CITY BRIEFS.

From Wednesday's Daily.

—Mt. Pleasant precinct is the second one reported to the county clerk by the assessor. The book was brought in today.

—Fred Hawland had the misfortune to have the end of one of his fingers cut off yesterday while at work in the B. & M. shops.

—The Band of Hope meets Thursday afternoon at four o'clock in the M. E. church. All members are requested to be present.

—The Nebraska State Dental Association convened at Grand Island yesterday. A large attendance was had and a general good time experienced.

—An entertainment will be given in Rockwood hall on Friday night of this week for the benefit of the Presbyterian Sunday school library. The small admission fee of 10 cents will be charged at the door and all are cordially invited to come and help the Sunday school.

—The April term of the district court of this county, adjourned yesterday. It has been a long term and an immense amount of business was transacted during the term. The entire docket was cleared of all cases ready for trial and the attorneys of Plattsmouth can now rest until September.

—Another runaway happened last night about 7 o'clock. This time it was a one horse rig. The man was thrown out of the buggy but not seriously injured. The horse relieved himself of the buggy on the corner of Third and Main streets bounded away down the street and was seen no more by ye reporter.

—The divine injunction is, if a man smite your right cheek, give him also a chance at the left. Far from obeying the teaching it appears that a large portion of humanity are diligently to effectively return the one planted on the right.—Idlia (Col.) Sentinel. Well, that may be the injunction there, but here if a fellow smites you on the right cheek you smite him over the head if you can find him.

—The bids on the sewer bonds were opened yesterday at noon and it was found that Spitzer & Co., of Toledo, doing business for a firm in Boston, had the highest bid and were therefore awarded the bonds. The bonds were sold at a premium of .82 per cent making a total of $40,328 for the bonds. This shows that the people of the east have confidence in our city and are willing to take her paper at a premium.

—J. A. Conner is breaking twenty five hundred acres of ground north of Columbus in the township farm, he has plans drawn by an architect of this city for twenty houses twenty-four feet by thirty, and one-half stories high, for his tenants. This is a good chance for renters for next year to move on this fall, and backset the land so it will be ready for spring crops. Parties who wish to rent apply to J. A. Conner Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

—One of Mr. Weckbach's teams got frightened at a freight train yesterday afternoon, became unmanageable and ran away. There were two boys in the wagon but one jumped out bruising his right leg slightly, the other remaining in the wagon was not injured. The team ran against a freight train then jumped in a cattle guard and stopped. They were slightly pealed up but beyond this no damage was done to the team. It was a lucky escape all around and can only be attributed to luck that boys team and all were not badly injured or killed.

—John Kennedy was arrested for an assault on Anton Vitoush with intent to commit murder. The preliminary trial was held yesterday in police court with Attorneys Beeson and Clark on the part of the state and A. N. Sullivan on the defense. Several witnesses were examined on each side and after the plea of the attorneys was submitted to the court who asked to have until 10 o'clock today to make his decision. On assembling of court this morning the court finds that there is not probable cause for binding defendant over to district court and therefore case is dismissed.

—The Party of Equal Rights met in convention in Des Moines, Ia., yesterday to nominate a candidate for president and vice-president of the United States. Arrangements had been made for the delegates who were unable to attend to send ballots by mail. The convention proceeded to count the ballots thus received and found Belva A. Lockwood, of Washington, D. C., was the choice for president and Alfred H. Love, of Philadelphia, for vice-president. The convention adopted a platform favoring woman suffrage, pensions for all needy soldiers and sailors, a tariff with free sugar and lumber and to repeal the tax on whisky and tobacco, and unrestricted immigration. The convention then adjourned sine die.

—The county clerk today examined the assessment made by G. N. La Rue in Liberty precinct and found it just and correct in every particular, an occurrence which seldom happens, especially the first time.

—The open air concert on 4th street last night was well attended, but we having just had a full batch of almanac jokes and not desiring an electric belt, concluded that the best place for us was in our cosy little bed and gave our room to those who had a better car than we for such things.

—The M. E. social last night at the K. of P. hall was a success in every way. The first thing on the program was a song by the M. E. choir, followed by a declamation by Miss Kittie Russell which was well delivered. Miss Witten then read a piece in a way that showed that she had a fine voice for elocution. Miss Anna Sullivan spoke the revised edition of Maud Muller, in a way that was quite pleasing. Miss May Russell read a piece and Mrs. Martin and Mutz sang a duet also Mr. W. A. Darrick sang a solo. After the program ice cream and cake were served and a social time was had generally. A half dozen or more were playing the organ and singing during the evening.

—G. N. La Rue of Liberty precinct, is the first of the assessors of Cass county to complete his work of assessing and return his book to the county clerk. Mr. La Rue brought his book in this morning as he was on his way to attend the republican convention at Omaha.

—Chas. Kinzer was arrested last night on complaint of Patrick Dongan for assault on Tom McCarty Saturday in John Blake's saloon. The case was brought before Justice Stiles and was continued over until this morning at 9 o'clock. The case was brought up this morning and Kinzer was sentenced to 30 days in city jail.

—What might have proved a serious accident happened last evening. Three men on their way to Grand Island attempted to cross the Platte River bridge ahead of the K. C. train, they had been in Plattsmouth and got a little to much "tangle foot," and in their hurry to get across the bridge two of them fell off into the water. They were rescued by the night watchman and started on their way rejoicing.

From Monday's Daily.

—Ed. Parrott, car checker, has a new assistant. It's a bouncing boy born May 13. No thanks, we don't smoke.

—The Bellevue Enterprise is improving every issue and is a real newsy sheet and is worth double its subscription price.

—County Judge Russell today solemnized the vows that made one, Mr. Robert Mitchell and Miss Mary A. Rivett, of Lincoln. May their pathway through life be as bright and sunny as today.

—At the State Pharmaceutical association last week, Mr. O. P. Smith of our city was appointed a member of the executive committee, a deserving recognition of Mr. Smith's ability and interest in the association. The appointment could not have been better.

—The county Clerk received a wolf scalp yesterday through the mail. The Clerk says he believes the dead should bury their dead and not send it here for him to do. But it is a good thing the postmaster is a democrat for if he had not been used to smelling the dead democratic party for so long he never could have handled that wolf scalp without suffocation.

—The Young Men's Christian Association held a very interesting meeting yesterday afternoon at the Presbyterian church. Their subject "Manly Christianity" is one in which all young men should take a deep interest. To be a man should be the aim of all and there is nothing that aids so much to be a man as christianity. Then every one who would be a manly man should feel an interest in the subject of manly christianity.

—The April term of the district court of Cass county, will probably close today or tomorrow, a very large amount of work has been disposed of and many important cases tried and decided. The time seems to have come when litigants who have causes in court law have a speedy determination of their differences. District court convenes on Monday next in Lancaster county where Judge Chapman goes to set with Judge Field, and work until June when he goes to Otoe county to hold the June term of that court, so that the only breathing spell the Judge gets comes in the warm months of July and August.

As we have learned that "Reporter" has banished this country for the far west and expects to remain all summer "Denzie," his substitute, has failed to furnish you with any items since his departure, we thought we would send a few and see if they would be fit for publication, if so we may write again in the near future.

Owing to the backward spring but few farmers have completed their corn planting. For the past three weeks this locality has been visited by an almost daily rain. Those that were up early enough this morning witnessed a heavy frost.

At the present writing there is a good prospect for fruit. Can't say how it will be when it reaches maturity.

There has been quite a number of newsy items gone unpublished of late that would have been interesting at the time but as we suppose your readers will not care about reading stale news we will not say anything about them.

Uncle John Allison is erecting a neat little house on his north 80. J. G. Royal and C. Tracy doing the work, the same to be occupied by Hiram McDonald and family.

Wm. Gravy has put an addition to his house this spring and has been improving his place some in the way of setting out fruit and evergreen trees, &c.

John Tigmer went out with Geo. Hendrick's herd returning on Tuesday last. He reports a hard time on the herders encountering severe hardships amid rain, thunder and lightning. During his absence he had a calf killed by lightning.

Ed. Young returned to this locality last week from the west. He reports times good there.

Well Mr. Editor and readers you will have to excuse us from writing any more this time. We may come again about the next new moon or thereabouts.

Yours Truly, DEANE.

The Journal.

From Wednesday's Daily.
The Journal is sick again. It sick, but yesterday a raging fever came it and in its frantic ravings made a few ill-becoming remarks. The HERALD.
The city ordered a few cards for the council, of THE HERALD for $2, probably, without consulting the Journal on the matter, the following was the result to their report of the council meeting last night:

"The members of the council then gazed on a specimen of the 'blacksmith's' skill issued from the office of the 'Organette' on Vine street, which was in the form of a card, supposed to contain the names of the city council.

It should be framed alongside the picture of the 'log cabin' way back in Kentucky."

A few of its errors are as follows: "Shipman" reads "Salsbury"; "C. O'Connor" reads "C. C. Connor" and "C. O'Connor." They were determined to have the name right. Dr. John Black's name is placed on the "Board of Health" where it don't belong, and J. W. Johnson, F. Gorder and W. H. Newell of the Board of Public Works, are not mentioned at all. In addition there are twelve punctuation marks omitted. The council decided not to pay for such a botched specimen of printing."

The cards were printed as they were ordered with the exception of two names in which a couple of typographical errors had been overlooked. The punctuation marks the "red rag organ" has reference to were omitted intentionally. We do not really believe the man with the big head in the rat cellar could improve on it any by giving information as to where such punctuation marks should be placed. The very "rag" that criticised our work comes out full of errors and instead of presenting such a thing before the public as a newspaper, they should print across the face of it with the largest wood-letter they have in their shop, "proof sheet" and commit it to the waste basket if they have one of their own. The name "C. C. Connor" as they have it is not printed that way, and if the "blear-eyed tub" which was rolled up to the council chamber on wheels, would wipe the cob-webs out of his eyes, he could probably see a little further than the prominent feature on the front part of the pumpkin which is placed on his shoulders as an excuse for a head. The pond, just where "Stink Creek" empties into the sewer is fast filling up with cat fish and suckers, and it is rumored when the city and Board of Trade make their next improvements, they will wash the filth from that corner to the sewer below where it belongs. The only possible chance we can see for them to escape would be to call the Shattuck fund to the rescue which they had buried in the quick-sand for a long time, but we hope such will not be the case for it can be used in a more beneficial way. For a sample of the Journal's work we would like to distribute the city ordinances, but as they cannot secure them on account of C. O. D. marks for binding, we will be obliged to rest contented and let the people see for themselves if that opportunity is afforded them. They seem to forget that THE HERALD has always lent them a helping hand when they would run short of paper, simply because we wish to keep the "rag" flying, because such opposition could do us less harm than anything which could take its place.

SAME OLD GUNS.

An excited Canadian statesman warns the United States that "we may hear the deep voices of British cannon." Heard 'em before, sonny, and can show you a lot of them that we took at Yorktown, New Orleans, and other places.—San Francisco Alta.

Sunken eyes, a pallid complexion, and disfiguring eruptions, indicate that there is something wrong within. Expel the lurking foe to health, by purifying the blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Cures Erysipelas, Eczema, Salt-Rheum, Pimples and Blotches.

A Missouri Pacific Wreck.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., May 16.—A Missouri Pacific construction train was wrecked near Union, nine miles north of this city, last night. The entire train left the track and went down an embankment, the engine running nearly fifty yards on the ties and tearing up the track before falling over. The accident was caused by the rails spreading. No one was hurt. All trains run over the Dunbar branch last night.
