KNOTTS BROS., Publishers & Proprietors.

CITY BRIEFS.

The "Secret of Success."

(WRITTEN FOR THE HERALD BY OUR "SPECIAL.")

If in business I should go, And the times were hard and slow, I'd take a plan almighty wise, And in the HERALD advertise.

—The Detroit Free Press and HERALD four months for 40 cents.

—J. V. Weckbach returned Sunday morning from his trip to St. Louis.

—The best Kalsomine at Warrick's only 8c. a lb. d6t-w4t

—Bob Ballance is erecting a nice residence on the corner of 6th and Marble streets.

—Mr. J. C. Fisher arrived in the city last Saturday and will spend a week with friends.

—40 cents will pay for the WEEKLY HERALD and Detroit Free Press for four months.

—Warrick's is the place to buy School Books and School supplies. Largest stock and lowest prices. 25-6t —Mrs. May Kennedy and daughter Nellie returned from Omaha Saturday evening, where they had been on a ten days' visit.

TUESDAY

—Charles L. Coates, of Dodge City, Kansas, is stopping in the city looking for a location.

—Smith & Black have decorated their walls back of the bottles with beautiful paper.

—Miss Lou Richey left for Council Bluffs this morning to visit with her friend, Miss Nellie Smith.

—A little boy put in an appearance at the home of Sam. Waugh's Sunday night and took up his abode to stay.

—Daye Campbell is making some very noticeable improvements on his property on the corner of 5th and Locust streets.

—Preaching still continues every night at the Christian Church by Rev. J. Carol Stork, who was at one time a school and room-mate of President Garfield.

—A Greengood man advertises for a lady correspondent who is neither an old maid or a dress-maker! He can run his ad till dooms day and then never get an answer.

—Dr. E. L. Siggins has sold his drug store, he will be found in the Sherwood block hereafter where he has opened up an office, he will give his time entirely to his practice.

—Last Saturday the fire hydrant in front of the Geese hotel broke and a new one was placed yesterday.

—Warrick has a very large stock of school books, slates, pencils etc., and will make it to your interest to compare his prices with others before you buy. d6t-w4t.

—We are under obligations to W. E. Dorrington, secretary of the Nemaha Valley District Fair association for a complimentary ticket to the fair at Falls City, opening Sept. 26 and closing Sept. 30.

—A birthday surprise was given Miss Mamie McCrosby on last Saturday evening, it being her 16th birthday. There were about twenty of her friends, and when they went away they left a few very nice presents in token of their esteem.

—Mr. Cushing, an engineer on the B. & M., while crossing the bridge late Saturday night last with a freight train, was struck over his left eye with a piece of iron thrown from the outside, inflicting an ugly gash. It is thought the piece was thrown by some person who was standing on the bridge as it came with considerable force.

—W. J. Hesser returned from the Omaha fair Saturday evening. He raked in his usual number of first premiums, on plants, ducks, loghorn chickens, fruits, etc. He was accompanied by a friend Mr. Younger, of Geneva, Fillmore county who was also an exhibitor at Omaha. Fillmore county's fruit took first prizes and Mr. Younger's share amounted to about $100. They left yesterday morning for Lincoln where they will again be competitors.

—The river is still high and the dividing line is plainly visible, the waters of the Missouri being yellow while those of the Platte are dark.

—If every republican or one half of them in Plattsmouth, would take the DAILY HERALD for themselves, and the WEEKLY HERALD to send back to the east, they would aid the party at home, and advertise the town abroad; and thus bring more capital and more republicans to Plattsmouth, Cass county and the state.

—Last Saturday evening Marshall Malick and officer Fitzpatrick attempted to arrest three drunks by Blake's saloon. The men resisted and in the scuffle that ensued Mr. Malick was thrown against the plate glass window of the adjoining shoe store with such violence that he crashed through it. A frightful gash was cut in the left arm, the bone being laid bare for the distance of an inch or two. Mr. Malick says the pain was terrible for an hour or so but the wound was properly cared for and Mr. Malick is able to be about, but his arm is very sore. The men were finally lodged in jail.

Preparing to Bore.

The board of directors of the Platts-mouth Gas Prospecting Company met at the office of W. Wise under the Bank of Cass Co., in company with a Mr. Patterson, of Indiana, who is connected with a contracting and boring company. The result of the meeting was the appointment of a committee consisting of A. B. Todd, J. W. Johnson and Mr. Whisler to confer with Mr. Patterson to-day and get his price for boring at this place. The board will meet at the same place again this evening and the outcome of the meeting is awaited with interest, and it is hoped an agreement will be made with Mr. Patterson, such that work will begin at once.

The indications for a gas or mineral or oil find are certainly as good as those of some points in Iowa where rich flows of gas and beds of coal have been found, and the striking of any such material would be an invaluable boon to our city, and the project should have the encouragement of every citizen.

Reunion Notes.

McConillie Post took the prize banner for having the largest number of men in line. The Nebraska Soldiers association elected R. R. Livingston president, H. C. McMaken secretary and J. W. Johnson treasurer.

They also appointed a committee to make all the necessary arrangements as to the time, and place, for a reunion of the Nebraska soldiers.

The committee is as follows: John M. Thayer, Lincoln; R. R. Livingston, Plattsmouth; Jos. E. Hill, Clarinda, Iowa; James Callihan, Lyons; Fred Behm, Omaha; James I. Shaw, Adams; John G. Hess, North Platte; John M. Brockman, Humboldt; John L. Goss, Bellevue.

There was 139 men enrolled; this is more than double the number that has ever come out before.

In the case of State of Nebraska vs. Edward Cooley, the defendant was charged with assault with intent to kill. He made a plea of guilty of assault and battery, which was accepted. He was fined $10 and costs, which were paid.

State of Nebraska vs. Jackson Piersoll. Plead not guilty, J. B. Strode was assigned as his counsel.

Too Good to Compete.

Our Neville horse team left for Red Oak Monday evening to participate in the horse team races which took place there yesterday.

The boys took their suits and running harness and went prepared to do credit to themselves and Plattsmouth, but when they appeared on the grounds in their running shoes, suits, badges and harness, the very sight of them scared their opponents out and they were ruled from the game as being "professionals," which, though being a mistake, speaks well for our fire company.

After the Red Oak and the Iowa boys had run and made the astonishing speed of 200 yards in 31 seconds, without laying hose, the Neville team gave an exhibition of their good qualities and made the run in 26 seconds.

Though the boys were not permitted to take part in the race proper, they were hospitably entertained and all their expenses were paid by their entertainers.

Our "professional" team which done all its practice after working hours in the evening is made up of the following citizens: Foreman, Charley Miller, telegraph operator; Stephen Buzzell, telephone manager; Fred Murphy, grocery clerk; Tom Patterson, bank clerk; Ed Johnson, book-keeper; Charley Swartz, telegraph operator; Charley Grassman, machinist; Will Chambers, fireman; Seymour, bartender; Doc Wheeler, carriage maker; Bill Eldrick, carriage maker; L. E. Skinner, real estate and insurance agent.

WE expected the DAILY HERALD to succeed, but we were hardly prepared for so hearty a reception as we have received. Our subscription list increases every hour in the day; workmen and business men, professional men, farmers and tradesmen, all give us words of cheer, and many of them leave us their names and the money for the HERALD. But we are happy to announce, that we have room not only for "one more" but as many as will come; so come on with your names and bring in the name of your neighbor. The more encouragement and help we receive, the better our paper will be, the more good it will accomplish and the happier we will be.
