Two weddings to occur in the first part of June are looked forward to with interest. One, to take place in the metropolis, will unite two prominent families—Lincoln and Omaha, the latter city giving one of its most charming daughters to one of Lincoln's best known and most popular young men. The other wedding which will occur a little later will band together two young people who for some years past have been actively identified with the social life of the city. The latter will be a church wedding, and it is understood that a large number of invitations will be issued.

There are rumors of other matrimonial events to occur in June, and it is possible that there may be some surprises.

The outing season is now at hand, and after one or two indoor entertainments soon to occur, society will direct itself with the usual summer pastimes. Of course every body is going to the world's fair, but those people who have not already decided to defer their Chicago trip until September will, for the most part, visit the exhibition sometime during the coming month. Very few persons, comparatively, have thus far made any preparations for summer expeditions to eastern resorts, and it is probable that the majority of people will be at home during July and August. So that unusual spirit in summer entertainments is looked for. It has often been remarked that while many of Lincoln's residences have grounds admirably adapted for lawn fetes, there are very few of these popular entertainments. Perhaps there will be an improvement in this respect this summer. Coaching was much enjoyed last season, and it is still sufficiently new to be a novelty. Consequently coaching parties are sure to be popular. The two parks, Lincoln with its natural beauty and many attractions; Cushman, secluded and on that account exclusive, and Burlington beach, more attractive this year than ever, are pleasant objective points for drives and picnic parties, and those people whose fond of out door life will, no doubt, give these resorts liberal patronage.

In the city the new Sanitarium will attract many people, and the social swims are destined to be popular throughout the summer.

Every year outing parties have gone to Crete, Milford, and other near by places, and there is talk of similar parties this season. There is some likelihood that Hot Springs and Spirit Lake may be invaded by select companies of Lincoln pleasure seekers.

In some manner Lincoln people will enjoy themselves. They always do. The stay-at-homes are looking forward with some confidence to an interesting summer.

A UNIVERSITY GATHERING.

Mrs. E. B. Loughridge was the hostess at one of the most enjoyable social gatherings in university circles this season, at her home, 1432 S street, Wednesday evening. The party was in honor of Mr. N. B. Barr, a member of the graduating class of the university. He was presented with a beautifully bound volume of Webster's dictionary as a token of esteem by his classmates. A delightful musical programme was rendered, and very tempting refreshments were served by Mrs. Loughridge, and all those present had a most enjoyable time. The guests were: Misses Bessie Merritt, Fannie Land, Alice Cleaver, Ella McCrasky, Ella Aurn, Elva Dempster, Mabel Dempster, J. Belle Fortin, May Hopper, Emma Boose, Myrtle Wheeler, Nettie Wheeler, Mattie Flynn, Jennie Barber, Hattie Barber, Fattie Barr, Lou Barr, Florence Balk, Stella Loughridge, Julia Loughridge, Libbie Hammond, Nettie Hammond, Miss Flynn, Rose Bouton, Miss Wert and Miss Bruner; Messrs. D. A. Lamer, H. A. Genter, John Marshall, Jr., G. N. Whaley, R. A. Lyman, H. Larson, Walter Morrow, D. A. Thomas, W. H. Rhodes, A. H. Quintance, A. Moody, E. N. Corlin, W. A. Richards, S. F. Robertson, R. Wilder, E. M. Pollard and Prof. Fullmer.

ENTERTAINED HIS SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS.

Rev. C. E. Bradt, assisted by Mrs. Bradt, entertained the members of his Sunday school class, composed of about fifty young men and women, at his home in East Lincoln, on Friday night. The evening was passed with entertainments of various kinds and delicious refreshments were served at 10:30. At the close of the evening a flash picture was taken of the group of happy young people. The class includes Misses Lillian Trester, Dena Loomis, Merie Hollowell, Alice Wallace, Clara Winch, Bessie Tuttle, Bessie Millman, Lida Mann, Gertrude Marsland, Miss Slade, Mattie Devin, Della Carpenter, Grace Weatherby, Edith Riser, Stella Pike, Eva Phelps, Miss Roberts, Lottie Devin, Miss Holloway, Kittie Cameron, Marion Houseworth, Frances Duncombe, Bertha Law, Mable Tuttle, Miss Bowman, Hale Bradt, Lena Gregg, Miss Seyboldt, Daisy Childer, George Devin, Maggie Robertson, Alice Campbell and Ama Sharp; Messrs. Ralph Johnson, George Nigh, George kinds and Edward Millman, Will Clark, Charles Clark, James Montgomery, E. W. Smith, B. H. Glass and George Snyder.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Mrs. A. S. Raymond entertained at dinner on Wednesday, a few relatives including Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Davison, of Des Moines, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Travis, of Weeping Water; Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Baird, of Wymore, and their children; Captain and Mrs. C. N. Baird and Miss Margaret Baird.

"Enlisted for the War," was given in the chapel of the Lincoln Normal university by the L. N. U. Dramatic company.

Mr. and Mrs. William Blessing have arrived in Lincoln from Harrisburg, Pa., and will remain to witness the marriage of their niece, Miss Edna Martin, to Mr. J. P. Fishburn, to occur May 31st.

Miss Minnie E. McDonald and Mr. Harry C. Marrison were united in marriage Wednesday evening, at the Holy Trinity church; Rev. John Hewitt officiating.

Chancellor Canfield entertained the senior classes of the university, in all about 150, at his residence one S street, Saturday evening.

COL. CODY DOES THE HONORS.

The Honorable William F. Cody, of North Platte, once a member of the Nebraska legislature, now a member of Governor Crouse's staff, with the rank of colonel, noted as a crack shot and famed for other things not necessary to name at this time, known all over the world as Buffalo Bill, and evinced as the owner of that portable mint, the "wild west show," has ever manifested a predilection for royalty and persons of distinction, and the colonel enjoys the proud honor of having on more than one occasion wept tears of joy on the expansive breast of His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, the patron of American celebrities, and of having issued passes to Queen Victoria and William E. Gladstone. Just now the noted Nebraskan's wild west show, which, by the way, he never exhibits to the people of his own state, is a noisy annex to the world's fair, and thus far the enterprising proprietor has made a great deal more money and had fewer rows than the people who are running the big fair. Incidentally the colonel delights in bringing into play that polish, which, with several hundred thousand dollars, he very cleverly secured in London in company with the Prince. Although a Nebraskan Col. Cody is an aristocrat, and while he is never happier than when entertaining the people who are permitted to bask in the sunlight of his smiles and become beneficiaries of his free pass bestowing liberality, must needs possess one or two qualifications—pedigree or prominence (both preferred). Last Saturday afternoon a very gay coaching party left the Great Northern hotel, Chicago, bound for the wild west show. In the coach were seated Mr. and Mrs. John W. Mackay, Mr. M. H. De Young, of the San Francisco Chronicle, and Mrs. De Young, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Thurston, and other friends. The party was driven by Col. Cody, who managed the six lively horses in a manner that excited general admiration. A few days previous he entertained a very distinguished party in his tent at the wild west camp, including His Highness, Prince Isenburg Bernstein, Prince Roland Bonaparte, Baronde Hesse-Warburg, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Chatfield-Taylor, Miss Fullmer, Mrs. and Miss Barnes, Miss Peck and others.

Rambler Bicycles

ARE EASILY RECOGNIZED.

There is a certain air of distinction about RAMBLER riders—perhaps you have noticed it.

People give them credit for being competent to judge a bicycle—for knowing a GOOD THING when they see it.

An air of confidence is clearly marked in the graceful bearing of RAMBLER riders. They KNOW the wheel they ride—have utmost confidence in it.

Knowing that RAMBLERS are high grade, and are sold at list price only, people do not look upon RAMBLER riders as frequenters of "bargain shops."

"All Ramblers have G. & J. Pneumatics."
