Administration.

Night a Crand Success The Young Men's Republican Club of Plattsmouth had called a ratification meeting of the republican nominees for president and vice president for last met with heartiest applause.

evening, to be held in Rockwood hall, and although the weather was most unpropitious and a heavy rain had fallen after 6 o'clock, the meeting was

A GRAND SUCCESS. At 8 o'clock the B. & M. band opened up the ball with their sixteen pieces in front of Rockwood hall, playing several popular pieces in their best style, as they always do. Almost immediately the heavy boom of artillery resounded dry. throughout the city. The cannon being controlled and handled by the ever efficient cannoneers, Harvey Sage and Chas. Black, forty rounds being fired, and amidst music and cannonading the audience assembled in Rockwood hall.

The hall was well filled with enthusiastic republicans at 8:30 o'clock p. m. and the meeting was called to order by John | damaged, It is not known to what ex-A. Lightning struck the horse Rey, of his speech he was met with applause and the close was enthusiastically applauded.

Hon, R. B. Windham was called on and responded in his usual vein. His remarks were well received and interspersed with applause.

As one of the committee on speakers Mr. Lansing. "reported to the audience that it was Im possible to get speakers from abroad from the fact that everybody was ratifying at weeping Water as our home talent in the republican paring the meeting the boys kept up their ty is of the lest and was well received last night by an enthusiastic audience.

Judge Samuel M. Chapman was the next speaker called upon. His remarks were directed especially to the solid south, an honest vote and a fair count. He called attention to the fact that the names of Harrison and Morton were two of the most illustrious names in the United States; that the name of Morton, the great war governor of Indiana, and Gen. Ben. Harrison, the soldier, the citizen and statesman from the same state, right f" would act as a statesman in the coming campaign and that he predicted that Indiana would be safe for the ticket. Applause greeted the speaker and at the close of his remarks, S. P. Vanatta was next called and responded in a warm, with great favor. He touched up the democrats all along the line, and his remark that the republicans and the people should vote for brains as against averdupoise and the result would be that we would have a president who could take off his shirt without unbuttoning his collar, was cheered to the echo.

Mr, Vanatta introduced the following resolution which was unanimously passed and the meeting, with three cheers for the nominces, and three cheers for our bandana, adjourned:

Beating Carpets In Paris.

American housewives engrossed in the cares of house cleaning, may thank their stars they do not live in Paris. The conseil de Salubrite of that city has recently discovered the inconvenience of allowing carpets to be brushed and beaten in the open air in the vicinity of inhabited houses on account of the dust which is so raised, and especially on account of the bacteria which may be set free when the carpets come from houses where zymotic diseases have existed. The conseil has, therefore, decided that this operation will be allowed only under the following conditions: The carpets must be brushed and beaten in entirely shut up rooms, and the
