DAVIES ON MITCHELL

Charlie Davies of Chicago better known as the "Parson" has declared himself on the Corbett and Mitchell fight. He says Corbett will win in a walk. But what Davies prophesies does not always come true. I was with Davies and Kilrain just before the latter's fight with Sullivan and according to Davies then, Kilrain would win in a walk. But he did not. The shoe was easy on the other foot. In fact Davies has proven himself a false prophet. He may, however, have called the turn on this Corbett-Mitchell affair but whether he has or not remains to be seen. For myself I too, think Corbett will get there, but to beat the Englishman I believe he will have to put up the very best fight that is in him. Even at that a chance blow may turn the tide or an accident decide the day. In fact Mitchell has a chance to win from Corbett, but not a very rosy one. He is acknowledged to be as clever a boxer as ever donned a glove, and while Corbett has the best of youth, height and reach, he will meet in Mitchell the shiftest man on his feet and the most scientific Knight of the Knuckle he has ever stepped into the ring with. Corbett will not have a slow fighter on his hands that he can cut down at his ease, but a shrewd, crafty and shifty fighter, who is a master of the art, thoroughly up in all the tricks of the game, quick to avoid punishment and capable of inflicting much damage to his opponent, and Corbett will know that he has been to a battle royal before he finishes the Englishman. The young Californian should win, but he will surprise many good judges of the game if he escapes punishment at the hands of the invader, who will be likely to test our champion's stamina."—Sporting News.

I have noted, but without any surprise, of the Southern and California base ball leagues going under. Undoubtedly this is owing to the high salaries paid. It is really astonishing to see how, year after year, managers will persist in financing minor league teams which has always resulted in a break-up. To my thinking one cause is very apparent—in that of paying double the money than that it received to the ball players. Although personally I would like to see the players receive $100 a day, what is not got cannot be given. I could mention the names of a dozen different well known managers who have been doing this sort of thing year after year and no doubt will be ready to start on the same kind of program next year. If $2400 be taken per month at the gate and $4500 paid out it remains easy to be seen what will result.

In corresponding with some of the leading spirits of the old Western league I find that the old time fire and zeal has by no means been extinguished. A number of well known old standbys have their very heart and soul in the welfare and success of America's great national game. George Tabesu (better known as Pat's brother George) writing from Denver and who is likely to represent that city with a team, wants immediate action and recognition of the league. Sandy Griswold of Omaha thinks that the present depression in sporting matters is but temporary and that already signs are looming up which point to a successful season next year. L. C. Krauthoff, the old president of the Western league, writes me: "I have never doubted that a properly organized circuit composed of clubs having financial backing would be successful. The great difficulty will be to evolve some arrangement making it impossible for clubs to lie down during the season. If this can be arranged I am sure Kansas City can be induced to enter the association and that your plan will be crowned with success." Con Strothers, an old manager and umpire, writes me in the same strain in regard to St. Joe and adds that Truckenmiller will back the St. Joe team in a good Western league. Ex-Manager C. H. Cushman of Milwaukee is also very much pleased at the prospects of the Western league being revived again. Similar letters I have received from Duluth, Des Moines, Sioux City, Abe Devinney of Eau Claire and W. H. Lucas, an old manager of note. I would now like to hear representative opinions from Detroit, Toledo, Indianapolis and Lincoln. In my opinion the time is opportune for the former cities to get their heads together and organize a league which, with their former experience, would be able to overcome all difficulties the coming season. I am confident the twin cities, St. Paul and Minneapolis, will come to the front as I shall personally put up money and back a team. Out of the many different cities named we ought to have an eight club league that could stick not only for next season, but many to come.

Dr. Burris' Is the Place.
So says an old gentleman of about 70 years from Oakdale, Neb. He says, for the past year I have suffered a great deal with poor teeth, after trying nearly all the dentists in Lincoln and spending over $45.00 and still not able to get a set of teeth that I could use. I was about to give up in despair, when I happened to read one of Dr. Burris' advertisements, seeing that he made a specialty of making sets for old gentlemen. I determined to make one more effort and give him a trial, and can truthfully say that I at last found the right place. Mr. Burris hit the nail on the head the first lick, and I am now going home feeling 20 years younger and with a set of teeth that are perfect in every respect.

Mr. J. M. Can says he is going to send up all the old boys in Oakdale who want a good set of teeth to Dr. Burris, at 1208 O street, Lincoln, Neb., as he is certain that he knows his business.

Cycling Notes.
There was no club run last Sunday and there promises to be none this next Sunday; go where you please.

Captain Milmine is managing the races at the fair grounds for the state fair association management.

C. L. Shaffer is no longer a novice, having won the one mile novice race Tuesday, and a very neat race it was, time 2:54.5.

Owing to other numerous attractions no meeting was held Wednesday the 13th. There will be a called meeting Tuesday night.

Wheelman are going to play quite a part in the rush for Cherokee lands on the 10th and they will have many advantages, but the desire for water after their ride will constract a great deal of their gain over those who travel by other means.

Our old time friend and sure winner, Eb Mockett has surely lost his grip, whether he will ever gain his form again is doubtful, as he should have been in the pink of condition this week having put in some good training to that end, but it was no go; his old time confidence was missing.

The races at the fair grounds Tuesday and Wednesday were very interesting, some fairly good time was made for competition races. Had the management seen fit to have gone through the grounds with a hand just before the cycle races announcing that they were to take place, they would have drawn at least twice as many spectators, as it was, there were about 1,000 on the first day and less on the second as there were few who knew that there were to be cycle races Wednesday.

As the name indicates, Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer is a renewer of the hair, including its growth, health, youthful color, and beauty. It will please you.

At Burlington Beach.
Notwithstanding the recent cool weather Burlington Beach has continued to be well patronized. Sailing, rowing or riding on the big steamboat is just as enjoyable in weather such as we have had for the past week as when the thermometer is way up in the nineties, and the public is well aware of this fact. The dancing pavilion, with one of the finest floors in the state, is nearly always filled with merry dancers at night, and the beach presents an animated and attractive appearance. This popular resort is so easily accessible now that there need be no hesitation about making the trip at any time of day. You can take your choice between the street car from the Union Pacific depot or the carryalls from the postoffice square.

Not Space Enough.
It is a fact that the Western Normal college could have used fully three times the space assigned to it in mercantile hall at the state fair, but from the few departments represented something of the work of the college may be judged.
