

COUNTY LEGISLATION. Proceedings of the Board of County Commissioners. PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., May 1, 1888. Board met pursuant to adjournment, present A. B. Todd, A. B. Diksen, Louis Foltz, commissioners, Bird Critchfield county clerk.

Minutes of April session read and approved and the following claims were audited and allowed: L. C. Mercer, wood to poor house $ 35 00 J. W. Quackenbush, lumber bridge 10 20 Omaha Republican, supplies 2 26 00

Board then adjourned to witness the contest between the road machines, west of Plattsmouth, in afternoon and to meet May 2d. Board met in regular session—full board present, when the following decision was made in regard to the Road Machines:

Upon a thorough test of both machines the board decided that the difference in the merits of, and general results of the two machines were of so small importance, that they deem it inexpedient to express their preference in regard to which make would answer their purpose best, and therefore agreed to purchase two of each firm and pay the same price therefor.

Bill of P. D. Bates building sidewalk 5 85 J. H. Haldeman Defending Wm Miles in court 35 00 The petition for incorporating the village of Elmwood was reconsidered and the boundary line so changed as to run along the south east side of the right of way of the Missouri Pacific Railway, through the ne qr of the nw qr of sec 15, twp 10, range 10, being the land owned by Cyrus Alton, who objected to having his land lying on east side of said railroad taken into said corporation.

The following cost bills and court expenses for the April term of District Court were audited and allowed: State vs Wm Miles, larceny 49 38 State vs H F Bunte, embezzlement 3 08 State vs J W Smith, assault and battery 169 43 State vs Jas Dayley, larceny 42 75 W C Showalter Clerk of district court 1021 60 Jurors for April term 46 85 A B Dickson Co. Commissioner 47 50 A B Todd 45 00 Lewis Foltz 9 00 R B Windham wood for C H 9 00 J E Hall was appointed county physician for the vicinity of weeping water, for one year from May 1, at $50 per annum.

Board adjourned to meet June 12, 1888. A. B. TODD, A. B. DICKSON, Louis FOLTZ, Com'rs. BIRD CRITCHFIELD, County Clerk. —The street crossing on the corner of Main and Third streets is in a very bad condition and not fit for people to cross on. Since the late rains the hole in the corner of the roads is filled with water and is even unfit for vehicles to cross.

Board met pursuant to adjournment, full board present, when the following order was made: WHEREAS, The county commissioners have reason for believing that a large amount of the real estate taxes appearing delinquent on the tax lists for the years 1885 to 1887 inclusive, may have been paid and such payments not credited on said tax lists, owing to the irregularities in conducting the affairs of the county treasurer's office during said years, and

GRAND - DISSOLUTION - SALE!

F. Herrmann & Co

Dry Goods, Notions, Ladies Furnishings

Dissolution Sale.

F. HERRMANN and CO. F. HERRMANN and CO. F. HERRMANN and CO. F. HERRMANN and CO.

There will be a change in our firm on or about June 1st, and in order to reduce our mammoth stock of

Table with 2 columns: SPECIAL PRICES IN SILKS and SPECIAL PRICES IN ELK DRESS GOODS. Lists various items like Black silk, Ladies brand, Black figured Amure, etc. with prices.

DISSOLUTION SALE DISSOLUTION SALE DISSOLUTION SALE DISSOLUTION SALE

F. Herrmann & Co

Our Up Stairs Bargains

Cut prices on muslin underwear. Cut prices on ladies and childrens aprons. Cut prices on childrens white and colored dresses.

DISSOLUTION SALE DISSOLUTION SALE DISSOLUTION SALE

F. Herrmann & Co

Cut Prices in Hosiery and Parasols. Cut Prices in Buttons and Trimmings. Cut Prices in Corsets and Bustles.

Dissolution Sale.

F. Herrmann & Co., 1 door East 1st Nat'l Bank

A TERRIBLE EXPLOSION

Remarkable Accident on the Philadelphia & Reading Railway. A Station of Seventeen Houses Destroyed and Several People Killed. Mr. CARMEL, Pa., May 7.—Between 10 and 11 o'clock last night a terrible accident occurred on the Philadelphia & Reading railroad, between this place and Locust Gap.

A GOOD MEETING.

Weeping Water Republican Convention. The republican county convention was held at Weeping Water on Saturday, May 5th. Nearly all the delegates elected from Plattsmouth were present and good points were made.

From Friday's Daily.

—Mr. Robt. Ballance, who was formerly forman of the round-house at "the shops," leaves tomorrow (Saturday) to take charge of the B. & M. shops at Holyoke.

The house which is being erected by

O. H. Ballou near the poor farm is nearing completion and presents a very handsome appearance. Mr. Ballou is adding all the modern improvements and when finished he will be possessor of one of the finest residences in this part of the state.

In the May number of Woman,

Julia Ward Howe has a thoughtful paper on "How to Extend the Sympathies of Women," in which she shows how true education enlarges the natural limits of feminine character, and urges women to emancipate themselves from intellectual narrowness.

From Saturday's Daily.

—The annual confirmation services of the Episcopal church were held last evening at their church in this city by Bishop Worthington. Ten people were confirmed.

From Saturday's Daily.

—The annual confirmation services of the Episcopal church were held last evening at their church in this city by Bishop Worthington. Ten people were confirmed.

Recommended

above all others, we used it with marvelous results. The sore healed and health and strength rapidly returned." —J. J. Armstrong, Weimar, Texas.

From the reply of Senator Voorhees to Senator Ingalls

reminds us of the Indiana democrat who invited the republicans of his township to meet him in debate, agreeing to discuss with them, the political issues of the day. Several republicans responded and at the opening one of them asserted that the rebellion had been crushed and the war had not been a failure.

From the reply of Senator Voorhees to Senator Ingalls

reminds us of the Indiana democrat who invited the republicans of his township to meet him in debate, agreeing to discuss with them, the political issues of the day. Several republicans responded and at the opening one of them asserted that the rebellion had been crushed and the war had not been a failure.

From the reply of Senator Voorhees to Senator Ingalls

reminds us of the Indiana democrat who invited the republicans of his township to meet him in debate, agreeing to discuss with them, the political issues of the day. Several republicans responded and at the opening one of them asserted that the rebellion had been crushed and the war had not been a failure.

From the reply of Senator Voorhees to Senator Ingalls

reminds us of the Indiana democrat who invited the republicans of his township to meet him in debate, agreeing to discuss with them, the political issues of the day. Several republicans responded and at the opening one of them asserted that the rebellion had been crushed and the war had not been a failure.

From the reply of Senator Voorhees to Senator Ingalls

reminds us of the Indiana democrat who invited the republicans of his township to meet him in debate, agreeing to discuss with them, the political issues of the day. Several republicans responded and at the opening one of them asserted that the rebellion had been crushed and the war had not been a failure.

From the reply of Senator Voorhees to Senator Ingalls

reminds us of the Indiana democrat who invited the republicans of his township to meet him in debate, agreeing to discuss with them, the political issues of the day. Several republicans responded and at the opening one of them asserted that the rebellion had been crushed and the war had not been a failure.

From the reply of Senator Voorhees to Senator Ingalls

reminds us of the Indiana democrat who invited the republicans of his township to meet him in debate, agreeing to discuss with them, the political issues of the day. Several republicans responded and at the opening one of them asserted that the rebellion had been crushed and the war had not been a failure.

From the reply of Senator Voorhees to Senator Ingalls

reminds us of the Indiana democrat who invited the republicans of his township to meet him in debate, agreeing to discuss with them, the political issues of the day. Several republicans responded and at the opening one of them asserted that the rebellion had been crushed and the war had not been a failure.

From the reply of Senator Voorhees to Senator Ingalls

reminds us of the Indiana democrat who invited the republicans of his township to meet him in debate, agreeing to discuss with them, the political issues of the day. Several republicans responded and at the opening one of them asserted that the rebellion had been crushed and the war had not been a failure.

From the reply of Senator Voorhees to Senator Ingalls

reminds us of the Indiana democrat who invited the republicans of his township to meet him in debate, agreeing to discuss with them, the political issues of the day. Several republicans responded and at the opening one of them asserted that the rebellion had been crushed and the war had not been a failure.

From the reply of Senator Voorhees to Senator Ingalls

reminds us of the Indiana democrat who invited the republicans of his township to meet him in debate, agreeing to discuss with them, the political issues of the day. Several republicans responded and at the opening one of them asserted that the rebellion had been crushed and the war had not been a failure.

From the reply of Senator Voorhees to Senator Ingalls

reminds us of the Indiana democrat who invited the republicans of his township to meet him in debate, agreeing to discuss with them, the political issues of the day. Several republicans responded and at the opening one of them asserted that the rebellion had been crushed and the war had not been a failure.