—The electric belt man has been giving Plattsmouth a raid during the past few days.

—We have a large quantity of brick for sale, quality guaranteed. Give us a call. 22-1f KURTZ & WECKBACH.

—Will J. Warrick's father, G. M. Warrick, arrived in the city a few days ago. He will remain some time visiting with Will.

—Warrick has a very large stock of school books, slates, pencils etc., and will make it to your interest to compare his prices with others before you buy.

—J. Schlater, jeweler, opposite the Opera House, has just received a large supply of ladies' and gent's gold and silver watches which he offers at bottom prices. Give him a call. 26 w 4t d 6

—Mrs. Randolph, the famous fortune teller, will remain in the city till Oct. Those who wish to have their fortune told must call this month. Residence on Elm street between Tenth and Elventh. No fortunes told on Sundays. 26-4.

—W. H. Pool, of Wabash, was in the city to-day taking in the fair. He called at the HERALD office and left a "ten" for subscription. Mr. Pool intends to leave this evening for Eight Mile Grove to visit relatives.

—The B. & M. have made a change in their sections, making Plattsmouth a section by itself and have put 12 men on, and are putting the yards in first class shape. The double track from here to Orecapolis is in another section with 8 men.

—A petition to Judge Chapman to adjourn court two days on account of the fair was not granted, as the docket is very large and court will extend into next week and a large number of jurymen live in the west end of the county and need to get home.

—There was a large number in attendance at the fair today, especially children. The schools were closed and it seemed as though everybody went. The effects of the fair could even be seen in the court room. Tomorrow's program will be equally as interesting as today's.

—Monday afternoon Charley Jean was loading hay, and after he had got through he stuck the fork into the ground intending to jump off of the hay rack, but he fell and in falling struck the fork handle with his side. It was thought first that a couple of the ribs were broken, but after a thorough examination it was decided that they were not injured, though the jar used him up enough to confine him to his room.

DIED.—Little Nellie Benscoten, aged two years and six months, died last Thursday night of typhoid malarial fever, at the home of her parents in the northwest part of the city, and was buried Friday afternoon. Nellie had been sick just one month; her parents had worked patiently with her hoping she might recover, but death finally took their little one from them. In their bereavement and sorrow they have the sympathy of their friends and community.

—Friday night, Zeil Connors, a Lincoln special policeman, attempted to arrest two burglars and during the struggle one of them struck the policeman with a knife, but the blade only penetrated a large bundle of papers the man had in his pocket. The officer shot the burglar; who struck him through the left hand. While examining the wounded man Mr. Connors was knocked down by the other burglar and the two escaped. For his fight the mayor appointed Mr. Connors on the regular force.

—Last week Mrs. A. N. Sullivan put some sweet potatoes in the oven of her gasoline stove to keep them warm while she was getting supper. She was called from the room for a little bit, and when she returned and opened the door to the oven, the flames shot out some three or four feet across the room. She tried to shut off the gasoline, but was unable to control it, so she had to leave the room and let it burn, which it did, doing no damage except smoking up the room and giving the family a pretty bad fright for a little while. The sweet potatoes were not hurt. The real cause of the action of the stove is not known, but Mrs. Sullivan thinks that the oil in some way leaked from the burner into the oven and partially evaporated, and opening the door gave communication from the gas to the fire, and of course the result was a combustion.

Another Infant in Court.

A daughter of Hiram Pierce was walking down Main street a few days ago in company with a lady friend and her two-year-old son, when she met her divorced husband, George Ashburn, who was permitted to see and take the child. Mr. Ashburn refused to return the child to his mother, and took him to a friend's named Johnson, who lives on the corner of Vine and 7th. Mrs. Ashburn, not being able to obtain her child by herself, sought her father, who had Marshall Mallick arrest Mr. Ashburn, who staid with Mallick until the child was found, but was not confined to jail. The case was heard before Judge Russell who continued the case for 30 days, and gave the child into the custody of its mother for that time.

A Pleasant Evening.

Last week a number of our society-loving folks, procured carriages and wended their way to the rural home of Miss Alice Jean, about two miles south of town. The evening was spent in social enjoyment and music, and about ten o'clock supper was served, after which the company returned to their homes.

The following were those from the city: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Eikenbary, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Judge C. Russell, Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Davis, Mr. Mutz and daughter, Misses May and Annie Russell, Miss May Sullivan, Charley Coleman and our representative.

For Sale.

A farm on Weeping Water bottom, the S. W. 1/4 of Sec. 28 Tp. 10, Range 14. Enquire of James Walston of Rock Bluffs for farther particulars. Sept. 1-6mo.

Court Notes.

Monday afternoon Henry Shroeder was found guilty of horse stealing.

Yesterday morning the case of W. I. Foreman was called and tried and on the first ballot of the jury, was found guilty of shooting with intent to kill. Last June he shot Ed. Lewis, near Weeping Water.

In the afternoon yesterday, the case against Davis and Wilson, charged with the burglary of Will Warrick's house was called. The evidence was finished this morning. The jury was out as we go to press.

John Burnes this morning plead guilty to petit larceny. The court instructed the prosecution the plea was acceptable as Burnes could not be found guilty of burglary since Kennedy had been acquitted, and the plea was accepted.

Judge Chapman sentenced criminals as follows: Henry Shroeder, 10 years; W. I. Foreman, 3 years; Tom Cavanaugh, John H. Brady and Henry Smith, 2 years.

—Warrick is giving away rulers, sponges, cards etc., with every sale of school books. d6tw4t.

Married.

MILLER-BENNETT—This afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Mr. Will H. Miller and Miss Grace L. Bennett were united in the bonds of matrimony, at the residence of the bride's parents, Rev. H. B. Burgess officiating. These parties are well known in Plattsmouth society circles and have the good wishes of their many friends. No invitations were issued and only a few intimate friends and relatives were present at the ceremony.

—Warrick guarantees his Mixed Paint to do more work, look better and last longer than Lead and Oil, try it. d6tw4t

A Correction.

In last evening's issue of the HERALD we said the men, Murphy and Brown, in police court yesterday morning plead guilty to resisting an officer. This was not the case, however. The charge made was "disturbing the peace by fighting," and to this charge they plead guilty, and for this their sentence—ten days in jail—the last five on bread water, and to pay the costs which were $7.80—was a pretty strong one. Those of our readers who were led to believe from our account of the trouble, that the men did not receive their just dues, will please take note that the charge was only one of disturbing the peace, and the officers making the charge showed their confidence in their ability to take care of themselves by not entering a charge of resisting an officer with deadly weapons, which would probably have sent the men on their way to the penitentiary.

—Liquid Blackboard Slating at Warrick's. d6tw4t

Omaha Methodist Ministers Meet.
The Omaha Methodist preachers' meeting was opened for the first time this year yesterday morning at the First Methodist church. Rev. Dr. J. B. Maxwell presided, and an organization was formed with the following officers: Rev. J. W. Phelps, president; Rev. T. M. House, vice president; Rev. Alfred H. Henry, secretary; Rev. George M. Brown, treasurer.

—Sealing Wax at Warrick's Drug Store. d6tw4t

Children's Day.

To day was children's day at the fair and our schools were all closed to give the children a chance to attend, and they were there in their holiday attire, making everything look cheerful.

There is a large number of horses, cattle and produce on exhibition. There are 555 entries made, and are in the following classes:

Class 1, horses and mules, 41; class 2, cattle, 9; class 3, swine, 16; class 4, sweepstakes, 4; class 5, poultry, 17; class 7, bees, 9; class 8, art, 4; class 9, needle-work, 87; class 10, canned goods and bread, 34; class 11, drawing 15; class 12, fruit, 179; class 13, flowers, 1; class 14, farm products, 56; class 15, miscellaneous 25; class 16, serial, 65.

In the fruit department, there is the largest display of apples ever made in Cass county.

The poultry is very fine; it is said by those who know, that it is the finest show ever held at our fair.

The art hall is well filled with paintings, quilts, needle work and every thing nice that the fair sex can make.

The races for the day are as follows: The pony running race tied.

The three-minute trot was not finished as we went to press. We will give the score tomorrow. The ground seemed to favor Brown Tom 1st, Almo 2d and Frank 3d.

—Warrick asks you to compare his prices and stock of school books with others. Second hand school books at very low prices. d6tw4t.

Another Iowa Gas Well.

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 20.—Natural gas in considerable quantities has been discovered on the 400 acre farm of Mr. Marquis, three miles north of Des Moines. A well was sunk for water and a hole bored down about 100 feet, when the gas was found. Tests made to-day showed that it was a strong flow, and burned freely in gas jets or shot up in the air from tubes.

This is one more paragraph of encouragement to the gas well project in Plattsmouth. If Iowa can have gas, why can't Nebraska?

—Wall Paper—New stock just received at Warrick's. d6tw4t

—About twenty-five of the Louisville school children in company with their principal came down and took in the fair to-day.

Itch, Prairie Mange, and Scratches of every kind cured in 30 minutes, by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. Use no other. This never fails. Warranted by F. G. Fricke & Co., druggists, Plattsmouth, Nebraska. 34-1yr

—A fine mare belonging to M. Gillispie was taken sick with the colic in front of Carruth's store this evening just as we got to press. Dr. Mathews was called and gave remedies.

A Bargain.

The N. E. 1/4 and W. 1/4 N. W. 1/4 Sec. 34 T. 11 R. 12. This beautiful farm if purchased soon, can be had for $30 per acre. Every convenience. Apply to R. B. WINDHAM, Plattsmouth, Neb. tf.-22

—The Missouri river is changing its channel, it is now cutting its way through the bank on the east side of the bridge, leaving the middle pier on this side of the main current.

—We have this day reduced. the price of lead (best brand) 50c., per hundred lbs., linsed oil 5c., per gallon, mixed paint 10c., per gallon. On account of our large purchases at reduced rates we are able to make these changes. Allow us to make you prices when in need of any kind of paint.

W. J. WARRICK.

Plattsmouth, Neb. Sept. 12-87. d6tw4t.

—G. W. Young, of Center Valley, was a pleasant caller on THE HERALD this afternoon. He is one of the many who are here from that district attending the fair.

SURSUM CORDA.

Oh, once to soar, a lark—or sail, a cloud,
In the eternal azure overspread!
Could ever the world's voices, vain and loud,
Alure again the soul that once had fed
On the tremendous silence; where the tread
Is heard, by ears with finer sense endowed,
Of angels, who the crystal pathways crowd
In unseen myriads, all on mercies sped?
Could ever the transfigured face again
Lose all its rapture? or the soul forget
To cherish, as a charmed amulet,
The words, too worn with using to retain
Their visual virtue? These same feet have trod
The marble pavement round the throne of God!
—W. B. in The Spectator.

Preparation of the Sardine.

To prepare the sardine in its perfection it should be boiled alive in oil, like an old martyr. If this cannot be done, then it should be cooked as soon after death as possible. It is alleged against some of the patent nets that the fish dies at once in their pockets and its quality is greatly deteriorated. The manner of cooking is simple. As soon as possible after the fish is caught it is dipped in a kettle of boiling olive oil. Care must be taken that the oil is not burned or used too many times over, and that the fish is not kept in it too long. The implement used is made of wire, in two parts, something like a toasting rake, with hinges, the fishes being laid on one side and the other being closed over them, keeping them in place.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Time Flies Swiftly.

An old grandma with a small boy boarded a Gratiot avenue car the other day, and the collector rang the register twice.

"What's that for?" she asked.
"That's 2 o'clock," answered the boy.
In a minute or two another passenger got on, and again the register rang.
"Three o'clock!" exclaimed the old lady as she bobbed around on her seat.
"My stars! but how time does fly in a city."—Detroit Free Press.

Forces that Seldom Sleep.

Recent delicate scientific experiments have discovered the fact that the surface of the land is never absolutely at rest for more than thirty hours at a time. Thus, those great earthquakes which make epochs in history are merely extreme cases of forces that seldom sleep.—Public Opinion.

The khan of Khiva has founded a Russian school in his capital, where Khivan boys of good birth and between the ages of 11 and 14 learn the Russian language at the khan's expense.
