BORN IN A BULLMAN SLEEPER.

An Unusual Event Takes Place on a U. P. Passenger Train.
OMAHA, Oct. 24.—Shortly before 10 o'clock last night the passengers of the Pullman sleeper "Orion," attached to the U. P. overland train, which reached Omaha this morning, were awakened by the groans of some fellow passenger who was evidently in great pain, and investigation showed that they proceeded from lower berth No. 7, the occupant of which was a lady, young and handsome. The ladies who made the discovery found that the fair sufferer was about to become a mother and a porter was sent through the train in search of a physician. Dr. Marston of Leaville, Col., happened to be on board and at once gave the lady his attention. At 2 o'clock another passenger arrived in the shape of a male child. The young mother gave her name as Mrs. J. C. Stillwell, of Bloomington, Ill. Her lady companions rendered every possible assistance and upon opening her trunk found a plentiful supply of fine baby linen. Mrs. Stillwell was removed to a hotel at Columbus and her husband notified of this interesting event by telegraph.

Lauae in Lincoln.

About the middle of September a man named Cornell Lauae, came to Plattsmouth accompanied by a 13-year-old girl named Nellie Kaan, who he passed off as his wife. He induced the girl to come west with him from Paterson, N. J., and fearing arrest here, went to Lincoln. The Paterson authorities traced him there and the following from the See Lincoln correspondence probably is the affair:
Deputy Sheriff Fowler was called up on Sunday night to go to the southern part of the county to get a 13-year-old girl who had run away from her home in N. J. with a man some twenty-five years her senior. An officer from that state had come to take the girl back, and when the couple were found she cried a little, but succumbed to the inevitable and in company with the officers left for the east yesterday, the man being left behind and unmolested. The same runaway couple excited a good deal of attention in Plattsmouth a month ago, leaving that place when N. J. parties found their trail.

Dakota.

Whether admitted as one, or two states, there are many reasons why the people should not longer be deprived of the right to manage their own affairs. These are words of the governor of Dakota in his annual report of the condition of affairs in that territory, and they call attention to one of the most scandalous acts of oppression ever perpetrated on an intelligent and progressive people. Dakota, according to the Governor's report, had a population of 568,477 when that document was prepared.

It will undoubtedly have 600,000 by the time that congress organizes. Yet it is safe to say that that body, as in the past three or four years, will refuse to admit it to the privilege of statehood. At the present hour it has more inhabitants than Maine had in 1880, although that commonwealth was the twenty-fourth in that respect in that year among the states. Fourteen states at that time had each a smaller population than Dakota has today. The combined population of Nevada, Delaware, Oregon and Colorado at the latest national census was taken was more than 100,000 under that of Dakota at the present time. If Dakota's inhabitants were divided up numerically at this moment they would make four states as populous as Delaware was in 1880, and eleven states as populous as Nevada. Both of these commonwealths assist in the election of a president and each has three members of the national legislature. The former privilege is withheld from Dakota, and it is permitted no voice in the making of the country's laws. Dakota's appeals for admission have been treated with contempt by the democratic majority in the popular branch of congress for several years past, and they probably will be during the next two years, simply because the republicans are in a majority in the territory. For outrages scarcely more arbitrary and despotic than this the thirteen colonies rose in rebellion and shook off the British yoke.—St. Louis Globe Dem.

Ranching in South America.

In 1885 there were forty-one million sheep in the United States, seventy-two millions in Australia, and one hundred millions in the Argentine Republic. We have two-thirds of a sheep to every inhabitant; in the Argentine Republic there are twenty-five sheep, to every man, woman, and child. We have forty millions of horned cattle to a population of sixty millions; the Argentine Republic and Uruguay have thirty-eight millions of cattle to a population of four and a half millions. In Uruguay, with a population of five hundred thousand souls, there are eight millions of cattle, twenty millions of sheep, two million horses, or sixty head of stock for each man, woman, and child. Fifteen million dollars has been invested in wire fences in Uruguay alone, and more than twice as much in the Argentine Republic. In either of the countries a cow can be bought for five dollars, a steer fatened for the market for ten or twelve dollars, a pair of oxen for twenty-five dollars, a sheep for fifty or sixty cents, an ordinary working-horse for eight or ten dollars, and a roadster for twenty-five, a mule for fifteen dollars, and a mare for whatever her hide will bring. Mares are never broken to saddle or harness, but are allowed to run wild in the pastures from the time they are foaled till they cease to be of value for breeding, when they are driven to the saladeros, or slaughter-houses, and killed for their hides. A man who would use a mare under the saddle or before a wagon would be considered of unsound mind. There is a superstition against it.—WILLIAM E. CURRIE, in Harper's Magazine for November.

A Rampant Theorist.

Tidbits: Wife—Where laye you been all day?
Husband—In the beer saloon around the corner.
Wife—What were you doing there, I should like to know?
Husband—Talking with other socialists.
Wife—Oh! Well, have you decided how to escape from this blighting poverty?
Husband—Yes; we are going to make farmers pay a fine for every hour they work.

A Menagerie.

Sam A. Hare, of Troy, N. Y., was at the Perkins House last night with a whole menagerie which he had captured in Arizona, and was taking them to N. Y. He had three Gila monsters, one of which was dead. These animals are very much like an alligator or lizard with a head very much like a snake's. Their tongue has three prongs, and their bite is said to be very poisonous. Their hide looks like heads and they are spotted and the peculiarity about them is that no two have been found that are spotted alike. Mr. Hare also had a bull lizard and eleven horned frogs. These animals drew quite a crowd last evening in the Perkins House bar room, and it was quite amusing to see the men and boys scatter when the Gila monsters were put upon the floor.

Trouble in Cuba.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 26.—A Key West special says: Private advices by the latest steamer from Havana announce the death of Berin, second in command of the U. S. revolutionary forces, who led the expedition here August 31 last. Being surrounded some ten days since by 2,000 soldiers they were compelled to cut their way out. Berin was terribly wounded in the abdomen, but with his hands protruding upon the saddle, he rallied his men and charged fearfully upon 800 men. He struck down a Spanish officer, only to be killed later. A running fight then ensued between his band and the soldiers, but no serious casualties were inflicted on either side as far as learned, though many were wounded. The revolutionists retreated and are now hiding in the mountains.

Deafness Can't be Cured

by coal applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucus lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucus surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that we can not cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

POINTERS ABOUT PLATTSMOUTH.

It is the gateway to the great South Platte country. It is situated on the Missouri River at the mouth of the Platte, at a point about half way between Chicago and Denver, only two hours by rail from Lincoln the capital, and forty minutes from Omaha the metropolis of the State.
Population about 9,000 and rapidly increasing.
Has one of the finest systems of Water Works in the State.

One of the finest railroad bridges in the United States spans the Missouri River at the Southern limit of the city.
Over 2,000 miles of railroad conveys its freight traffic into and through our city.
Ten passenger trains leave Plattsmouth daily for north, south, east and west over the C. B. & Q.; K. C., St. Joe & C. B. and the B. M. R. R. in Nebraska.
The cheapness of the land around Plattsmouth and its nearness to Omaha markets together with good railroad facilities, make it not only a pleasant place to reside, but a desirable place for the establishment of manufactures.
To healthy, legitimate manufacturing enterprises, the citizens of Plattsmouth would doubtless make reasonable judgments to secure their location, and correspondence is solicited.
While real estate values are growing firmer each day, yet there is nothing speculative or fictitious about them, and good residence lots can be bought at from $150 to $350; land near the city can be purchased at from $200 to $400 per acre. Within the next twelve months our city expects to welcome the Missouri Pacific and the Omaha and Southern Railways into its corporate limits.
The above facts are given without exaggeration and the prospects for the future prosperity of our city, more than above indicated. Parties seeking investments in Realty are earnestly requested to come and make personal investigation. While here you will be given a free ride to South Park, the most beautiful and desirable residence locality in the city, where lots may be purchased at from $150 to $200, each. This picturesque addition is accessible by either Chicago or Lincoln Avenues or by South 9th Street and may be reached in a ten minutes walk from the business center. South Park is more rapidly building up than any other part of the city. Correspondence solicited.
