"How we apples swim." Nothing comes to the surface in a public gathering these days and disports itself with such satisfaction to itself and annoyance to the public, as the unadulterable demagogue. He is always there, swimming away, imagining he is an iron clad with irresistible ordnance and invulnerable turret; while, in fact, he is the most egotistical sham that floats; universally floating the soiled undergarments of some briefly popular prejudice as a pennant, and firing his self-made pop gun from the poop deck, as the columbiad of public opinion.

In illustration of this picture, our readers have but to peruse in the Chicago papers of the 14th inst. the proceedings of the national agricultural association, to learn what a commodious fraud our late double barreled, gas-metre, grand jury stuffing democratic candidate of this state, made of himself at that association meeting in Chicago. That eminent agriculturist and distinguished fraud, appeared before that body, and immediately proceeded to apply the torch and fire him self off in a thin free trade speech; this, too, in the presence of honest, earnest agriculturalists, who knew more in a minute about our commercial relations, our national needs, wants and dangers, than this corporation scion could possibly learn, by the closest application, in a lifetime.

Following this, gentlemen like Mr Stevens, of Ohio, Mr. Hinton, of Wisconsin and Mr. Slayton, of New Hampshire, proceeded to puncture this inflated gas bag in a manner which, if he has any shame, he will long remember. It is sufficient to say that Mr. Morton received some facts and figures on the tariff question, that, if properly nurtured, will be of much benefit to him in the future, when his egotism prom ts him to make a magnificent fool of h mself.

Our advice to Mr. Jury Saline Morton, is to return to the sheltering care of Mr. C. E. Perkins, of the C. B. & Q. There to insert his syphon in the pap department of this corporate mother and hibernate, at least until he is through teething.

THE HERALD has waited long, and exercised much patience, in the hope that the Journal would do its duty and suggest the name of Bro. Draper as the democratic anti-monopolist speaker of the House during the coming session. Why so much modesty at this late day is not apparent. Mr. Draper is a democrat, no one doubts it; he is also an anti-monopolist, and none who heard his speech at the ratification meeting after election would gainsay it. Hence, we rise to do that which should have been done long ago —suggest to the coming hosts, Mr Draper, as an eligible man for their candidate. The day is a cold one when we neglect democracy entirely; and while this boom may swell into oblivion, it shows that there's nothing mean about us.

THE republicans in congress have taken the democratic party at their word, that they are in for reform and industry; to prove this they are holding the democrats in session Saturday and over the holidays and though there is much kicking over the medicine, the democrats swallow and keep passably silent.

THE Pawnee Republican claims for the new opera house in that place as the best in the state outside of Omaha and Lincoln. If Pawnee city will send a delegation to this city we will show them an opera house built at a cost three times as great as theirs and correspondingly finer.

THERE is a lack of free trade thunder in the democratic papers of late, which transition, to nervous people, is almost startling, coming so suddenly. Even New York Sun editorials have experienced a sudden falling off in the columns of our poor, but honest contemporary.

THE public must possess itself with patience until it is determined whether Mr. Randall, of Pennsylvania, or Mr. Carlyle, of Kentucky, be the next speaker of the house; when that question is settled we shall know whether the democratic party is still free trade or whether it is protection.

SENATOR Van Wyck being now chairman of the Mississippi, Missouri, and river improvement committee, might shed some light as to the rea... or eight hundred people visited them. Mr. Young had his immense stock of holiday goods well displayed, and the Mayers had a very tasty arrangement of their specialties. The B. & M. band discoursed sweet music, and in Mr. Young's, vocal and instrumental music was dispensed to the listeners. Mr. Young handed a box of cigars to the band boys, who appreciated his remembrance, and over 500 gifts were given to the ladies, S. & C. Mayer also presented each lady with a souvenir of the event, and it was a complete success all around.

THAT great party of reform, Democratic in name, is already in a pickle. In the U. S. Senate at the last session Mr. Pendleton of Ohio introduced his civil service reform bill that democracy lauded to the skies as a necessary and wholesome measure. With the opening of the present session it was one of the first measures on the calender to come up for hearing, and Mr. Pendleton in a long speech laid it before the senate; the republicans in the senate said, "It is a good bill and we will pass it," but the democrats through Mr. Brown of Georgia, and Mr. Voorhees of Indiana, arose at once and are waging a warm opposition to it. It was just the thing for the democratic party to masquerade before the people in, but when it came to the point of reforming the civil service in earnest, or using the bill for any other purpose else than to create party capital with, the howl of opposition arose at once. The fact of the whole matter is the extent of the civil service reform that the democratic party desires is simply that reformation that kicks republicans out of office and seats democrats in their place. It is the old Andrew Jackson democratic idea of reform and the party is too Jacksonian and too hungry to aid any other measure. In consequence of this they are cornered in their own trap. Mr. Pendleton proposes to pass the bill and it will be done by a solid republican vote It will be a long step toward civil service reform and the whole democratic party are now kicking themselves over it.

O. P. Irish sends us the statistics of the Bureau of engraving and printing and in the quality and amount of statistics it is the largest stock, government has exhibited this season.

As between David Butler, Capt. Ashby, A. H. Connor, and John H Pierce for the United States Senate the HERALD is for the dark horse and the darker the better.

Cased.

The bar of Cass county, on last Wednesday, presented to Judge S. B Pound a beautiful gold headed cane in testimony of their esteem for the fair and universally impartial manner in which he has presided over the District Court of this county. Hon. D H. Wheeler made the presentation speech in a very appropriate style. The Judge hesitated about accepting the gift lest it might be wrong for him to do so. But after the views of a number of the lawyers present assuring him that there could be no impropriety in his accepting in as much as the gift was made in open court and by the whole bar; he accepted it and appropriately thanked the donors for it.

Nine Physicians Outdone.

It is generally considered a pretty difficult task to outdo a physician, but the following will conclusively prove where nine physicians are completely outdone. Mrs. Helen Pharviz, 331 Dayton St., Chicago, Ill., was treated for consumption by nine physicians, and all pronounced her case incurable. Seven bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption completely cured her. Doubting ones please drop her a postal and convince yourselves. Trial bottles free at Roberts' Pharmacy. 40eowly

OF THE

DES MOINES & OMAHA MEDICAL DISPENSARYS,

ON ACCOUNT OF HIS

Immense Practice in Plattsmouth, Nebraska,

WILL MAKE HIS NEXT VISIT ON

Saturday, Feb. 24, 1883,

AND WILL REMAIN ONE DAY,

AT THE

PERKINS HOUSE,

WHERE HE CAN BE CONSULTED ON THE

Ear & Eye, Throat & Lungs, Catarrh, Kidneys

Bladder and Female Diseases as Well as All Chronic and Nervous Diseases.

DR. FISHBLATT

Has discovered the greatest cure in the world for weakness of the back and limbs, involuntary discharges, impotency, general debility, nervousness, langour, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, timidity, trembling, dimness of sight or giddiness, diseases of the head, throat, nose or skin, affections of the liver, lungs, stomach or bowels—these terrible disorders, arising from solitary habits of youth—and secret practices more fatal to the victim than the songs of Syrens to the mariner of Ulysses, blighting in it most radiant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage impossible.

Those that are suffering from the evil practice, which destroy their mental and physical system, causing

NERVOUS DEBILITY.

The symptoms of which are a dull distressed mind, which unfit them for performing their business and social duties, makes happy marriages impossible, distresses the action of the heart depression of spirits, evil forebodings, confusion of ideas, dreams, restless nights, dizziness, forgetfulness, unnatural discharges, pain in the back and hips, short breathing, melancholy, tire easily of company and have preference to be alone, feeling as tired in the morning as when retiring, sexual weakness, lost manhood, white bone deposit in the urine, nervousness, trembling confusion of thought, watery and weak eyes, dyspepsia, constipation, paleness, pain and weakness in the limbs, etc., should consult me immediately and be restored to perfect health.

YOUNG MEN

Who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of exalted talent and brilliant intellect who might otherwise entrance listening, senators with the thunders of their eloquence or waken to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with confidence

MARRIAGE.

Married persons or young men contemplating marriage beware of physical weakness. Loss of procreative power, impotency or any of those organic imperfections that unfit a person to assume the responsibilities of married life, should place himself under the care of Dr. Fishblatt may religiously confide in his skill as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANAL WEAKNESS

Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This distressing affection, which renders life a burden and marriage impossible, is the result of self abuse by the victim, or improper indulgence. Young men are apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now who that understands the subject will deny that procreation is not sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the patient. Besides being deprived of the pleasures of healthy offsprings, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both mind and body arise. The system becomes deranged, the physical and mental powers weaken. Lost procreative power, nervous irritability, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, constitutional debility, wasting of the frame, cough consumption and death.

A CURE WARRANTED.

Persons ruined in health by unlicensed pretenders who keeps them trifling month after month taking poisonous and injurious compounds, should apply immediately.

DR. FISHBLATT,

graduated at one of the most eminent colleges in the United states, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at certain sounds, with frequent blushing attended sometimes with derangement of the mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICUAR NOTICE.

Dr. F. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and secret habits which ruin both mind and body, unfitting them for business, study, society or marriage. These are some of the sad, melancholy effects predicted by the early habits of youth viz: Weakness of the back and limbs, pains in the head and dimness of sight, loss of memory, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, nervous irritability, derangement of digestive functions, debility, consumption, etc.
