M., of said day at the south door of the Court House in said county, sell at public auction, the following real estate to-wit:
West half (1/2) of the South west quarter (1/4) of Section Six (6) Township Ten (10) Range Ten (10) East of the 1st P. M. in Cass county, Nebraska, with all the privileges and appurtenances thereunto in any way appertaining thereto.
The same being taken upon and taken as the property of William Clark defendant, to satisfy a judgment of said court recovered by Drury & Peoples' plaintiff, against said Defendant.
Plattsmouth, Neb., this June 20th A. D. 1887.
J. C. ECKENBARY,
Sheriff of Cass County, Neb.

Fifteen miners are imprisoned by fire at Virginia City, Nev. in different levels of the Gould & Curry and Best & Belcher mines. But little hope is entertained of saving them, though the engines are busy pumping air into the levels where they are confined.

THE LATEST NEWS.

MURDERERS ESCAPE.

Springfield, Mo., June 26.—C. R. Carter, Tom M. Killon and three other prisoners, killed the deputy sheriff and escaped from jail at Mt. Vernon yesterday. Carter was to be hanged next Friday for the murder of Robert Crockett, and Killon was awaiting trial for complicity in the same crime. Carter and Killon were slain keeper and druggist respectively, and Crockett had reported them for violation of the liquor laws.

STEVE PEER, THE NIAGARA ROPEWALKER KILLED BY A FALL.

Niagara Falls, June 25.—Steve Peer, the local celebrity, who out-did Blondin in daring feats around Niagara and recently crossed on a five-eighths inch cable is dead. Ever since he did the daring act he has been drinking very heavily. This evening about 7:30 Peer went out unobserved, with John Gillespie and a stranger, and later was seen in the same company near his rope. As he did not show up by 8:30, and no trace of him could be discovered elsewhere, it was concluded he must have got on his rope and fallen from it, or tumbled over the bank, and ropes and lanterns were procured and Peer's brother, with another man, were lowered down, and near the bottom of the incline found his lifeless body badly cut around the head. The body was raised to the top of the precipice by means of the ropes. The general belief is that he attempted to walk out on the cable and lost his footing and fell into the abyss below.

THE A. O. U. W.

Philadelphia, June 26.—Members of Division No. 7, Ancient Order of Hibernians, yesterday attended the funeral of Jeremiah Twohig at St. Mary's Catholic church, this city. Twohig was a liquor dealer, a member in good standing in St. Mary's church and was also connected with Division No. 7. Father McDermott sent notice of his objections to the widow of the deceased to allowing members of the order to attend. However, a goodly representation from Division No. 7 was in front of the church when Father McDermott entered to solemnize mass for the dead, and he sent word to the undertaker to request the men to leave. But the Hibernians remained in their seats. Father McDermott, having removed his vestments, advanced without the chancel rail and stated that members of the society must withdraw, and that mass for the dead would not be said until this was done. The Hibernians then left the church. "I did not intend to be drawn into a tacit recognition, much less approval of the order," said Father McDermott this evening. "My acquaintance with them is very thorough. I was spiritual adviser, while stationed in Pottsville in 1875 and 1876, to sixteen of their number who were sentenced to be hanged for murder. I have papers in my possession which, should I give them to the press, would take the roof off the order. I have written confessions from many members of the order who saw death on the gallows staring them in the face. They are all alike in purpose whether they call themselves Hibernians, McIre Maguire, Whiteboys, Buckshots, or what not."

MATTERS ASSUMING A SERIOUS ASPECT IN NEW MEXICO.

Raton, N. M., June 26.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—There is trouble among the settlers on the Maxwell land grant in the northern part of the territory and the bitter feeling toward its claimants is growing stronger daily. Threats are heard on every hand and several rows have occurred. The following is a copy of the call which has been issued for a meeting at this place August 1. It needs no comment:
Shoulder arms, forward march. Settlers, the so-called Maxwell grant is public domain. It was thrown open to settlement and entry as public land in 1874 by the final authoritative judgment of the secretary of the interior. This final judgment, settlers, has never been reversed. For several years it has been treated with contempt by speculators and corrupt officials, but it has never been reversed. Commissioner Williamson, after the secretary had pronounced the judgment of the land department final could not reverse that judgment. The supreme court did not dare to say in its printed decisions, although the matter was brought to its attention, that Commissioner Williamson could arbitrarily reverse the final decision of the secretary of the interior. The nine supreme court corruptionists dodged that point in the interest of the public land thieves. In pretending to arbitrarily reverse the final and vested judgment of the secretary of the interior, Commissioner Williamson committed an infamous crime in the interest of these high-toned public land thieves.

[Signed] S. B. ECKING, T. B. CATRON.

Settlers, you are now asked to submit to this outrageous crime. Don't you do it. Only contemptible cowards would tamely submit to be knocked off from public land by an official gang of public land thieves. Settlers, you are not cowards. You obeyed our summons once; obey it again. Come to Raton in force by the first day of next August and if we cannot in mass meeting assembled without a rumpus get the attention of the nation to the crime committed by Williamson in arbitrarily surveying public land in Maxwell grant, then by all means, let us have a rumpus.

[Signed] COMMITTEE OF THE SETTLERS.

THE EAGLE WILL PROTECT HAWAII.

New York, June 28.—[Special to the Bee.]—The Washington correspondent of the Herald says that it is understood that when the troubles in Hawaii involve foreign interests, our government will insist that only American authority shall be recognized in the Hawaiian country. In what form this will be established has not been considered, but no foreign government will be permitted under plea of setting up a protectorate to establish itself in that country.

ALLISON AS A CANDIDATE.

Chicago, June 28.—[Special to the Bee.]—United States Senator W. B. Allison, of Iowa, has been in the city for several days, and the report is that he is looking after his fences in Illinois, with a view of the presidential nomination. While the senator was at home to every politician who called, he was invariably engaged when a reporter desired an audience, and evaded an interview with the ease and courtesy which distinguishes the astute politician. Congressman D. B. Henderson of Iowa, however, who accompanied the senator, was more easy of access, and did the talking for both. Henderson said there was no doubt about Senator Allison being a candidate for the presidential nomination, and he would be unanimously supported by the state of Iowa. He believed Allison was a strong man before the people and he thought his chances as good as any man thus far mentioned on either side of the house. He did not want to pose as a prophet, but he would not be at all surprised if the senator was selected as the standard bearer in 1888.

CONDENSATIONS.

THURSDAY.

It is rumored that King Milan of Servia will abdicate.

During the big Wall street flury the stock board was full of wild rumors. Among others it was said Ives, who has figured so prominently of late in large deals, had failed, another rumor said he had absconded, both reports were denied.

There was a heavy break in Wall street in stocks and bonds yesterday. Stocks and securities fell from 5 to 20 per cent, but rallied before the close of the day. The break in prices began on a rumor that the great capitalists; Gould, Sage and Field had fallen out, which rumor was followed by one of Gould's death. Both reports proved untrue. No failures were reported and it is said that this fact is due to Messrs. Gould, Vanderbilt and Field who are credited with relieving weak parties of their holdings.

SUNDAY.
