II. EDITORS.

SOUTH, NOV. 28, 1882.

giving Proclamation.
unity with custom, the antance of which is justly by this people, I, Chester President of the United States, do hereby proclaim the following:

THE 30TH DAY OF NOVEM-BER, A.D. 1882.

My public thanksgiving. The days demanding our gratitude are varied; for the peace which exists between this and all the nations of the
for freedom from internal disorder; for the increasing ship between different actions land of Liberty, of Justice and of the free independence
of our youth; for the
conscience of re-
forming religion, and
blessings, we should
ask.

I do recommend that the above designated be observed throughout the country as a day of national thanksgiving and prayer, and that people cease from their daily labors and meet in accordance with their several forms of worship, drawn near the Altar of God, and offering up to Him praise for the manifold goodness which he has vouchsafed to us, and for his many blessings may continue to us.

Also, I do recommend that the general

for all our industry for the abundance
the husbandman; for
of national faith and the intellect; and
of our youth; for the
conscience of re-
ask.
