AMONG THE BYKERS

P. L. Webster arrived from a week's sojourn in Chicago Tuesday morning, and struck one of our famous restaurants with a sigh of content at the assurance of the first 4x4 meal since leaving here on the 17th inst.

C. L. Rierson is back from Chicago, stopping over here a few days to visit before going to his home in San Antonio, Tex. Mr. Rierson's departure is regretted by all who knew him in either a business or social way, and he will carry with him the best wishes of all his many friends here.

The special called meeting for Wednesday, the 27th, did not materialize. It did not seem to be so much desired as some thought; even those signing failed to have a majority in attendance. The house committee having full power to act, will proceed to rent the place at 1627 O street.

Ever since the last meeting was held there has been considerable talk of dissatisfaction in regard to the raising of the monthly dues from 50 cents to $1. Those who are dissatisfied with the club on account of an extra 50 cents, are vastly in the minority, and if they would give the matter reasonable thought they would readily concede that to have a satisfactory club the dues must be large enough to pay all of the running expenses of the club. We cannot fall back on the money in the treasury to pay for anything but specials; so in order to avoid assessments, which always catch one unprepared, we must have a regular and sufficient income for which $1 is none too much. The money which is in the treasury out side of dues paid in advance, should stay there until we have some worthy cause to use it for. Next year there is no reason to doubt we will materially add to the amount, so that in time we may do ourselves proud in a permanent home for the club. Let each one reason with himself candidly. What does 50 cents each month more or less matter to the individual? Yet it does matter a great deal to the club.

Dave Small and Charles E. Seifert started for Beatrice last Sunday at 6 o'clock a. m., followed at 6:15 by A. M. Blake and James Bailey, C. L. Shader coming after at 6:30. A high wind was blowing from the southeast, and the sky was clouded during the down trip. Small arrived in Beatrice at 9:20, Seifert coming in twenty minutes later, but he was riding the inverted saddle. Just as they were finishing breakfast Shader arrived, followed a few moments later by Blake and Bailey. Shader continued on south to Fairbury. Small and Seifert after riding out to Linden Tree park, started back for home at 11:10 a. m. The wind had shifted to the north and was blowing pretty strong and gaining strength very rapidly, making it quite impossible to make good time, withal they arrived in Lincoln at 3:15 p. m., and continued on out to Havelock and back to the club rooms, arriving there at 4:10 p. m., making the century in ten hours and ten minutes. Blake and Bailey started back from Beatrice at 11:30 and arrived home at 7:30. Seifert won his wager with Shader, having ridden the century with the saddle inverted, demonstrating one of his theories, at least to his own satisfaction, and it is understood Shader will put in a stock of the inverted saddles at once.

BIG GAME IN KANSAS CITY.

Coming Big Event for Kansas City—Prospects for Western League.

Jimmy Manning went to Kansas City recently to complete the arrangements for the games between the champion Bostons and the All-America team, which are to take place at Exposition park, Saturday and Sunday, October 7 and 8. The Bostons will appear with their complete team, with Stivets in the box for the Saturday game and Nichols on Sunday. The opposition team will be made up of Rusie and Stein, pitchers; Grim and Kittridge, catchers; Beckley, first base; Manning, second; Davis, third; Dahlen, short, and Elmer Smith, Tom Brown and Wilnot in the outfield.

Manning reports that the prospects for the organization of a strong Western league for next season are very flattering, and that John T. Brush, of Indianapolis, and prominent base ball capitalists of the west and northwest are taking a lively interest in the proposed league. The circuit has not been fully decided upon, but will probably include Indianapolis, Toledo, Columbus and Detroit in the east, and Kansas City, Milwaukee, Minneapolis and Des Moines or Omaha in the west. A meeting of representatives of the cities named will be held at Chicago about October 15. A big attendance is expected.

The Dead Fighter.

The death of Mike Cleary recalls some very interesting passages in the life of that once well known fighter. Mike at one time was a candidate for championship honors, and had he met with success in his meeting with Charlie Mitchell he would have challenged the mighty Sullivan. But the Englishman put a damper on Mike's pugilistic aspirations, and after Burke, another

Briton, had conquered the hard-hitting Mike, the latter lost all his championship notions. Cleary was a pupil of Mike Donovan, and learned the greater part of what he knew about fighting from the New York man, though the two men were on bad terms for years. At the time of the Sullivan-Kilrain championship fight, at Richburg, the two men were so angry at each other that friends thought it best to watch them both, for fear they might select that time and place to settle their differences in an impromptu manner, but wise counsel prevailed, and the men kept their peace. Cleary was well known all over the country.

Dr. Burrus' Is the Place.

So says an old gentleman of about 70 years from Oakdale, Neb. He says, for the past year I have suffered a great deal with poor teeth, after trying nearly all the dental bushwackers and spending over $45.00 and still not able to get a set of teeth that I could use. I was about to give up in despair, when I happened to read one of Dr. Burrus' advertisements, seeing that he made a specialty of making sets for old gentlemen. I determined to make one more effort and give him a trial, and can truthfully say that I at last found the right place. Mr. Burrus hit the nail on the head the first lick, and I am now going home feeling 20 years younger and with a set of teeth that are perfect in every respect.

Mr. J. M. Craw says he is going to send up all the old boys in Oakdale who want a good set of teeth to Dr. Burrus, at 1218 O street, Lincoln, Neb., as he is certain that he knows his business.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer $100 for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

A Bright Lad,
Ten years of age, but who declines to give his name to the public, makes this authorized, confidential statement to us:

"When I was one year old, my mamma died of consumption. The doctor said that I, too, would soon die, and all our neighbors thought that even if I did not die, I would never be able to walk, because I was so weak and puny. A gathering formed and broke under my arm. I hurt my finger and it gathered and threw out pieces of bone. If I hurt myself so as to break the skin, it was sure to become a running sore. I had to take lots of medicine, but nothing has done me so much good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It has made me well and strong."

At Burlington Beach.
Notwithstanding the recent cool weather Burlington Beach has continued to be well patronized. Sailing, rowing or riding on the big steambot is just as enjoyable in weather such as we have had for the past week as when the thermometer is way up in the nineties, and the public is well aware of this fact. The dancing pavilion, with one of the finest floors in the state, is nearly always filled with merry dancers at night, and the beach presents an animated and attractive appearance. This popular resort is so easily accessible now that there need be no hesitation about making the trip at any time of day. You can take your choice between the street car from the Union Pacific depot or the carryalls from the postoffice square.
