frank Campbell, Sayre, Motzroy, Scott, Babcock, Clark, Ut, Dawa, Cum and Skinner. Misses Kate Stoddard, Gertie Hill, Hattie Hitchcock, Richardson and Johnson.

A delightful reception was given Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. D. Newman in honor of his son and his wife Mrs. H. B. Newman, of New York city. As the Newman residence is being rebuilt, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hardy kindly extended the hospitality of their new and commodious house 1825 M street. The house is beautifully furnished and on this occasion was profusely ornamented with Chrysanthemums. Each guest received a souvenir flower on coming from the dining room where splendid refreshments were served. The list of guests includes Messrs and Mesdames Crissey and Mrs. J. B. Wright, Ed Green, Will Green, Gene Dorr, Ladd, Crim, Nest Abbott, Hulson Imhoff, Walter Davis, Love, Wilson, Will Turner, N S Harwood, Myron Wessler, C H Gere, M J Lamb, R H Oakley, Henry Hartley, Thomas Sewell, A E Rickatts, Elmer Hemple, R H Townley, L C Burr, Rev Lashy, Willard Stewart, J B Cunningham, E A Andrews, D Harmer, E E Brown, Mark Tilton, Elmer Perkins, Harry Lippincott, Frank Hall, G W Laros, A S Raymond, W B Ogden, Carl Funke, R A Perry, Jos Bogger, B Van Brunt, Mrs K B Cusney and Mrs Dr Richards, Mrs C D Fletcher, Madam Randall, Mrs Crissey, Misses Olive Latta, Clara Walsh, Gertrude Laws, Anna Iarr, Silva Shears, Rose Carson, Mame Carson, Gertie Harris, Anna Funke, Hallie Hooper, Carrie Hill, Bertie Burr, Sarah Cox, Almara Parver, Fanny Latham, Messrs Chas Burr, Harry Krug, Wm. Stott, Frank Everts, Frank Hathaway, Liout Pershing, A N Adriano, C L Aiger, Oscar Funke, C D Mullen, W Morton Smith, Frank Burr, Will Hardy, A B Law, T P Kennard, Mr Robert Richter of St. Joseph, Mo., Judge and Mrs Thurston of Omaha, and Mr George Sparlock of Plattsmouth.

The "Novelty Club" is the name of a new high five society in the south part of the city, which met for the first time Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Horn, on South Twentieth street. A stringent rule of the club is that at each evening's entertainment an original feature shall be introduced by the hostess. On the evening in question there were two dishes provided exactly similar, one for the gents and one for the ladies, so covered as not to reveal their contents. At a given signal each one took hold of a ribbon that decorated the top of the mysterious dish and all pulled together. When the other end of the ribbon was examined a candy toy was discovered and each gentleman proceeded to search out the lady for a partner who had a mate for his prize. This is a description of what is called a "Jack Horner's Pie." Twenty games constitute the evening's stent, when refreshments are served. The party having the largest number of points at the end of the season receives a valuable prize. The first meeting of the club was a pronounced success, the credit of which was due to the efforts of the host and hostess. The following are the names of the members of the club: Messrs, and Mesdames C P Allen, D E Kayser, Frank Van Horn, M Van Horn, L W Garrouse, L W Snow, F A Wilson, A R Sampson, A R Humphrey Webb Wheeler, F W Stevens, and A G Kelum. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will entertain the next party on the evening of December third.

The Metropolitan, a club newly formed in this city under the leadership of Madam Marie Randall, held its first meeting in the parlors of the Conservatory of Music Wednesday afternoon. Madam Randall discussed France, her condition to-day, political, social and religious, in an able address carefully and studiously prepared. She touched also upon many matters of current interest here and abroad in a conversational manner delightful to her hearers and encouraging to a general discussion amongst members of the club. Madam Randall leads a cosmopolitan life in Omaha with great success and is unwilling to give her time to it here unless there were ten charter members. More than ten ladies have been enrolled as charter members, while there promises to be a larger attendance of occasional comers who find it impossible to present every week but who desire when they can to avail themselves of this opportunity. Madam Randall's reputation is so well established in Lincoln as that of a woman of rare culture and intellectual power that it is unnecessary to here make an extended mention of her name for the work has undertaken. From now until the last Wednesday in April, the club meetings will be held in the parlors of the Conservatory of Music, the use of which has been tendered the club with that generosity always shown by Mr. and Mrs. Howell when the object is culture.

An exceedingly gladsome affair was the tea and card party given by Mr. and Mrs. R. O'Neill, 2836 J street Wednesday evening. It was the occasion of the fifth anniversary of their marriage but no mention of this was made, the guests being simply bidden to a 7 o'clock tea and to play at cards afterwards. However, it became known to a few people and Mrs. O'Neill was the recipient of a handsome chair from friends who appreciate the true worth of the popular young couple. The rooms were prettily decorated with chrysanthemums and palms. The handclappers and pictures were daintily festooned with synlax. Tea was served on small tables through the rooms and congeniality and merriment reigned supreme. When scores was counted it was found that Mr. and Mrs. Van Dusen, received an ash tray and ball pin receiver. Mrs. Herrick for the second prize got a souvenir cup and saucer, and Mr. Rehlender a silver bon bon dish. It was late when with many expressions of the delightful entertainment the guests departed, wishing Mr. and Mrs. O'Neill many returns of the happy wedding day. The following is a list of guests: Messrs and Mesdames Van Dusen, Cambridge, Guile, Miller, 'Lat, Van Buren, Northam, Wheeler, R. Itheland, Scott, Gardner, Testers, Wright, Muir, Ladd, Dayton, J. W. C. Davis, Seizer, Keith, Will Rehlender, Herrick, Kirby, Sutton, Benton, Trogden, Will McCall, Chas. McCall, Lash, King, J. Davis, Mrs. Baly and Mr. Vanderpool of Denver, Miss Stearns.

A very pleasant affair was the card party given by Miss Stice at her home 2348 Holdrege street Wednesday evening in honor of her cousin Miss Grace King, of Prairie city, Illinois. The house was very prettily decorated throughout with synlax and chrysanthemums. The guests were all much engrossed in that very sociable game of high five. Splendid lunch was served at the card tables. Those present were Misses Emma McQuinn, Emma Glover, Stella Hoyt, Sarah Graham, May Lanning, Anna Cusson, Clara Smith, Louise Fowler, Carrie Vivyan, Florence Hale, Helen Han, Nellie Hyde, Nellie Goffin, Minnie Melick, Helen Hoover, Grace King and Stella McQuinn of Eagle, Messrs Will Collins, Al Spencer, Chas Clark, Chas Holmes, Fred Woodward, Dudley Cook, Wood Jones, Ed Meckett, Guy Hale, Geo West, Will Clark, Phil Summer laid, Will Ellis, Frank Taylor, John Graham, Leslie Stire, Jim Patton and Arthur Bishop.

and received for their pains a large yellow pumpkin, the center of which proved to be filled with candied fruits. The afternoon was a most pleasant one and the hostesses may enjoy the knowledge of knowing that their party was one of the prettiest and most successful of the season. The invited list comprises Mesdames Wright, Webster, Patrick, Rowick, Lockie, Wolcott, Williams, Welch, Turner, Preston, Winger, Turner, Kirker, Hall, Curtis, Haggard, Brownell, Hartley, Crissey, Link, Yates, Chalfant, Hill, Shaw, Bilmeyer, Owens, Plank, Sutton, D. Campbell, Gibson, Jones, Frank Campbell, Sayre, Motzroy, Scott, Babcock, Clark, Ut, Dawa, Cum and Skinner. Misses Kate Stoddard, Gertie Hill, Hattie Hitchcock, Richardson and Johnson.

A delightful reception was given Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. D. Newman in honor of his son and his wife Mrs. H. B. Newman, of New York city. As the Newman residence is being rebuilt, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hardy kindly extended the hospitality of their new and commodious house 1825 M street. The house is beautifully furnished and on this occasion was profusely ornamented with Chrysanthemums. Each guest received a souvenir flower on coming from the dining room where splendid refreshments were served. The list of guests includes Messrs and Mesdames Crissey and Mrs. J. B. Wright, Ed Green, Will Green, Gene Dorr, Ladd, Crim, Nest Abbott, Hulson Imhoff, Walter Davis, Love, Wilson, Will Turner, N S Harwood, Myron Wessler, C H Gere, M J Lamb, R H Oakley, Henry Hartley, Thomas Sewell, A E Rickatts, Elmer Hemple, R H Townley, L C Burr, Rev Lashy, Willard Stewart, J B Cunningham, E A Andrews, D Harmer, E E Brown, Mark Tilton, Elmer Perkins, Harry Lippincott, Frank Hall, G W Laros, A S Raymond, W B Ogden, Carl Funke, R A Perry, Jos Bogger, B Van Brunt, Mrs K B Cusney and Mrs Dr Richards, Mrs C D Fletcher, Madam Randall, Mrs Crissey, Misses Olive Latta, Clara Walsh, Gertrude Laws, Anna Iarr, Silva Shears, Rose Carson, Mame Carson, Gertie Harris, Anna Funke, Hallie Hooper, Carrie Hill, Bertie Burr, Sarah Cox, Almara Parver, Fanny Latham, Messrs Chas Burr, Harry Krug, Wm. Stott, Frank Everts, Frank Hathaway, Liout Pershing, A N Adriano, C L Aiger, Oscar Funke, C D Mullen, W Morton Smith, Frank Burr, Will Hardy, A B Law, T P Kennard, Mr Robert Richter of St. Joseph, Mo., Judge and Mrs Thurston of Omaha, and Mr George Sparlock of Plattsmouth.

The "Novelty Club" is the name of a new high five society in the south part of the city, which met for the first time Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Horn, on South Twentieth street. A stringent rule of the club is that at each evening's entertainment an original feature shall be introduced by the hostess. On the evening in question there were two dishes provided exactly similar, one for the gents and one for the ladies, so covered as not to reveal their contents. At a given signal each one took hold of a ribbon that decorated the top of the mysterious dish and all pulled together. When the other end of the ribbon was examined a candy toy was discovered and each gentleman proceeded to search out the lady for a partner who had a mate for his prize. This is a description of what is called a "Jack Horner's Pie." Twenty games constitute the evening's stent, when refreshments are served. The party having the largest number of points at the end of the season receives a valuable prize. The first meeting of the club was a pronounced success, the credit of which was due to the efforts of the host and hostess. The following are the names of the members of the club: Messrs, and Mesdames C P Allen, D E Kayser, Frank Van Horn, M Van Horn, L W Garrouse, L W Snow, F A Wilson, A R Sampson, A R Humphrey Webb Wheeler, F W Stevens, and A G Kelum. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will entertain the next party on the evening of December third.

The Metropolitan, a club newly formed in this city under the leadership of Madam Marie Randall, held its first meeting in the parlors of the Conservatory of Music Wednesday afternoon. Madam Randall discussed France, her condition to-day, political, social and religious, in an able address carefully and studiously prepared. She touched also upon many matters of current interest here and abroad in a conversational manner delightful to her hearers and encouraging to a general discussion amongst members of the club. Madam Randall leads a cosmopolitan life in Omaha with great success and is unwilling to give her time to it here unless there were ten charter members. More than ten ladies have been enrolled as charter members, while there promises to be a larger attendance of occasional comers who find it impossible to present every week but who desire when they can to avail themselves of this opportunity. Madam Randall's reputation is so well established in Lincoln as that of a woman of rare culture and intellectual power that it is unnecessary to here make an extended mention of her name for the work has undertaken. From now until the last Wednesday in April, the club meetings will be held in the parlors of the Conservatory of Music, the use of which has been tendered the club with that generosity always shown by Mr. and Mrs. Howell when the object is culture.

An exceedingly gladsome affair was the tea and card party given by Mr. and Mrs. R. O'Neill, 2836 J street Wednesday evening. It was the occasion of the fifth anniversary of their marriage but no mention of this was made, the guests being simply bidden to a 7 o'clock tea and to play at cards afterwards. However, it became known to a few people and Mrs. O'Neill was the recipient of a handsome chair from friends who appreciate the true worth of the popular young couple. The rooms were prettily decorated with chrysanthemums and palms. The handclappers and pictures were daintily festooned with synlax. Tea was served on small tables through the rooms and congeniality and merriment reigned supreme. When scores was counted it was found that Mr. and Mrs. Van Dusen, received an ash tray and ball pin receiver. Mrs. Herrick for the second prize got a souvenir cup and saucer, and Mr. Rehlender a silver bon bon dish. It was late when with many expressions of the delightful entertainment the guests departed, wishing Mr. and Mrs. O'Neill many returns of the happy wedding day. The following is a list of guests: Messrs and Mesdames Van Dusen, Cambridge, Guile, Miller, 'Lat, Van Buren, Northam, Wheeler, R. Itheland, Scott, Gardner, Testers, Wright, Muir, Ladd, Dayton, J. W. C. Davis, Seizer, Keith, Will Rehlender, Herrick, Kirby, Sutton, Benton, Trogden, Will McCall, Chas. McCall, Lash, King, J. Davis, Mrs. Baly and Mr. Vanderpool of Denver, Miss Stearns.

Bargains that ARE Bargains

Table with 3 columns: Item, Price, and Special Sale of Silks. Items include Curling Irons, Horn Bone, Dress Stays, Mourning Pins, Brass Pins, XX White Envelopes, Elastic Web, Crochet Cotton, Silk Belting, Casings to match, 21 inch Black China Silk, 22 inch Surahs, 22 inch Gros Grains, 24 inch Fail Francaise, 21 inch Armure, 22 inch Crystal.

J. A. DORSEY 1121-1123 N ST.

Scott, Gardner, Testers, Wright, Muir, Ladd, Dayton, J. W. C. Davis, Seizer, Keith, Will Rehlender, Herrick, Kirby, Sutton, Benton, Trogden, Will McCall, Chas. McCall, Lash, King, J. Davis, Mrs. Baly and Mr. Vanderpool of Denver, Miss Stearns.

A very pleasant affair was the card party given by Miss Stice at her home 2348 Holdrege street Wednesday evening in honor of her cousin Miss Grace King, of Prairie city, Illinois.

The hospitable and palatial home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Moore was the scene of an animated company Friday evening, the attraction being the common and well liked high-five.

The Bon Home cooking club held its second meeting at the home of Mrs. C. A. Keith, Friday evening. An elegant seven o'clock dinner was served by four of the ladies of the club, after which progressive high-five was played.

The "Thanksgiving Hop" given by Lincoln Council, No. 7, Commercial Pilgrims, at Masonic temple Thursday evening, was a very pleasant affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kelley were at home to a merry company of high-five players Wednesday evening at their cozy little home on Seventeenth street.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Oakley left Thursday morning for Omaha to spend Thanksgiving with friends who gave a large dinner in their honor. They will be gone several days.

Miss Alice Wing entertained a whist club last evening. Mrs. F. W. Little is visiting friends in Chicago. Mrs. A. R. Humphrey is visiting at Broken Bow. Miss Theo. Laws left Tuesday for California.

Beautiful souvenir spoons are now being given to new subscribers to the Capital City Courier. Present subscribers may also secure one of these handsome premiums by paying a year in advance and arrears, if any.

Mr. J. A. Dorsey's sacrifice sale of ladies' underwear, advertised on this page, will certainly attract the attention of our fair readers. The advertisement is certainly worth reading.

A carload of new Colorado potatoes just received at Cook Bally Grocery company's. They won't last long. Also a carload of fine Iowa potatoes.

Cook Bally Grocery company are head quarters for delicatessen and fine goods. When you want fresh new poultry, game, butter and eggs, call at Rumhold & Moser's new store, 319 South Eleventh street. Phone 728.

All kinds of imported cheeses, fresh and largest assortment ever seen in the city, at Rumhold & Moser's, 319 South Eleventh St. Phone 728.

Save all bother of borrowing chairs and tables from your neighbors. Give Hardy & Fletcher orders to have some of their new ones with you for your next party. They deliver and call and get them. Fine picture frames made to order at H. W. Cowles, 119 and 123 South Twelfth street.

Miss Lou Kennard Riggs is now prepared to decorate and furnish you elegant china pieces for the nominal price of $6.99. Give your orders early and thank your maid choose your own style.

J. W. Winger & Co., 1109 O street, are going to have the most extensive sale of holiday handkerchiefs and mufflers, commencing Monday next, November 21st. It will pay you to buy your Christmas supply.

Just received, a large assortment of felt hats in the very latest styles, at Mrs. J. H. Blair's, 117 South Eleventh street.

To those who are in search of novelties in unadorned china, call and see our fine line of goods, unique and staple pieces ever in stock. Studio Kevera, 312 South 12th St.

The largest and best selected stock of exclusive military goods can be found at Mrs. J. H. Blair's, 117 South Eleventh street.

Frames, frames, frames, of every description, at Lincoln Frame and Art company's, 225 South 11th street.

Xmas sale of fine and medium handkerchiefs and mufflers commences next Monday, November 21st, at J. W. WINGER & Co., 1109 O street. Ladies make big money canvassing for THE CAPITAL CITY COURIER. If you can make profitable work call at the office, 1134 N street for particulars. Two hundred boys' and children's overcoats just received—to be sold at manufacturer's prices. Ed Corf & Co., 925 O street. Miss Lou Kennard Riggs, artist in oil and china. Come and see us at studio Kevera, 312 S. 12th St. Our coal is well screened, full weight guaranteed and delivery always prompt. Call up Lincoln Coal Co. Phone 440. Great holiday sale of handkerchiefs next week at J. W. WINGER & Co., 1109 O street. Wedding cake boxes, wedding invitations and announcements, the newest for 1922-3, are now being shown by the Wessel Stevens Printing Company. Where do you buy your Xmas? Next week we place on special sale our complete line of corsets, including all the most popular and well known makes. J. W. WINGER & Co., 1109 O street. For ladies' superb hairdressing, hair ornaments and hair goods always go to headquarters—Mrs. Gossner, 1114 O street. We are receiving new importations of goods at Studio Kevera, every week. Call and see us before you buy your Xmas novelties. Geneva Mills "Parity" flour sold everywhere. Fine Playing Cards. Send ten cents in stamps to John Sebastian, general broker and passenger agent, C. & N. P. railway, Chicago, for a pack of the "Rock Island" playing cards. They are acknowledged the best, and worth five times the cost. Send money order or postal note for fifty cents, and we will send five packs by express, prepaid.

K. O. BAKING POWDER. 25 OZS. FOR 25c. ABSOLUTELY PURE - JUST TRY IT. F. J. AQUE & CO. KANSAS CITY, MO.