THE LATEST NEWS.

CHARGED WITH ADULTERY.

Columbus, Neb., Aug. 16.—The case of Dr. Hamilton Mead of Platte Centre, on trial during the past two days before Judge Spiel, charged with adultery, terminated to-day by his being bound over to the district court in $300 bonds.

MEXICAN JUSTICE.

Eagle Pass, Tex., Aug. 16.—Six of the murderers of James Duval, an American citizen at Santa Rosa, Mexico, have been sentenced to ten years' imprisonment each. A seventh man, who spoke disrespectfully of the dead man while in court, was sentenced to the same term, although not connected in the murder.

THE CHATSWORTH DISASTER THE RESULT OF DISOBEDIENCE.

Chatsworth, Ill., Aug. 16.—Disobedience and obtuseness were the primary causes of the slaughter at Davis' crossing on Thursday morning. Had Section Foreman Coughlin obeyed the spirit of the letter of instructions hereof from his superior officer and had some of the men, one of them in particular, who saw the lights on the railroad track for an hour on Wednesday nights, exerted themselves to the extent of a two mile ride on a hand car, the catastrophe would never have occurred. These were the primary facts developed by the coroner's jury which for seven long hours to-day examined witness after witness in its endeavors to secure some light regarding the causes which led to the disaster. The inquiry took place in the public school building, and here the farmer jury developed facts and elicited details in a style which would have been creditable to a jury composed of experienced members of the bar. A large number of witnesses testified that several residents of Piper City saw a light burning on the track toward Chatsworth on the night of the disaster, but made no efforts to investigate the cause. Some of them thought it was the headlight of a locomotive. Joseph Morris, a farmer living half a mile south of the culvert, swore that he saw two or three of the section men firing the grass in close proximity to the bridge just before dark on Wednesday afternoon. After dark he saw a blaze in that direction big enough to make him think that a building was on fire. This testimony was corroborated by other farmers, and is contradictory to the testimony of Coughlin, which was to the effect that no fire had been lighted near the bridge. After the witnesses had been dismissed the jury held a secret consultation and it was decided to bring the inquiry to a close tomorrow. It is likely a verdict will be reached by noon.
