NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR, JOHN M. THAYER. FOR LEUTENANT GOVERNOR, GEORGE D. MEIKLEJOHN.

"LABOR DAY" was generally observed in the large cities yesterday.

SURPLUS and Wah are too things Mr. Cleveland should never monkey with.

FARMERS should remember that there is now a tariff of 20 cents on wheat, which keeps out the Canadian and other foreign products.

HENRI WATTERSON and his 200,000 with moss on their backs and the sweet fragrance of the blue grass pastures on their breath did it.

GROVER CLEVELAND'S retaliation message falls as flat as a wet dish rag on a curb stone.

DEMOCRATS at headquarters admit that Mr. Cleveland's Fishery fulmination has only served to make him more ridiculous.

THE lie about General Harrison's attitude toward the railroad strikers of eleven years ago hasn't legs enough to travel far.

THE democratic convention in session, last night, at Lincoln came near having the scarified warrior from Kentucky with his 200,000 unarmed militia to aid in the nomination of a governor for Nebraska.

JUST nine weeks from today the democratic party of this county will be translated from the enchanted garden of imagination, in which it now revels in visions of post offices and foreign missions.

IT is an instructive fact, as suggested by Gen. Harrison, that the democratic organs find it very difficult to arouse popular indignation against alleged excessive federal taxation.

HON. J. M. PATTERSON for state treasurer is a democratic nomination no good democrat can find fault with.

RATS! To read yesterday's Omaha dispatches about the democratic gubernatorial nomination one would think the entire party was one on a spree.

THE Journal is not honest in its desire to publish facts, and when pulled up and confronted with the truth which it has intentionally distorted, it still refuses to correct its statements.

MR. CLEVELAND, in addition to his fishery message, has subscribed $10,000 towards electing himself.

AND HE FLOPPED. In his message to the senate of February 20, 1888, transmitting the Bayard-Chamberlain treaty, the president said: "The treatment meets my approval because I believe that it supplies a satisfactory, practical and final adjustment, upon a basis honorable and just to both parties of the difficult and vexed question to which it relates."

THE ASS AND THE SURPLUS. An ass was once complaining of the great quantity of corn which he had in his possession. "Why," he brayed, speaking to a horse, "I have much more corn than I know what to do with."

THE Journal publishes a very stupid tariff statement in last evening's issue entitled, "Frying the fat out." in which the assertion is made that the duty on raw sugar is proposed to be reduced 35 per cent and on rice meal 25 per cent by the Mills bill.

THE way a traveling man always puts things is a "caution"; one of them remarks that "Politics is a matter of climate; depends wholly on the mean annual temperature."

MR. BLAINE ON THE PRESIDENT'S ERROR. In his article on "The President's Error," in The American Magazine for September, Mr. Blaine says: "Strangely enough the president neglects, either from design or oversight, to notice what effect the serious reduction of the tariff would have on the 1,810,256 men employed in transportation, viz., on the railroads, coast-wise vessels, river steamers and barges, canal, wagon and stage lines."

TWO GERMAN'S CLEVER TRICK. Several years ago a number of German workmen came to Connecticut by a pre-arranged arrangement and obtained employment in the clock factories in New Haven, Ansonia, Waterbury, Thomaston, and Winsted.

TABLE TALK for September—another seasonable and entertaining number. Summer is dead—and Mr. Whitton treats her demise with becoming solemnity in his opening poem; then follows a variety of household information the housewife cannot afford to lose.

THAT noted temperance organization, known from away back, as the rock ribbed, copper bottomed, democratic party of Nebraska, is very much opposed to the idea of submitting "the liquor question" to a vote of the people.

SENATOR ALLISON very effectually stripped off the economical blanket from the democratic donkey in the U. S. senate the other day and showed up the present administration as the most profligate and wasteful the country has ever experienced.

MC SHANE FOR GOVERNOR. Now then men and brethren just stand aside and see how old Governor Thayer will warm up this Omaha candidate.

THE question: "What Makes Baby Cry so?" is discussed by Dr. Patton in the September number of Babyhood and if it is not finally solved, at least several valuable suggestions are offered to perplexed mothers.

Consumption Curable. It cannot be too often impressed on every one that the much dreaded consumption (which is only lung scrofulah.) is curable, if attended to at once, and that the primary symptoms, so often mistaken as signs of diseased lungs, are only symptoms of an unhealthy liver.

THE Chinese Treaty. WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—The department of state has not as yet received any information confirming the reported rejection of the Chinese treaty.

Drowned in a Well.

Red Cloud, Neb., Sep. 4.—A young man by the name of Charles Titus, about eighteen years of age, attempted to descend into a well by a rope. After getting down ten feet below the surface of the ground he struck damp, and fell into the water, and was drowned before he could be helped out.

Bitten By a Mad Dog.

NORTH BEND, Neb., Sept. 4.—Mr. Wickhore, a farmer living five miles northeast of this place, had noticed for several days that his two dogs were acting strangely. His neighbors advised him to kill them. Finally he killed one and tied the other to a tree, where it was till Sunday evening when it became raving mad, getting loose then it ran wildly around the yard and attacked Mrs. Wickhore, tearing her shoulder and arm and one of her lower limbs in a horrible manner.
