CITY BRIEFS.

From Wednesday's Daily.

—Glasses for irregular eyesight at the Riddle house.

—The young ladies of the Catholic church will give an oyster supper in the Fitzgerald hall on the evening of October 12th.

—Short-sightedness glasses at the Riddle house.

—The ladies of the St. Luke's Guild sewing society are requested to meet at the residence of Mrs. Eaton, corner of 9th and Locust streets, Friday afternoon instead of Thursday as was previously announced.

—Glasses for Oversightedness at the Riddle house.

—The funeral of the late Willie Gorder took place yesterday afternoon from his father's residence, Third street. The German Presbyterian church, where the services were held by Rev. Mr. Witte, was crowded. The remains were interred in the Oak Hill cemetery, west of the city.

—Glasses for nearsightedness at the Riddle house.

—“Jim Chambers,” the favorite of the canine fraternity here, took his departure for DeWitt, last night, by express. The express agent is said to have shed tears over the poor “perp” at hearing his expressions of deep bereavement, while chained in the office, over the departure of his master, who left for Wyoming Territory, Tuesday morning.

—Glasses for old and decaying sight at the Riddle house.

—We are in receipt of a notice of the death of John Sims, a former resident of this city. His death occurred at Norfolk, Neb., on the 24th inst. He was buried yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Deceased was aged eighty-one years, three months and seventeen days. He was well known here, and the notice of his demise will be a sore bereavement to many.

—Robbie Carr, step-son of Mr. C. S. Twiss, who has been confined to his home for the past two weeks with a disease of the heart, died last night. He was ten years and eleven months of age. The funeral will leave the residence of Mr. C. S. Twiss, Rock and Eleventh streets, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. He had just nicely recovered from a lingering illness when the last attack came on. The HERALD extends sympathies to the bereaved.

—Among the prominent speakers who will be invited to attend the grand rally here on the 13th of October, we notice the names of Judge O. P. Mason, of Lincoln, Gen. John C. Cowan, of Omaha; W. J. Connell, of Omaha and Judge M. L. Hayward, of Nebraska City. The mere mention of the names of these popular gentlemen, who will without a doubt, be present, should insure the people of the success anticipated. There will no doubt be a larger crowd than the citizens here ever entertained before.

—Any one whose eyesight is afflicted in any way should call on Prof. Strassman, at the Riddle house. He is a regular eye doctor and a graduate. He manufactures and imports, and now has his stock at the Riddle house. Of this stock we can say, and say truthfully, that he has the largest and finest stock of spectacles and eye glasses west of Chicago. He has Alaska and Australian crystals, and not only retails goods in this city, but is filling wholesale orders from other towns. It will pay you to call and see him.

—The rumor which has been in circulation during the last few days has been justified regarding a change in business houses which is to take place. Arrangements were completed this morning between Messrs. Carruth and Mayer, and the latter will move his stock into the brick building on the corner of Main and 5th as soon as it is fitted up to receive it. An addition of thirty feet will be built, the partitions torn out and a sky-light put in the addition. It will be the largest and pleasantest storeroom in the city.

—Glasses for night blindness at the Riddle house.

—Mr. O. Guthman, of Louisville, was in the city yesterday.

—Mr. C. O. Wells, of Omaha, is in the city today on business.

—Mr. A. Eigenbrodt has returned from a few weeks visit to his parents in New York State.

—Bennett Bailey and wife, from Pekin, Ill., are visiting friends at Eight Mile Grove precinct.

—Judge Russell issued a marriage license yesterday to Mr. Wm. Sharp and Miss Pollie H. Bahr.

—Mr. Rosewater, of the firm of Rosewater & Christie, Omaha, was in the city yesterday on business.

—Messrs. V. O. English and E. Bignell, of Lincoln, two officials of the B. & M., were in the city yesterday on business.

—Mrs. J. H. Becker and T. E. Fuller left last night for Peoria county, Ill.; as they received a message that their mother was dangerously ill.

—Mr. James Pine, yardmaster for the B. & M. here, is confined to his room by sickness. Mr. B. Loverin is taking charge of the yards during his absence.

—Messrs. J. W. and T. K. Clark were passengers to Omaha this morning. Mr. J. W. Clark, who has been seriously afflicted with Bright's disease for some time, reports himself improving rapidly.

—Mr. Joe Klein, wife and child arrived in the city this morning from Cornig, Ia. Mr. Klein has just returned from the east where he purchased a stock for the store which he is about to open up here in the room formerly occupied by Solomon & Nathan.

From Tuesday's Daily.

—J. B. Strode, of Lincoln, is in the city.

—Mr. Wm. Neville is in Lincoln today on business.

—Mr. W. H. Wright, of Glenwood, is in the city today.

—Mr. Lee Sharp, of Omaha, was in the city over Sunday.

—Glasses for weak or overstrained sight at the Riddle house.

—Mr. C. N. Hans, Agent for Max Meyer, Omaha, was in the city Sunday.

—Miss Carrie Conkling, of Omaha, spent Sunday with her friend, Mrs. Hunt.

—Glasses for paralyzed sight at the Riddle house.

—Dr. Emmons and family, of Cameron, Mo., are visiting at the home of Mr. B. Spurlock.

—The twelve year old daughter of Mr. Henry Johnson is suffering from a severe attack of diphtheria.

—Mr. F. W. Spencer, of St. Joe, formerly an employe of the Journal, here, is in the city on a visit to his parents.

—A young lady and gentleman at the home of Mr. J. E. McLaughlin are seriously afflicted with typhoid fever.

—Glasses for oscillation of the eyeball at the Riddle house.

—Frank Cobble, Plattsmouth's accommodating expressman, returned last evening from several days' visit at Sidney.

—Messrs. J. W. and T. K. Clark, of Weeping Water, brothers of Mr. Byron Clark here, arrived in the city this morning.

—Mr. Frank Zeibach, formerly express agent here, but now of Omaha, spent Sunday in the city visiting his many friends.

—Astigmatism glasses at the Riddle house.

—The funeral of Willie Gorder occurred this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services were held at the German Presbyterian church, Main street, between 6th and 7th.

—There will be a free lunch tea and coffee store opened up in the Sherwood block on fifth street within a few days. The lunches will be donated to the public for the purpose of advertising.

—The chatanqua club was reorganized at the office of Mr. Byron Clark, last night. Prof Geo. Chatburn was elected president, Miss Ollie Jones, vice president, and Mrs. J. P. Young, secretary.

—It is reported that the corn crop is so far advanced now that the expected frosts cannot injure it in any way, and so far as we have learned this season has surpassed previous ones in every particular as to the advantage of the crop. Every field has yielded a fine production.

—For some years comparatively little real estate has been sold for taxes in this county. This spring, however, a company from Iowa sent an agent into this state who purchased all lands in this county, as well as in Douglas, Otoe and some other counties, on which there were delinquent taxes. They also purchased town property. And already the list are being looked up for this fall so that anything that is offered will be purchased. The delinquent tax list will be advertised about October 1. The tax sales commence the first Monday in November.

—It is rumored that the building on the corner of 5th and Main, owned by Mr. Frank Carruth, and occupied by himself and Mr. J. H. Donnelly, will soon be vacated and fitted up for Messrs. S. & C. Mayer, for a clothing store. An extension of thirty feet will be built on the rear and all partitions torn out. As for room it will make the most complete and convenient store room in the city. The store room formerly occupied by O. P. Smith & Co. and H. M. Gauld, in the Dovey block, is being fitted up to receive the jewelry stock and gents furnishings from Mr. Carruth's building. If the rumors are true, the changes will improve the appearance of things wonderfully.

From Monday's Daily.

—Rotholz, who was arrested in Omaha as a suspicious character, and who skipped out forfeiting about $475 bonds immediately after the disappearance of Charles Collins, is supposed to have been in the city this morning. The supposed Rotholz hired a rig from one of the livery stables here and drove to Union. Nothing definite is known about the man, but it is rumored that Sheriff Elkensbary was making preparations this morning to follow him.

—Willie Gorder, son of Mr. Fred Gorder, who took sick last Tuesday night, died last night at 9 o'clock. He had been afflicted about two weeks previous with pneumonia, but left his home too soon and caught cold, causing a relapse. He was fourteen years of age, and was in every sense, a well developed young man. He was a favorite in the city with all who knew him and his loss will be widely mourned. The family is sorely afflicted, and the HERALD extends to them the sympathies of the entire community in their sad bereavement. The funeral service will be held tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock, at the German Presbyterian church.

—On last Saturday Dr. A. T. Withers moved out of his office and on Monday left for his new place in Plattsmouth, Neb. Six years ago, when Oakland was just beginning to be a town and was rapidly assuming large proportions, the Dr. cast his lot among us. During these six years he has established the reputation of a good business man, an honorable citizen and a skillful dentist. His practice in the county has been extensive and his work has invariably given satisfaction. He has thoroughly learned his profession, and in his new field, where he will have a better chance to work himself up, he will doubtless stand in the front ranks of dentistry. We heartily commend him both as a dentist and a citizen to the citizens of Plattsmouth. He is worthy of their confidence.—Oakland Independent.

From Friday's Daily.

—It is reported that the pretzel stock is limited today.

—About five thousand people were on the fair grounds yesterday afternoon.

—Mr. Joseph Gilmore and family, of Weeping Water, are in the city today.

—Mrs. L. E. Skinner has been confined to her room for several days by sickness.

—Free whisky was well advertised last night by the transparencies and their carriers.

—All business houses closed yesterday afternoon and the proprietors and clerks attended the fair.

—Mr. W. P. Critchfield and family, of Weeping Water, are visiting at the home of his brother, Mr. Bird Critchfield, of this city.

—This being the last day of the fair, it is expected that it will be well attended. Full account of today's races tomorrow.

—The Frances Cleveland club of this city and the young ladies' club of Glenwood were the main attractions in the procession last night.

—Judge Russell issued marriage licenses today to Mr. T. J. Edwards to Miss Susan M. Brisley and Mr. W. D. Williams to Miss May Gillett.

—The democratic hats which were worn last night are made so that they can be adjusted to the different sizes a democratic head is subject to.

—Charles Ellis and James Stewart were arraigned before Judge Russell this morning for being drunk and disorderly on the streets last night. They were fined $10 and costs, each.

—We were unable to ascertain the number of democratic visitors in the city last night, but comparing them with the number of kegs disposed of, the majority would certainly be small.

—Willie Gorder, son of Mr. Fred Gorder, who is seriously afflicted with pneumonia and complications, is expected to die at any hour, as he is said to be beyond all hope and fast sinking.

—A fire started in the show window of Mr. B. Elson's clothing store. The decorations of the window ignited from a candle which dropped from its place and damage to the amount of about $25 was done before the fire could be extinguished.

—The saloon-keepers of the city all smile and look happy to-day. The only reason we can ascribe for this is that their expectations were gratified financially last night. Over 125 kegs of beer were disposed of, besides what was taken on the side.

—One of the transparencies carried in the procession last night illustrated Ben. Harrison trying to put his grandfather's pants on and immediately above the picture was printed “Bennie can't wear his grandfather's pants.” That has nothing to do with him wearing his own, and Grover can't go to the White House again because he wore his out.

—The tail end of the procession last night was composed of “kids,” employed by the democrats to carry torches and make things look more extensive. In giving them their instructions they overlooked what proved as an embarrassment. When the vast throng moved along the street, the whole crowd of boys gave vent to their feelings and out with “Hurrah for Harrison and Morton,” until no other sounds could be heard. The jumbo commanders exhibited much embarrassment to think they could not control the urchins.

From Thursday's Daily.

—Post Master Patterson, of South Bend, was at the fair today.

—Geo. E. Sayles, of Cedar Creek, is taking in the county fair today.

—Fred Murphy came down from Cedar Creek to attend the big fair today.

—Drs. J. F. Brendel, of Avoca, and B. F. Brendel, of Murray, were at the fair today.

—Mrs. Thos. Shryock, of Louisville, is in the city visiting with Mrs. W. F. Waybright.

—Miss Mary Davies, of Glenwood, is in the city today visiting with her brother, John A. Davies.

—A. W. Hall and W. B. Shryock are among the many visitors in the city today from Louisville.

—Willie Gorder, son of Fred Gorder, had about 14 years of age, is very sick with pneumonia.

—Many of the business buildings are decorated in a profuse way today in honor of the democratic rally.

—The crowd at the fair today was exceeding large. With another favorable day the success will be complete.

—Frank and Florence Richardson, of Eight Mile Grove, left last week for Lincoln to attend the university.

—While the compositors of THE HERALD were busily and quietly engaged, this morning, in the daily routine of work necessary to all daily printing offices, the door opened and in stepped Mr. Chas. Sherman, of the Journal, having a jolly countenance, and with two good sized and suspicious looking packages under his arm. He cast one of them upon the “stone” with the remark, “Here's some cake for the boys,” and was gone, before we could say “thank-you,” to make some other “prints” or “parties” a call. We knew what it meant—THE HERALD “prints” had been kindly remembered from the Sherman—Bellevue wedding, of yesterday—and the fine assortment of rich wedding cakes was soon released from the wrappings and appropriately dispensed with. THE HERALD force are united in their appreciation and good wishes for the newly married couple.
