Christmas festivities are the order of the day in the city and the day will be fully celebrated.

The Boston Operatic minstrels crew a good house and the entertainment was pronounced an entire success.

From a Utah paper the HERALD notes that Mr. and Mrs. Burnison (Mrs. B formerly Miss Dakin) are the happy parents of a baby boy.

The people of the city should not forget the poor on Christmas; wherever they may be some little aid extended will do much to brighten the day for them.

Miss Laura Overlander and Miss Anna Livingston two of Plattsmouth's accomplished young ladies were in the city visiting Miss Beattie Anderson, during the early part of the week.

J. G. Chambers & Son, having outgrown their former place of business, have moved their harness shop into more commodious quarters, in the Lehnhoff building.

Christmas at the Presbyterian church will be celebrated on Saturday evening with a Christmas tree and appropriate exercises.

The HERALD desires to call the attention of its patrons to the fact that the office has just received the handsomest font of script type ever before received.

From Chicago papers and programmes, the HERALD is pleased to learn of Miss Nellie French's success in her school in that city.

While we are enjoying nice smooth roads and a dry winter, reports from the east say they are having slight riding with occasional changes of rain and mud.

Nimmerman Sentenced to Hang. Matt Nimmerman, the horse thief and accomplice of Dick Belmont in the murder of Sheriff Jack Woods and others at Minden in this state, was tried last week, the jury finding him guilty of murder in the first degree.

On Sunday evening next instead of the regular service in St. Luke's, this city, there will be a children's carol service.

On Christmas morning at 6 a. m. there will be regular church service, the church will be illuminated and the services conducted by the pastor.

On the evening of January 17th Levitts Gigantic Minstrels appear and on the 31st the management have engaged Wm Hoar Lingard's Stolen Kisses Combination who appear before a Plattsmouth audience for the first time.

Avoca Letter. AVOCA, Neb., Dec. 14, 1882.

Thinking a few notes from this prosperous village might interest some of your many readers, we take pleasure in compiling them.

The most absorbing theme here at present writing, is the offer by some eastern capitalists to put up a $100,000 steam flouring mill.

We found A. L. Marshall quite busy in his drug store and were surprised to see so good a stock in a new town.

G. H. Sawyer succeeds Chase & Beardsley Jan. 1st. He will then open one of the best hardware stores in the county; success to his efforts.

Teff & Son run the post-office and sell town lots at good rates to actual settlers.

We find a branch store of R. H. Haller, here, doing a lively business under the management of Mr. Luupp.

Mr. Sebring, the obliging agent of the Mo. Pacific, reports a good showing of freights received and forwarded, one in fact, that would be creditable to a town of twice the size.

South Bend Letter. SOUTH BEND, Neb., Dec. 16, 1882.

The equilibrium of the mind has not been disturbed by any unusual occurrence for some time. Trade is lively, especially the grain trade.

H. J. Straight and E. E. Day, are the grain buyers. They still pay 30 cents per bushel for corn, while, at the adjoining shipping places, buyers are paying considerable less.

Mr. Hays, who has been overseeing the construction of the bridge at this place, goes to Ashland next week to complete the bridge there.

Miss Lucretia Cary has gone to Michigan to spend the winter. We were just ready to condole Mr. Keller on his misfortune, but we found another Miss Cary's place very satisfactory.

Joe McCaig is looking around the Bend every two weeks; and it is rumored that ere long, Miss Joe will become Mrs. McCaig, then Joe's interest in the Bend will dwindle. Joe is a good fellow and we are willing to undergo a loss that he may be gainer.

Mr. Roumine was in town last evening to get some carp shipped him by the fish commissioners at Washington. We understand Mr. Roumine is getting rich from his peculiar business.

The young fellows have a ho-o- once a week, and from the late hours they keep, we judge they enjoy themselves hugely.

The ice on the Platte had a very noticeable effect on the number at church last Sabbath.

We are to have a Christmas tree in connection with an entertainment on the Sabbath school.
