

Our Clubbing List for 1888.

Table listing clubbing rates for various publications including The Herald, North American Review, and others.

With each issue during the present month a large number of extra copies of the HERALD will be issued.

M. D. Park, of Louisville, is now in the employ of the HERALD Publishing Company, and any business he may transact in its behalf will be fully recognized.

A. Salisbury, Dentist.

Additional Locals on fourth page. Will Vivian who has been having a run of the fever is slowly mending.

D. D. Johnson and by Yeomans, of Weeping Water, were in town Tuesday of this week.

Next week the district court sits to hear cases on the equity docket, and lawyers are busy making preparations for the same.

The Boston Operatic Minstrels are booked for next Monday evening at the opera house and they will undoubtedly draw a large audience.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKeever arrived in Plattsmouth this week, and the city will henceforth be their home.

The Episcopal society have well under way their drama, "She Stoops to Conquer," and the cast numbers those who are every way competent to render it.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the opening by Mr. Young and S. C. Mayer, and much music and entertainment will be prepared for their visitors.

Notwithstanding the intense cold a goodly number assembled at the Episcopal society at Mr. Latham's last Thursday evening, and a very pleasant time was enjoyed.

Mr. Pettie has ordered a parlor grand piano for the opera house and has also two others coming which will be placed on exhibition at his headquarters with J. P. Young.

Mr. John McKeever and his estimable wife, who were host and hostess at the Perkins House, are in the city again, and their many friends will be pleased to know, intend to stay.

Sybrant Hall and Mrs. Miller, both of Louisville, were married by Judge Johnson on Tuesday. Both of the contracting parties are near the seventies in age, and the HERALD, as usual, proffers congratulations.

A citizen living up 4th street has called our attention to the fact that there is still no sidewalk between Main and Vine on 5th. As the information is both new and newsworthy we publish it.

M. M. Butler, chairman of the American Central committee was in town Tuesday and called on the HERALD. The doctor reports the committee out of debt, and ready for another campaign.

There are a great many subscribers to the HERALD who are in arrears and we should be pleased to have as many settle up before the commencement of the new year as can be. We do not want to unduly press our claims but our expenses go right on and we must collect sufficiently to meet them.

Citizens, one and all, should attend the High School entertainment at the Opera House next week. The pupils have made most diligent preparations, and there need be no doubt but that the entertainment will furnish the music both evenings.

At a meeting at the Presbyterian church, Monday evening, officers for the Sunday school were elected as follows: Supt., J. N. Wise; asst. Supt., Wm. Hobbs; Secretary, D. A. Campbell; asst. Secretary, Robt. Vass. It was voted to have a Christmas tree on Saturday evening the 23d, and committees to arrange for it were appointed.

One day last week Rev. Wilson, pastor of the M. E. church of this city, visited John R. Polin who is confined in the county jail here, under a sentence of death. He says he found Polin not averse to talking about religious matters and not a man whose sympathies are hard to reach. He left a religious tract and a copy of the testament with him for which Polin very kindly thanked him and asked him to call on him again.

The G. A. R. post at Plattsmouth held a wide-awake meeting last Tuesday night. The officers of the post for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

- List of officers: 1st. Commander, Wm. Hobbs; 2d. Commander, M. M. Butler; 3d. Commander, J. N. Wise; Post Chaplain, J. P. Young; Officer of the day, J. P. Young; Officer of the Guard, J. P. Young.

Cedar Creek Letter.

CEAR CRREEK, Dec. 12th, 1882. EDITORS HERALD: - As the Journal's reporter from this place has gone to more congenial climes, we deem it a good time to give a few items as we have no opposition.

Cedar Creek is doing a very good business in comparison to other stations of like size. White & Sayles, for the month of November, bought corn to the amount of over $1,700; and Connor & Traster for the same month, over $1,750 worth. Business is all a-bustling in the same proportion.

Geo. Walrad, who recently returned from a visit to New York, says he would not leave Nebraska to live on the best quarter section in New York even if it was given to him. Cass county should be proud of such citizens as he.

Mrs. Geo. Sayles returned last week from a visit to Wisconsin. She reports a nice journey. Today, we hear, Mrs. James Smalley, with her father and young son, leave for a three months visit to New Jersey. Jim's friends are wondering how he will content himself in the meantime.

On Sunday, two young men giving their names as Hathaway and Whiteley, came here dead broke. Their home is in York county about two hundred miles west of here, and they succeeded in selling two muskets, which they purchased at Plattsmouth on Saturday, and with the proceeds started homeward. From their appearance, the way of the vagrant is not a pleasant one.

Mr. Craig, the new station agent, arrived here last night from Canada. He proves to be quite a genial fellow. Mr. Jacob Snyder, the treasurer of school district No. 31, was in Plattsmouth last Saturday on business connected with his office. The financial condition of the district is very good. It having over two hundred dollars on interest. During the present term of school nearly 40 scholars have been enrolled.

Henry King, the champion storyteller, has left town since the weather is warmer, and Cedar Creek is almost like a funeral. "Itank" is missed. Mr. Henry Inhelder is wrestling with the ague about every day. He has had the under holds at last report.

J. W. MARSHALL, P. M. John McKeever and Charlie Herrmann have leased the upstairs room in Rasgorshak's building, and propose opening a new billiard parlor there. They have already ordered four new tables, and they purpose having one of the best kept halls in the state.

There never has been a time in the history of Plattsmouth when such a large and magnificent display of holiday goods has been made as may be seen in her business houses. Another star has fallen from the firmament. The Advocate, published in this city, the official organ of all the hosts of greenbackers in the state has been suspended.

Gen. Geo. S. Smith went to Kansas City on Wednesday night, on legal business. He was accompanied by Mrs. Smith. D. H. Wheeler slipped and fell on the platform at the depot a few days since and received quite serious injuries.

Dogs upon which no collars are found and a "tax tag" attached are being killed by the score by the city police. "A Celebrated Case" is billed for this evening at the opera house. This city by the Chicago Theatre Company.

Hon. Sam M. Chapman has been quite sick this week but is at the present writing in getting better again. A noticeable increase in trade the past week presages lively times until after the holidays.

J. S. Tewksbury, of Weeping Water, has sold his interest in the mill at that place. Young men thinking of attending school this winter should send for a circular of the Wyman Commercial College of Omaha. The studies are practical and the institution a good one.

Plattsmouth City Markets. GRAIN. PROVISIONS, FRUIT, FEED AC. (RETAIL). Reported by M. R. Murphy & Co.

There is to be a big wolf hunt out at Ed. Todd's next Monday; lovers of the sport will take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

The M. E. Church, we understand, will entertain their Sunday school with a Christmas tree in the new Hall in the Rockwood block. Our correspondents from out in the county send the HERALD a goodly number of new letters this week which can be duly appreciated.

School Examinations.

The examinations of city schools for the purpose of promoting the pupils will take place next week commencing on Monday. Every pupil belonging should be present. Those who are absent from the examination will not be promoted unless such as the superintendent will accept, is presented. Any who are absent, and afterward bring excuses, will be examined before being promoted. Every patron of the city schools should feel a deep interest in this matter, and send their children to school promptly and regularly, especially during the examination. Every precaution will be taken to obtain a fair and impartial result from the examinations. Teachers will change rooms, and no teacher will be allowed to answer questions during the progress of the examinations.

The M. E. church will give a concert at Rockwood hall on Saturday night before Christmas. A good entertainment and a happy time is predicted for all who attend.

At Cost. A special line of lace, embroideries and an assortment of fancy goods will be sold at cost until after holidays. Zephyrus reduced to ten cts. an ounce. We must get ready for the spring stock. Come and examine our stock before purchasing. It will pay you to do so. Miss JOHNSON & SWANBERG, 319 Milliners.
