AMUSEMENT LINES

LIA MARLOWE'S second appearance in Lincoln was, if anything, more notable than her first. In the Viola of "Twelfth Night" and Constance in "The Love Chase" there is the range—a dissimilarity equal to that of the authors of the respective plays, and there isn't very much in common between Shakespeare and Sheridan.

In the performance at the Lansing theatre Thursday evening, the opening attraction will be Oliver Doud Byron's great success entitled "The Inside Track." Popular prices will prevail during this engagement. On Monday evening ladies will be admitted free when accompanied by an escort on a 30-cent ticket.

If the care of the hair were made a part of a lady's education, we should not see so many gray heads, and the use of Hall's Hair Renewer would be unnecessary.

Mr. Coleman had an extremely difficult part as Widrake, and he sustained it admirably. The company, on the whole, was excellent.

"The Ensign" was presented at the Lansing theatre Thursday evening. There are many stirring things in this naval drama, and it is one of the best of the deluge of this class of plays that has swept over the country in the last two or three years and which had its inception in the success of "Shenandoah." The play is interpreted by an evenly balanced company, and the performance was well received. "The Ensign" has been seen in Lincoln before, and it is tolerably familiar.

Coming Attractions.
The Holden Comedy company, one of the favorite repertoire companies that visit Lincoln, will play a return engagement of one week at the Lansing theatre commencing Monday night, presenting a number of strong plays. The opening attraction will be Oliver Doud Byron's great success entitled "The Inside Track."

A RETIRED BUSINESS WOMAN.

A Page From Her History.

The important experiences of others are interesting. The following is no exception: "I had been troubled with heart disease 25 years, much of that time very seriously. For five years I was treated by one physician continuously. I was in business, but obliged to retire on account of my health. A physician told my friends that I could not live a month. My feet and limbs were badly swollen, and I was indeed in a serious condition when a gentleman directed my attention to Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and said that his sister, who had been afflicted with heart disease, had been cured by the remedy, and was again a strong, healthy woman. I purchased a bottle of the Heart Cure, and in less than an hour after taking the first dose I could feel a decided improvement in the circulation of my blood. When I had taken three doses I could move my ankles, something I had not done for months, and my limbs had been swollen so long that they seemed almost putrified. Before I had taken one bottle of the New Heart Cure the swelling had all gone down, and I was so much better that I did my own work. On my recommendation six others are taking this valuable remedy."—Mrs. Morgan, 569 W. Harrison St., Chicago, Ill.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, a discovery of an eminent specialist in heart disease, is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is positively free from all opiates or dangerous drugs.
