How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy liver. When the liver is torpid the bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.
As a general family remedy for Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I have never use anything else and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the stomach and liver.

THE LATEST NEWS.

SEVENTY-ONE ROUNDS FIGHT.
Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 5.—One of the most brutal prize fights that ever occurred in this county took place yesterday near Naticoke. The contestants were Thomas Hoar, of this city, and Peter Hurley, of Naticoke. The fight was to a finish. When time was called for the seventy-second round Hoar claimed he could not see, said he "had enough" and the fight was awarded to Hurley.

GREAT RACING AT WAHOO.
Wahoo, Neb., July 5.—The following is the result of to-day's races, the second day of the finest races in the history of the county:
2:43 trot, purse $100: Frank P won first money, Betsy Baker second, Lumber Boy third. Time—2:86, 2:40, 2:42.
In the county trot, purse $125: Letta took first money, Wahoo Maid second. Broncho Dan third. Time—2:54, 2:57, 3:00.

In the three-fourths mile dash running race, purse $100: Rosalind took first money, Joe Howard second, Bay Dick third. Time—1:30.

The attendance was fully as good as yesterday, and to-morrow promises to be the best of the three days' races.

MURDER IN THE ARMY.
San Francisco, July 5.—Private Thomas N. Bateman, troop A, Second United States Cavalry, shot and killed First Sergeant Samuel M. Sopher, of the same troop, at Presidio barracks this morning. Both men paraded in this city with their troops yesterday. The sergeant reprimanded Bateman, whom he found intoxicated in a liquor store at night. When the sergeant went into the soldiers' barracks to awaken some delinquents who failed to report for reveille roll call, Bateman stood behind him and deliberately shot him in the head. Sopher fell and Bateman coolly reloaded the carbine and shot the sergeant a second time.

UTAH'S CONVENTION AGAINST POLYGAMY.
Salt Lake, July 5.—In the Utah constitutional convention to-day the committee reported a new section stating that bigamy and polygamy being considered incompatible with a republican form of government, each of them is hereby forbidden and declared a misdemeanor; the punishment for violation a fine not exceeding $1,000, and imprisonment not less than six months and not more than three years. The section shall be construed as operative without legislation and the offenses prohibited not to be barred by any statute of limitation; nor shall the power of pardon extend thereto until such pardon be approved by the president of the United States. Any amendment, provision or change to the foregoing section shall not become a law until ratified by congress and the president of the United States. These sections have been agreed to in committee and caucus, and it is thought will undoubtedly be passed by the convention. The Mormon leaders think they will prove the settlement of the vexatious Mormon problem.

A LIQUOR MAN ARRESTED FOR BURNING UP A TOWN.

Erie, Pa., July 5.—About 9:30 last night two fires broke out almost simultaneously in the hotel and a saw mill at Clarendon, seven miles east of Warren, and a brisk wind swept the flames over the frame buildings of the village like a whirlwind. Aid was procured from Warren as soon as possible, but it was too late to stay the progress of the fire, and about all that was saved of the town was the railroad depot. The area burned over is about twenty acres and the value of the buildings is estimated at $350,000, exclusive of contents. The insurance is insignificant. Eleven hundred people are homeless to-night and camping in the woods. Lumber in large quantities is being shipped in and preparations are being made as rapidly as possible to provide shelter for the unfortunate inhabitants who have lost their all. It is believed that the fire was of incendiary origin and the trouble is alleged to have grown out of the refusal of the county authorities to give liquor licenses. The proprietor of the hotel where the fire was first discovered is charged with having uttered threats to burn the town and this morning fled to the woods. He was soon captured, however, and placed in jail. Threats of lynching are freely made.

DAMAGE BY HAIL.

Oakland, July 5.—A severe hail storm occurred here this afternoon, the largest hail measuring six and a half inches.

But little damage was done in town. A few window panes were broken. The skylight on the photograph building was demolished. All garden truck was greatly damaged as was small grain, early corn and also the apple crop.

CLEVELAND A CANDIDATE.
Washington, July 5.—Cleveland is throwing off all disguise as to his candidacy for renomination. He does not talk generally upon the subject, but he is making his plans openly, and they indicate that he is actively in the field for a renomination. He no longer has any fears that the New York delegation will be divided. He has definitely agreed to go south in October, and told Senator Colquitt, of Georgia, to-day, that he thought he would start for Georgia about October 15th. Frequent visits of Colquitt to the White House give color to reports that are credited by persons very near the President, that Lamar is to become justice of the Supreme Court, and that Colquitt is to succeed him as Secretary of the Interior.

THE DAY AT CRETE.

Crete, Neb., July 5.—To-day at the Chautauqua assembly has been a working one, the full programme being carried out as though the day before had not been enthusiastic enough to weary any one. The work has progressed excellently and the class badges flitter on every hand that the enthusiastic workers were. In the afternoon the first lecture by Colonel Homer B. Sprague, of California, was given at the pavillion, his subject being "Shakespeare's Youth." The Twenty-first infantry band gave an early evening concert on the grounds that was greatly enjoyed. P. S. Henson, D. D., of Chicago, arrived on the grounds yesterday and will remain through the rest of the assembly. In the evening he lectured to a very large audience on the topic "Gunnery," and Thursday evening he will again lecture upon "Our Governors, or the People who Boss Us."

Wednesday is lawyers' day and Hon. J. M. Woodworth, of Omaha, lectures to them at 2 p. m.
Thursday is editors' day on the grounds, and Judge C. C. Goodwin, editor of the Salt Lake Tribune, will arrive Wednesday, and at 3:30 Thursday will address the editors of the state and the assembly upon the topic, "Journalists and Journalism." There are a great many newspaper men in the state who enjoy a personal acquaintance with this eminent journalist, and the state press association desires a large representation of newspaper men, whether members of the association or not, that Mr. Goodwin may be royally received. In the evening the members of the association will hold a business and social meeting at the new press association building, and the Twenty-first infantry band will tender Judge Goodwin a serenade at the same place.

A PANIC ON A STREET RAILWAY RESULTS FATAALLY.

Fitchburg, Mass., July 5.—A terrible accident occurred yesterday afternoon on the Fitchburg horse railroad in which one woman was killed and two passengers received injuries which will probably prove fatal, while several others were badly hurt. The car left Fitchburg soon after noon for the fair grounds and had ninety people on board on their way to see a ball game. Many persons were hanging to the front and rear platforms and sides of the car. When a short distance out of the city the horses became frightened and the driver lost control of the animals. They ran along at a rapid pace and some one shouted from the rear platform: "Jump for your life." In an instant the passengers who were crowded together and could not see the horses over the driver, became panic stricken. They rose from their seats, forcing those who were standing in the aisles between the seats and the platforms. These were already full and the sudden rush pushed off several of them. A few jumped from the car and escaped unhurt. The casualty list is as follows: Marion O'Brien was pushed from a platform and fell head foremost upon the rocks alongside the track. Her neck was broken and her skull fractured. Mary O'Hara, who was sitting near the side of the car, was forced out of her seat and fell from the car, striking on her head. She remained unconscious for some hours. Mr. Cahill leaped off and fell to the ground, breaking his leg at the thigh. Bridget Dunne was pushed from the platform and dragged along, scraping her face, injuring one eye and badly bruising her body. Allen McCarthy leaped and fell, breaking his collar bone and both ankles. Robert Mathland was forced over the dashboard of the rear platform and was cut and bruised and sustained probably fatal injuries. Thos. Conroy fell off the car and was thrown into an alley. Several were more or less injured, but were able to go home without assistance.

CELEBRATED IN A FOREIGN LAND.

Prague, July 5.—Two hundred American Czechs on their way to their native land celebrated the 4th of July by a banquet in this city. Consul Jones proposed the welfare of America. Likka offered a toast to president Cleveland, and Drobnick, of Milwaukee, toaster the Emperor of Austria. The company telegraphed greetings to Cleveland and the emperor.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION IN FRANCE.

Paris, July 5th.—A bomb which had been secretly placed outside the premises of a property owner at Mont Martre exploded today, doing considerable damage. All the windows in the vicinity were smashed, and a great hole made in the wall surrounding the property. An Italian tenant was sentenced to four months' imprisonment lately for assaulting landlords, and suspicion rests upon the man's comrades. Three members of the anarchist anti-landlord league have been arrested.

THE GOVERNMENT DEFEATED.

London, July 5.—In the commons to-night Campbell Bannerman, formerly chief secretary for Ireland, gave notice that he would introduce on the second reading of the Irish land bill a motion that no land measure be satisfactory which lacked such revision of judicial rents as would meet the results of the fall in prices. An animated discussion took place over the conduct of the police in arresting a young woman named Cass, who is of pure repute, as an improper character. The debate resulted in the defeat of the government by a vote of 153 to 148. The criticisms of the members were directed less against the peace authorities than against Matthews, home secretary, who was accused of shielding the officials. A number of liberal unionists voted with the majority. It is expected that the defeat of the government will lead to the resignation of Matthews.

IT CAUSED A SENSATION.

London, July 5.—Great has been the jubilation in the common lobby and liberal clubs over the distinct defeat of the government. It comes strongly after the recent defeat at the polls. Oddly enough, the new Gladstone members' first vote was against the cabinet. Home Secretary Matthews must resign. His defeat is not only severe, per se, but it distinctly impeaches his candor and his want of manliness, necessarily also that of the government which stood by his blunder with obduracy, even the attorney general backing up the home secretary. Lord Randolph Churchill, his political godfather, had the good sense to keep out of the division. The morning papers are unanimously savage on him. The Telegraph, hitherto friendly to the government, using such strong language as that "the vote was a deserved rebuke to Matthews," and characterized what the attorney general urged as a general special pleading. The liberal unionists deserted the government. The cheer which went up from the home rule benches on the result was said, by the Irish members, to be the overture to the coming opera of Irish success.

Governor Gordon's Message.

Atlanta, July 5.—There are several features of the message which Governor Gordon will send to the legislature on Wednesday likely to attract national attention, and none more so than the attitude which he proposes to take in regard to the Atlanta university. This institution is for colored students, but is taught by white professors who mix in their own children with the negroes. Governor Gordon's idea is to give state aid of $8,000 per annum to a purely negro university taught by negro professors, thus cutting off the offending whites. The governor renews his plea that convict leases be abolished and that convicts be worked on public works. He declares the agitation for the payment of repudiated bonds to be mischievous in that the barriers in the way of payment are insurmountable. He will call attention to the barbarous condition of prisons throughout the state, and urge more humane treatment of prisoners. Upon the question of prohibition which now supplants democracy, he will be strangely silent. There is a strong effort being made today to get him to insert a recommendation for more extended annuities to ex-confederate soldiers under the guise of artificial limits, the idea being to give commutation for such articles to the soldiers direct.

THE EMPEROR AT EMS.

Ems, July 5.—I stood within a few feet of the emperor as he stepped from the sleeping car of his special train this morning. He looked weak from past illness and exhausted by the journey, but still had strength enough to respond repeatedly to the cheering. He stood several minutes bowing to the crowd which waited patiently below Kurhaus' window at the depot. The crowd willingly dropped back out of sight of the platform at an officer's suggestion that it wounded the emperor's pride to have his subjects see he had been helped out of the railway car. As the kaiser stepped on the crimson footcloth a brilliant officer advanced and almost knelt as he kissed his hand. Within the station the emperor received a few intimates. They went out to the carriage to drive under the shadow of hundreds of flags to Kurhaus. Most of the distance tall poles covered with evergreens were erected every few feet on both sides of the street. Between the poles youngsters six to ten years old from the Ems school were stationed each with a bouquet to throw at the emperor as he passed. All the way including even the bridge over the Lohr was lined with a dense crowd. Finally the tired emperor came to the window. Four times he acknowledged the greeting of the people outside. The people of Ems who had not seen the emperor since his recent illness were a good deal shocked at his appearance but have entire faith that he only needs Ems to ensure absolute recovery. I am told the kaiser decided, contrary to the advice of his physicians, to leave Ems on the 11th for Coblenetz, Baden-Baden, Constance and Gastein, stopping one or more days at each intermediate point. His general health will decide this matter.—New York Herald.
