Say, Does This Hit You.

We are sorry if it does, but then we must have a little more than that old account. We haven't said much about it before, but this is the beginning of the New Year, you know, and we want to get things straightened up.

A. Salisbury, Dentist.

This is good weather for a picnic. Additional locals will be found on the 4th page.

F. E. Watson, a typo in the HERALD office, has a very sick baby. The harness of Fitzgerald's block is being fitted for the roller skating rink.

Looking down Main street of a forenoon these wintry days, one would think Plattsmouth the centre of a timbered region; wagons loaded with cord wood fringe the sidewalk.

It seems the HERALD was in error last week in reporting James Ingram as being implicated in the tobacco business at Louisville.

Monday night was one of the coldest of the season, the thermometer, according to Dr. Child, registering 12° below zero.

Rev. Mr. Powell, of Beatrice, state missionary of the Unitarians, preached at the court house Sunday a. m. and p. m.

Jason Newell was his threat against a wagon, striking his head and being kicked and trampled upon by the mules which were hitched to the wagon.

The dance by the T. A. M. club in the opera house New Year's night was well attended, and was a brilliant affair as well as complete social success.

Personal.

J. A. Connor and wife visited Lincoln Tuesday.

Mrs. J. W. Love and daughter returned home Tuesday evening.

Miss Minnie E. Coglan, who has been attending school at Omaha, has returned to Plattsmouth.

T. P. McCarthy, of Elmwood, called and discussed the monopoly question with the HERALD Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Huffer, R. B. Windham and J. B. Strode are among the spectators at Lincoln this week.

Rev. S. F. Wilson is in Panama, Nebraska county this week attending to church work there imposed by the conference.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Campbell were among the Plattsmouth delegation who attended the Nilsson concert at Omaha.

Gen. Geo. S. Smith, J. W. Barnes and H. E. Palmer went to Lincoln on Sunday to get an early start on Monday's proceedings.

Attorney Benson returned Monday from Red Oak. Mr. Benson has quite a law practice at his old home which certainly speaks well for him.

M. A. McKinnon, now of St. Joseph Mo., and one of Plattsmouth's very best young men, was in the city over New Year's day greeting his old friends.

Rev. K. A. Burrell, who has visited Plattsmouth before, we are pleased to announce will be in the city next week and will hold meetings every evening.

Wm. L. Hobbs, who has been in the Black Hills for the last six years, arrived in Plattsmouth last week looking as every one says, as natural as life.

As Mr. Geo. Waldrat and his nephew were starting home from church at Louisville Sunday night, James and Adam Ingram jumped on the sleigh whereupon Mr. Waldrat took occasion to push them off, this angered the young men and they went for the occupants of the sleigh in a vigorous John Sullivan style.

The Agnes Villa company gave entertainments in this city last Monday and Tuesday evenings, which are well spoken of by those who attended them.

The following are among the names of the donors: Mr. and Mrs. Judge Johnson, Wm. B. Porter, Nelson Jean, J. C. Cummins, Jacob Valley Jr., Isaac Wiles, Joshua Gapan, A. S. Sullivan, A. W. H. Weyer, E. K. Todd, Sain M. Chapman, W. D. Jones, M. McElvain, Wm. Murray, David Miller, Ami B. Todd, Jess C. Grassman, E. H. Sage, J. C. Eikebary, A. W. White, A. W. McLaughlin, W. H. Baker, C. M. Holmes, E. M. Snodker.

Mr. Wm. Eikbary, Albert Eikbary, Dr. J. H. Hall, Mr. F. Davis, Samuel Gapan, Ben Gentry.

A noticeable feature of this gathering was the many old settlers present, such as Mr. and Mrs. Porter, Jess Wiles, Cummins, Valley, Todd, Gapan and many others, sturdy settlers of Cass Co. in the long ago, when our place upon the map of our country was designated as the "Great Desert."

List of Letters. List of letters remaining unclaimed in the post office at Plattsmouth, Cass County, Neb., Dec. 28, 1882.

Snake stories are below par in Georgia; how is this from the Athen's Waterman; Snake Pruitt says that before the war there came a big snow in Banks county, when a man went out and caught enough rabbits to fill two hog-skins, after they were dried like beef, and that he shipped them to Charleston, S. C. and got a big price for the same.

Twenty First Wedding Anniversary.

There was a notable gathering on New Year's Day and evening at the residence of Henry Eikbary Esq., to celebrate the occasion of their twenty-first marriage anniversary.

The Game Fishes of America.

The publishers of The American Angler, a weekly paper devoted entirely to fishing and fish culture, announce that on and after January 6th 1883 they will publish from week to week a series of exhaustive essays upon the game fishes of America.

The publishers' offices are in New York City at 13-15 Park Row, and the subscription $3.00 a year.

Agnes Villa.

The Agnes Villa Combination played at Music Hall to crowded houses. In speaking of this company before its arrival we said that they brought with them very good press testimonials but being so accustomed to reading flattering press comments, we supposed it was the same old story.

The music given by the band is exceptionally good. In opera burlesque Mr. Sam Villa is inimitable as is also Agnes Villa's acting in the play "Miss Maudslott" as well as her little daughter Lucie, have won for them many friends, who will at all times welcome them, together with the rest of the company. It is to be hoped that this Combination will visit us again before the season closes.

The X Road.

Ed. Hendrix—The quiet of the cross roads was disturbed for a few days ago by the report of a rumor of matrimony—Robt. McHenry to Miss Mary Ritchie, at the residence of the bride's parents on Dec. 28th.

Mrs. Preston, who has been visiting her daughter Mrs. D. Johnson returned to her home in Kansas last week.

We are sorry to learn of the dangerous illness of a child of our friend Jas. Clark, also the infant son of our neighbor, Ed. Hendrix.

Dedication of the Free Will Baptist church last Sabbath.

Rumor says that McHenry and Cople have traded sure this time. Who will lend us their sled, don't all speak at once.

Subject for discussion by our school board of district 48, Banking School house—How to stop the brethren from bringing lumber of the coal box for kindling wood.

Eight Mile Grove News. A "happy New Year" to one and all. As this vicinity seems not to be noticed much in the HERALD I thought perhaps a few items would be interesting to some of your readers.

The work on Smith & Black Bros.' new store room in the Rockwood block is nearly completed and the firm expect to move inside the next week; when J. M. Woodson will occupy their present room with his grocery.

Mr. P. B. Murphy of this city, is an applicant for assistant doorkeeper of the house in Lincoln; and we understand the entire delegation from Cass irrespective of party, support him, which is good enough.

Parties wishing to purchase horses should not fail to call at the Bonner stables and look over their car of horses bought and selected in eastern Iowa, and which numbers some fine head of horses.

The board of trade failed to score a quorum on the regular night of meeting, and an attempt will be made to hold a meeting to-morrow evening, which ought to result successfully.

The proceedings of the January session of the board of commissioners will be published next week.

It would be in order now to improve the present good sleighing with some lively sleighing parties after the old times.
