REED AS A ROGUE.

He Puts Another Man's Horse up for Security.

About three weeks ago a man named Frank Reed was in town with a number of horses and boarded at Orin Kenneston's. He left there during the night, owing Mr. Kenneston $4 for board. In the morning Mr. Kenneston found he had taken his way toward Nebraska City and followed him, overtaking Reed about fifteen miles south of town, but he refused to settle and abused him (Kenneston) and it is said made threats, and Mr. Kenneston returned without his money.

Last Thursday the same man accompanied by Charley Ott, appeared on our streets and camped out on Chicago avenue, near the oil shed. Mr. Kenneston got an attachment out for the debt and Sheriff Eikenbary took one of the horses a chestnut sorrel, on the attachment, but none of them were much account, the sorrel being the best in the lot of eight or nine head. The horse was quartered at the Bonner stable. Friday evening Chas. Ott went to Council Bluffs, leaving things in charge of Frank Reed. In the night Reed got drunk and went racing up and down Main street, and about 12 o'clock he was arrested by Officers Fitzpatrick and Jack O'Neil, and lodged in jail. In the morning Reed begged Marshal Malick to release him that he might tend to his and his friend's stock and offered the horse he had been riding as security. After considerable teasing Mr. Malick allowed the man to go, but kept the horse, Reed agreeing to appear at Judge Mathews' court at 10 o'clock Saturday. But instead of attending to the stock, hitched his team to his wagon and skipped, leaving Mr. Ott's horses tied near Mr. Ott's wagon, but without food or water. As Mr. Ott did not return Marshal Malick took the four horses left and quartered them at the Bonner stable.

Last night Mr. Ott returned from the Bluffs and was at first going to have telegrams sent out for Reed's arrest, claiming the horse he put up for his appearance as belonging to himself, but as Reed had taken none of Ott's property with him and had given his own horse on the attachment it was not worth while to hunt the man up and arrest him and this morning Ott obtained his horses by paying the boarding expenses and claiming his property.

County Press.

Judge Russell needs no press gang to work up a boom for him, he has been one of the most faithful and efficient officers ever elected to the judgeship of Cass county. When we get a good man for that responsible position let us keep him.

Mynard Spink, the young energetic busy little county superintendent of schools, is quietly attending to his duties, he has the confidence of the people, he is worthy of that confidence, for he has proved his ability during the past two years, to care for the school system of our county in good shape.

From the Leader.

Surveyor Madole has given entire satisfaction in the responsible position he holds, and should be returned to the office by a generous vote.

No objection has ever been heard of Mr. Beck in the discharge of his duties as coroner. He is competent and attentive to the duties of this important office and should be re-elected.

From the Echo.

Vote for George Young for county commission, and you vote for a staunch republican and a good man.

Vote for Bird Critchfield for county clerk, a republican to the core and a thoroughly capable man for the position to which he has been nominated. He deserves the republican vote.

W. H. Pool is growing in the favor of the people of this county, and his election to the office of deed recorder this fall is a sure thing. As a penman he is not easily beaten, and as a gentleman and scholar he is not questioned.

J. C. Eikenbary is making the best record of any sheriff Cass county ever had. It requires experience to successfully perform the duties of that much important office, and Mr. Eikenbary has had the experience and is now thoroughly acquainted with the best methods by which to act in bringing criminals to justice. A change in that office would be a detriment to the people of this county.

The B. of L. F. Ball.

The interest in the ball to be given Thanksgiving eve, Nov. 23rd, by the Stone Ballast Lodge, No. 328, B. of L. F. is growing every day. The hall is engaged and preparations are going quietly on, and five hundred elegant invitations have been issued to friends and the members of the neighboring lodges and an exceptionally large attendance is expected.

We are informed that the ball given by this lodge a year ago was as grand an affair of the kind as ever took place in Plattsmouth, and the boys are making every effort to carry out their desire to make the coming ball greatly surpass the one given by them one year ago, and which is remembered by all. This is their second attempt and they have nothing but success to back them and ambition to lead them. The way is clear and everything connected with the entertainment will be first class. The Bohemian orchestra has been secured. The tickets will be $1 with supper extra.

—South Omaha is to have water supplied by mains connecting her with Omaha.

—Thos. Kilpatrick, of Omaha, left there for Southampton, England, the 1st of Oct. and returned yesterday, making the trip in thirty days.

The river is said to be as low now as it ever gets. In the evenings now, with the moon nearly full and the water smooth, it presents a picturesque appearance.

—One sewer of vitrified 24 inch pipe in the Union stock yards at Omaha, about one and three-fourths miles long, which is just about completed, cost $21,000, while another one only 1,700 ft long will cost $20,000 as it has to be tunneled through the hills.

DIED.—Lizzie S. Peterson died yesterday at the home of her parents, on Washington avenue, of laryngeal diptheria. Deceased was born in Madison county, this state, and was ten years, ten months and twenty days old. The funeral occurred this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence.

—A new time-table on the Omaha and Council Bluffs dummy trains which goes into effect to-day making it so that close connections are made with the K. C. train from here, and parties can go up on this side to the Bluffs in the evening without a tiresome wait of an hour. The dummy now leaves Omaha at 7:15.

Atty-Gen. Leese Gains His First Point Over the Transportation Board.

From Tuesday's Daily.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 31.—The supreme court was the scene to-day of an exceedingly interesting and important event in the contest of the people of the state with the railroads which they seek to regulate, and, to a limited extent, control. It was the day set for the hearing of the mandamus case against the Elkhorn railroad.

The case came up on the motion of the attorney-general to proceed with the hearing. The argument of Gen. Leese was the same substantially as that in the opinion which he filed with the state board of transportation. He held that the board of transportation was simply an instrumentality through which the complainant might seek the enforcement of his rights, and although the case was brought in the name of the state on the relation of the state board of transportation, the original complainant, the Lincoln board of trade, was a party to the suit and he was prosecuting for it.

Gen. Hawley replied to the attorney-general and made a vigorous plea for the continuance of the case. He stated that the relators had, by stipulation with the respondent, agreed to continue the case, and that railroad had proceeded in good faith to act in accordance with the terms of the stipulation. He made an argument to show that the board of transportation was the real party to the application for a mandamus, and that it had the right to continue or discontinue the suit if it saw fit.

This afternoon the demurrer was argued to the court by Gen. Hawley and the Hon. T. M. Marquette on the part of the railroad, and Atty-Gen. Leese, Judge Mason, and the Hon. G. M. Lambertson for the board of transportation and the complainant, the Lincoln board of trade. The impression of those who heard the argument is that the court will not sustain the demurrer, but will decide that the board has power to declare what is a just and reasonable rate.

We make the above offer to everyone who will pay up their back subscription and one year in advance.

Deafness Can't be Cured

by coccal applications, as they can not reach the deafness portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucus lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucus surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that we can not cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.
