No One Need Remain A Dyspeptic.

"I have been suffering for over two years with Dyspepsia. For the last year I could not take a drink of cold water nor eat any meat without vomiting it up. My life was a misery. I had had recommended Simmons Liver Regulator, of which I am now taking the second bottle, and the fact is that words cannot express the relief I feel. My appetite is very good, and I digest everything thoroughly. I sleep well now, and I used to be very restless. I am fleshing up fast; good, strong food and Simmons Liver Regulator have done it all. I write this in hopes of benefiting some one who has suffered as I did, and would take oath to these statements if desired."

SOUTHERN IMPUDENCE.

Washington, May 29.—Three more southern companies left the drill grounds at dress parade this afternoon because they heard that our Washington cadets—colored—were to be permitted to take part in the parade. There is great reticence observed at headquarters about the occurrence, but there is said to be quite a hubbub about the matter at headquarters tonight. It is safe to say that the troops which left the field had no chance to win any of the prizes. Three soldiers were also taken from the grounds at dress parade, to the hospital, being overcome with heat.

A BATTLE WITH BANDITS.

Bransville, Tex., May 31.—Yesterday morning Balsa cut off, above Santa Maria, in the Mexican territory, and a refuge of desperate bandits, thieves and smugglers, was raided by forces from both sides of the river. Sheriff Breto of this county and Deputy Clansner of Hidalgo, with about fifty ranchers and deputies entered and drove out the bandits who met with a reception from the other side from a detachment of the Third cavalry, under command of Col. Hermandu. A sharp fight ensued in which Hermandu was wounded, one of his men killed, and another wounded. One bandit was killed, and several wounded and a number captured, several of whom, who were well known murderers, were executed on the spot. A large amount of stolen stock was found and returned to its owners.

SPANISH BAD FAITH.

Madrid, May 31.—The minister of the colonies announced in the courts today that the government had decided to largely increase the import duties on goods imported from nations which, like the United States, had no commercial treaty with Spain. This announcement is an indirect contradiction of the promises made by that government to the Cuban home rulers, who recently demanded a low tariff and other economic reforms as the price of their abstention from agitating the question of annexing the Spanish West Indies to the United States, and is generally denounced as a gratuitous piece of bad faith.

THE AFGHAN WAR.

St. Petersburg, May 31.—News has reached Merv, from Herat, that the Ghilzais have defeated 1,000 of the ameer's regular troops, and captured five guns and considerable baggage. The inhabitants of the province of Herat and the adjoining districts are greatly excited over the success of the revolted tribe, and it is said they are ready to join the Ghilzais.

ETNA AGITATED.

Rome, May 31.—The central crater of Mount Etna has been erupting this morning. The flow continues increasing in volume. Heavy clouds of smoke and masses of stones and cinders are issuing from the crater.

THE FISHERIES QUESTION.

Ottawa, May 30.—In the senate last evening Sower moved that in opening this house it was the duty of the government of Canada to see that any arrangement for the admission of United States fishermen to the territorial water of Canada which may be entered into between the government of Great Britain and the United States, a special provision should be made that fishermen of the latter country, when within the waters of Canada, shall be subject to the laws and regulations by which Canadian fishermen are for the time being governed. Abbot, leader of the government, said the Dominion government would bring the matter before the imperial authorities and see that the rights of Canada were maintained. The motion was unanimously adopted.

LONG LIVE BOULANGER.

Paris, May 31.—There was a brilliant assemblage at the military fete, but Boulanger was absent. While the company was assembling thousands of persons gathered in the vicinity of the opera house shouting "Resignation!" "Long live Boulanger!" "We will have him!" etc. At eleven o'clock the crowd which had greatly increased in numbers, became so turbulent the republican guard was ordered to clear the street which was accomplished mid loud hissing. At midnight the crowd assembled in greater force with riotous demonstrations. An increased force of soldiers and police was ordered out and succeeded in preventing trouble. The crowds finally dispersed shouting "Vive Boulanger." At 2 a. m. the city is quiet.

The Nebraska Chautauqua.

We are reminded by circulars left in our railway cars, offices and shops, that the time is near at hand for the annual gathering of the Nebraska Chautauqua Assembly at Crete, from May 29, to July 9th. But perhaps this is not enough—we need to be reminded anew of the significance of this gathering. The social duties, political campaigns and real estate booms of the past year have doubtless crowded this out of mind. Intensity, specialism so mark this age that we are all sure to get rusty upon some side, and need to be taken away from what is the one absorbing interest, and brought in contact with those who will turn the other side or things to us. We need something to divert us from the beaten track, to clear our vision as to what are realities, and what are only conventional positions, and this assembly at Crete which furnishes to the most of us our only opportunity ought to be made much of. If you want physical rest this is a good place to find it. You can have sunshine or shade, as you choose, a retired spot to pitch your tent, or swing your hammock—the quiet of nature without the loneliness of isolation.

If you want intellectual awakening, sharpening, come and listen to the logic, wit and wisdom that some of the very best minds of our country will bring us. If you are weary of the humdrum every day life, impatient of the social trivialities and empty formalities, leave all these, bring only the sweet courtesies and spend a few days where we are all but children of the one Father, enjoying the same good things from the same loving hand.

We have space for but the different departments, each representing many separate exercises. "Sermons, Literature, Language, Science, Theological, Historical and Religious." Political Economy; Social Questions; Law; Travels, besides entertainments of elocution, music, etc. Added to this are the summer classes, in which attention is given to the Liberal Arts, Law Lectures, Kindergarten Instruction, Microscopy, Oratory, Clay Modeling, Art, Musical Instruction, Physical Culture, Photography, Sunday School Normal Work, etc.

Of course, but a small part of this program for two months, could be put into our space of ten days, but the same wise policy is pursued this year, as has heretofore marked the arrangements of the Nebraska Assembly, to increase the quantity as rapidly as practicable, but not to discount the quality. So we find upon our list such names as Dr. Pentecost, Dr. Duryea, Rev. C. S. Henson, and from the reputation of the latter, I would suggest that any who are afraid of being hit, might better be absent, while he delivers his lecture entitled, "Gunnery." The eloquent temperance lecturer, Hon. Geo. W. Bain, of Kentucky, will be here, also Col. Homer D. Sprague and others "who but to mention is to praise."

Those who were here three years ago will be glad to welcome Mrs. Kenedy who will take charge of the children's department of bible instruction. And the presence of Miss Lucia Kimball, superintendent of the national W. C. T. U., will be pleasure and inspiration to the friends of temperance present.

It is enough to say of the music department, that Prof. Sherwin has it in charge, with a competent assistance.

ants. On G. A. R. day, the 4th of July, Gen. H. A. Morrow, of Sidney, will deliver the address. He will bring with him the 21st infantry band, U. S. A., of 21 pieces, said to be the best in the army. The Schubert quartette, of Chicago, will be here.

Hon. J. M. Woolworth, of Omaha, will address the lawyers, and on the evening of the same day, Hon. J. M. Thurston will deliver his lecture upon General Grant.

It is not known who will speak to the editors, but we are assured that it will be one of their ablest and most eloquent.

Frank Beard will be here with chalk and blackboard to instruct and entertain. The comfort of those tenting upon the grounds will be looked after by Z. Waterman, of Crete, the gentlemanly superintendent of grounds.

With all these, under the general superintendence of Dr. Dunning, whose equal as conductor of such an assembly it would be hard to find. We are safe in assuring all who come that they will have a good time.—Crete Globe.

The Sailor and His Trousers.

"How do I keep my trousers from bagging at the knees?" echoed an old man who had served many years in the British navy. "Why that's one of the simplest things in the world if a man only knows how and will put himself to a little trouble at first. Jack Tar's trousers, as you know, are very close reefed and built snug and taut all the way down until near the bottom, where they are given full sail and spread themselves well over the boots. They are the very kind that are apt to bag at the knees, so that one of the first things the young landlubber is taught when he enters the navy is how to wear them. No doubt you have often heard of the sailor taking a hitch in his trousers every time he sits down, and no doubt you thought he did it merely as a sort of introduction to the yarn he was about to spin.

"Yes, few people would imagine that the hitch is what keeps the trousers straight; but just think a moment and you will recollect that they fit very tight around the knee, and that whenever you sit down and poke out your knees you stretch the cloth. That's what makes the bagging. By taking a few hitches in your trousers when you sit down you leave plenty of slack for the knees to play in, and your clothes will wear out before they will bag. After taking the hitch a few times it will become almost second nature to you, and you will do it unconsciously every time you sit down. The hitch may be simple, but it's worth more to a man than one of those patent $5 trousers stretchers. As for the coat, not one in a dozen knows how to button it so that it will set well. The proper way is to begin at the bottom button and go up. Not a day passes but I have to laugh at people who say they are going to button their coats up, and then calmly proceed to button them down."—New York Sun.

Growing Fast the Wrong Way.

By the recent census Manitoba has 108,640 people. In 1881 the territories were found to contain 45,302. Thus the total for population of Manitoba and the northwest is 153,942. In 1883 the government estimated it at 203,152; in 1884 at 248,102. These figures were based on returns of the immigration department. It appears, therefore, that 91,102 settlers have been lost, to say nothing of the increase that should have occurred by birth.

By the census of 1881 Manitoba had 65,954, the territories were credited with 56,440, a total of 122,400 people. In six years Manitoba has gained but 42,684, including what is gained by extension of boundaries, and a full third of the total gain has been added to the city of Winnipeg.—Toronto Globe.
