HOGE AND MURPHY ARRESTED.

General Manager Stone Swears Out Warrants Against Them.

The "Q" Conspiracy.

CHICAGO, July 11.—General Manager Stone of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad last night swore out a warrant for the arrest of Stewart E. Hoge, chairman of the grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and John Murphy, chairman of the Firemen's Brotherhood. The warrant was placed in Inspector Bonfield's hands and early this morning the arrests were made and the prisoners lodged in the central station. Subsequently, at the request of the road, a continuance was taken until Saturday, and the two men were admitted to bail in the sum of $1,500 each. The charges made against them is conspiracy in writing and sending out the following circular:

"Chicago, April 18, 1888.—[To C. E. and E. A. E. Division, No.—] The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy have only about one-half of the men they had prior to the strike. They want about four hundred or five hundred more engineers. We have decided to call on you to furnish one or two men from your division. We will ask the same of all divisions throughout the country to come and apply for situations on the 'Q' under assumed names, and as soon as they go to work to correspond with John Sowers, National hotel, Chicago, for instructions. The object is to disable engines in every way they can, and on a given day to quit work in a body after receiving instructions from us. The company is on one leg and with this means we propose to take the other. We don't want any of them to come here, but to make applications at the following points: Aurora, Galesburg, Burlington, Creston, Plattsmouth, Lincoln and McCook. Be careful whom you select to come. We want men that don't talk too much, and who are not in the habit of drinking. Supply them with plenty of saluda and emery. Have them get leave of absence for thirty or more days. "P. S.—Please don't let this outside except with yourselves and the men you select to come. Please answer on receipt of this. Yours fraternally, S. E. HOGG, Chairman, G. C. Room 34, Grand Pacific hotel, Chicago."

Louisville.

A. L. Timblin of South Bend, was in town Thursday and was taken severely ill; he is however, much better and has gone home.

J. W. Berge of Greenwood, who is now working in Mr. Day's store at Weeping Water, was in town Monday.

The school board engaged three of their teachers for the ensuing year today. Prof. J. A. Sutton will remain another year; Miss Agatha Tucker of Plattsmouth, was engaged to teach the 1st intermediate; and Hetta Powell of Iowa, to teach the primary. One more teacher yet to be hired.

Miss M. Peterson has purchased the property of Mr. Thos. Lillis. Mr. Lillis is going to move his family to Portland, Oregon, where he says he can get some work for himself and his boys.

Mr. Therdore Kennon, better known as "Big Alex," was arrested by the city marshal Wednesday for beating his wife and after lying in the cooler for two or three days received bail to the amount of $500 for his appearance in court.

The 4th passed off very quietly and no body has any complaints to offer. The B. & M. band did great credit to themselves; so also did Messrs. Keister and Root. The Glee Club furnished the best vocal music we have been permitted to hear for some time, it was simply immense. The declaration was read in a very pleasing manner by Prof. Sutton.

John Ossenkop ships a car load of hogs today.

There will be meeting on Thursday night in Fitzgerald's hall for the purpose of organizing a Republican club. Alex McIntosh will be present, and we hope Mr. Wooley of Weeping Water. Every republican is requested to be present.

Miss Mary Dewitt is at Ashland this week visiting Prof. King's family.

R. P. Loucks is greatly improving the appearance of his barber shop by putting in a new front.

Engineer Holiday who was one of the B. & M. strikers went to New Mexico and run an engine there for a short time but has returned. He says it is too hot down there for him.

Miss Florence Glover is the guest of Miss Helen Stander.

Miss Minnie Angel is visiting her relatives in town for a few weeks.

Mr. Wm. Bruigeman was at Omaha Saturday.

Let every reader of the HERALD remember that the uniformity of text book will be discussed at Louisville July 28, every one should be interested in this great question. Work for uniformity.

Improvements will be begun on the school house this week. A partition is to be put through the upper room and the north side seated.

The house of Mr. Brodren, near the B. & M. depot, caught fire last week and only by judicious means was it saved from being totally consumed.

Mrs. Hall of the Pacific hotel is very poorly.

Mrs. W. Cutforth is now visiting friends at Weeping Water.

Mr. H. Pankenin has sold over twenty-five Deering binders this summer.

The claim of the Plattsmouth Water company, which amounted to $110.74, for drinking fountains erected on the streets, was not allowed, the claim not being in accordance with the city ordinance, the water company having agreed to furnish the water if the city would erect the fountains.

A petition which was signed by sixteen tax-payers of the Second Ward was read as follows:

To the Hon. Mayor and City Council:—Gentlemen:—We, the undersigned residents and free-holders, do petition your honorable body to have the water main on Elm street extended west from its present terminus three blocks, then south one block, then west one block. It is greatly needed and would reach a number of consumers.

The fire and water committee, to whom was referred the petition, examined the same and recommended the prayer of the petition to be granted. The petition was allowed by the council, the Mayor voting in the affirmative.

It was moved by Mr. Murphy that the water main on Main street be extended three blocks. The motion was put and carried by the vote of the Mayor.

The chairman of the streets, alleys and bridges committee was instructed to look after a sidewalk on the east side of Rock street, which is at present in bad repair.

I. H. Dunn was appointed by the Mayor as chief of police, but as a two-thirds vote of the council in his favor was not made, he could not be appointed. The following was the vote:

Yeas—Salisbury, Shipman, Dutton, Murphy.

McCoey was then appointed by the Mayor, and the following is the vote:

Yeas—Shipman, Dutton, Jones, McCallan, O'Connor.

On motion the council adjourned.

BLAINE will be here in a day or so and then how the virtuous democracy will squirm and how the English press will howl.

It is wonderful what a grin the average Indian wears over his countenance these days. It is like unto a hoosier sun beam. Hurrah for Harrison! is what it means.

The Journal last evening resorted to a flat lie touching Col. P. Heppburn and backed it up by the word of a man that is not worth a last year's bird's nest with bottom knocked out of it. Be careful Charles, or Col. Heppburn may tell the people here what your record was in Iowa.

When Cleveland Goes Marching Home.

(Tune, "When Johnny comes marching home.")

When Grover goes marching home again, Hurrah, hurrah!

We'll give him a hearty good-by then, Hurrah, hurrah!

The East will cheer, the West will shout, When free trade rulers are all tarred out, And we'll down free trade!

When Grover goes marching home, We'll ring the bells and shout with glee, Hurrah, hurrah!

Then from his "Surplus" we are free, Hurrah, hurrah!

Then loyal men and soldiers say, They'll bounce him on election day, And we'll down free trade!

When Grover goes marching home, Get ready for the jubilee, Hurrah, hurrah!

We'll sweep the land from sea to sea, Protection ranks will never yield, They'll meet the foe on every field, And we'll down free trade!

When Grover goes marching home, Mugwumps may dance to Cleveland's bray, Hurrah, hurrah!

For bogus reform has had its day, And we'll down free trade!

And when the voters all turn out, The tariff tinkers we'll put to rout, And we'll down free trade!

When Grover goes marching home.

ON THE SHORE.

Jease, O stormy wind, thy wailing
Till the night shut down the day
All night long thy howling
Like strong souls in agony
On the tempest, landward sweeping,
Sailor voices come to me,
And I see a close reefed vessel
Tossing on an angry sea.

Long I watched her in the offing,
Till the night shut down the day
Sleepless watchers still are waiting
For their kindred long away
Peering through the stormy darkness,
With their weary, anxious eyes,
Watching, waiting, hoping, fearing,
While the waters higher rise.

Craze, O craze, thou roaring ocean!
Hear you not my bitter
O'er my loved waters rolling,
In your sunless caves they lie,
And my eyes o'erflow with weeping
That I see no hope, no man,
Oh, the hearts that thou hast broken,
Only to their God are known.

—A. E. Porter.

How She Found Him Out.

"I say, old fellow," said Blakely, meeting his friend Harry D. on the street. "I saw you and Edith pass each other yesterday without a sign of recognition. I thought you were engaged!"

"I thought so, too," said Harry with a deep sigh; "but that's off."

"How's that?"

"Well, it's all owing to those infernal fashions some of the women wear now—hat, coat, vest, collar and shirt front, for all the world like those worn by the male sex. They'll make a raid on our pantaloons next."

"I don't quite understand—explain."

"Well, you see, I quietly entered Bob Greenbag's law office about dusk one evening last week, and saw Bob sitting behind a desk with his back toward me. I stealthily approached, gave him a vigorous and familiar slap on the shoulder and cried: 'I have come for you, old man! You must go with me down to Hatchley's. Lot of gay girls will be there—that pretty little blonde you were mashed on in the ballet at the Blank theatre—and I'm going for the plump variety singer—the one I had out to lunch the other night, when we all got a little uproarious, you know. Come, what d'ye say? Is it a go, and I tilted his hat down over his eyes, and that settled it."

"How settled it? Did Bob give you away to his cousin Edith?"

"Naw, it wasn't Bob at all. It was the charming Edith herself, dressed in a tailor made, mazonian—aut; and the Avic look she gave me as she swept out of the office without a word told me that my matrimonial hopes in that quarter were everlastingly blasted. Well, so long."—Drake's Magazine.

Mme. Histor's Stage Face.

Another great artist who devoted much time to disguising her face was Mme. Histor, whose singular features allowed her to assume, with extraordinary success, an idealized likeness of the heroic and historical personages whose parts she generally acted. Nothing could exceed the minute care and delicacy with which she worked to make herself strikingly like Mary Stuart, for instance.

Seated in front of a looking glass, with all her boxes of powders and pastes and her brushes systematically arranged on the toilet table, she would literally copy upon her own face all the lines which she saw in a fine picture of Mary Stuart which was placed close by her.

Her most striking "make up," however, was that of Elizabeth. She had purchased at great expense, when in England, several excellent original pictures of Queen Bess, taken at various periods of her life, and also a great number of engravings, and when she played Giacometti's tragedy she had all her pictures with her, and between the acts, with surprising rapidity, painted according to them, so that the spectators saw her grow old from act to act, and in the last scene, in which she died, her reproduction of her own face and figure of the ravages of remorse was quite appalling.—New York Journal.

Four to Avoid Temperance.

Temperance rarely occurs to those who take proper care of themselves, even when they are fully exposed to the direct heat of the sun. The victims are generally those who drink alcoholic liquors to excess or who have over-eaten the stomach with improper food. Still, cases of sunstroke do occur when the rays of the sun have been absorbed by the face and head. It is well, therefore, for every one to take proper precautions against all risks.

The clothing should be light, and that worn next the body should be of some material capable of readily absorbing the perspiration. Wool is probably to be preferred, and it should be pure—that is, unanized with cotton. For the head during very warm days nothing is better than a straw hat, for not only is it of light weight, but, if properly made, free passage of air round the head takes place. The so-called Panama hats, which are so closely woven that they will hold water, are the worst possible coverings for the head in summer.

It is a remarkable fact that sunstrokes are very seldom met with among persons who expose themselves to the full heat of the sun in the country or outside of the limits of large cities. They were very infrequent in the army during the late civil war, although the men were often subjected for many days at a time to the most intense solar heat, and this, too, while engaged in fighting, or in making long marches, or in field work of various kinds. Although often serving before the war with troops on the plains, where the rays of the sun fall upon the body unprotected by even a tree or a bush, I do not recollect to have seen a single case of sunstroke.—Dr. William A. Hammond in New York World.

The Young Husband's Share.

"Oh, yes," remarked Ketchly, in a self-satisfied way, "Lulu and I will start out in married life under very favorable circumstances. Her mother gives us a neat little home, her father furnishes it and her Uncle De Long has stocked one of the neatest stables in the city. Besides Lulu has a snug income in her own name." "What part do you furnish?" "Well, principally the name—principally the name.—Tid Bits.

SHAKER BOY

Is a Dark-Bay Pacer, 15½ hands high, weighing 1,200 pounds. His close, compact form and noted reputation for endurance and speedy progeny have justly earned for him the reputation, and encomium from the Editor of the "Spirit of the Turf," that he is one of the Best Sires of the age. His record is 2:26, and has paced trial miles in 2:16. His colts, Little Baby, 2:27½, and J. W. Huey, 2:24½, with more to follow in the charmed circle this summer, is certainly a great showing, and affords the public in this vicinity a grand opportunity to get valuable horses at low prices. His service of $15.00, with $2.00 added if not paid till after foaling, or $20 to insure colt to stand, is only the price of a good ordinary horse, while horses of SHAKER BOY'S blood lines receive from $100.00 to $300.00 in other localities. Horses of this kind, if not wanted for sporting purposes, can do more general work on a farm, on account of their extra nerve power, than unwieldy draft horses, and can go to town or to meeting in one-half the time, and time is money. Owners of fine mares have a rare chance now for one of the cheapest horses in the United States. Embrace the opportunity.

TO OUR DEMOCRATIC READERS.

Why aint you in favor of the republican national platform which declares against the internal revenue tax on tobacco and alcohol used in the arts and manufactures? It seems to the HERALD you ought to stand with us on this plank. It is a war tax and your party from Grand-Pa Thurman to baby bouncer Grover, opposed it as unconstitutional at the time it was enacted. The republican party justified it only as a war measure. It is a burden on every farmer who grows a bushel of corn, wheat, barley or tobacco. Free alcohol in the arts and manufactures would, vastly, benefit our chemical industries and cheapen almost every article in which alcohol goes. Don't you know that more than half of the spirits manufactured are used in the arts and manufactures? Or do you think that alcohol is manufactured solely for a beverage? If you take the latter view of the question, then, why aint you in favor of the republican plank? Put this conundrum to some of the small born politicians of your party who are harping on this so-called free whisky plank in the republican platform wont you? Gentlemen as familiar with the article, as some of these embryo statesmen seem to be, can perhaps give a reason why this plank in the straight out platform made at Chicago by the party of progress is not all right.

No Lunch Between

A prominent physician and surgeon once said to me of his three children who were then well grown youths, and the picture of health: "We never allowed our children to lunch between meals, and they are all good eaters; we never allowed them tea and coffee, and they are all good sleepers." All these same children have since graduated from colleges and are holding high positions today in the professional world, robust and of excellent habits, though inheriting a frail constitution from a mother who died young.—Good Housekeeping.
