An Aged Saint Laid to Rest.

HARRIET WESCOTT—Born May 4th, 1806 at Chester, Massachusetts, died September 28th, 1888 at the home of her son, C. E. Wescott, Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

She was the daughter of Joshua and Amy Mason; at the age of 18 was married to Stephen Wescott; was the mother of ten children, three of whom survive her, namely: Mrs. Francis M. Bennett, Chester, Mass.; Lloyd M. Wescott, Brush Creek, Iowa, and her youngest son, our fellow-townsman, C. E. Wescott, with whom she has lived since coming to Plattsmouth about five years ago with her husband, the latter having died May 2d, 1884, soon after their arrival.

Mrs. Wescott has lived a consistent christain life for over sixty years, having been converted and united with the Baptist church at Chester, Mass., under the ministration of Elder Jno. Leland. Her love and faith in the church of her choice was pronounced, yet she was to broad in her denominational views to be a narrow sectarian, and her soul was so expanded by the melting love of Jesus as to reckon every child of soverign grace; a kindred spirit, and her breadth of intellect, and warmth of soul kept her in lively sympathy with all the advance movements of the day for the uplifting of humanity, and notwithstanding she had passed her four score milestone, even cheering childhood and youthful enthusiasm found in her presence joy and delight, and during her late protracted illness they kept her chamber fragrant with the perfume of flowers.

She was a woman of rarest graces, finished by highest Christian culture, which made even the sick room a very Bethel, with mental facilities unimpaired up to lifes latest moment she gave blessed assurance at the final victory that was soon to be hers. With her latest breath she exclaimed: "I am About Home," I have tried to make my life a labor of love, "But there is nothing like the Love of God." Then with the dying prayer, "O, Jesus Give Me Rest," she entered into the eternal rest of Heaven. "Blessed are they that die in the Lord."

The funeral obsequies were conducted by Rev. Baird. The beautiful casket was covered with floral offerings of beautiful designs, the cross, sycle and shield were contributed by the W. C. T. U. The pall bearers were Messrs. Pollock, Gault, Spurlock, S. A. Davis, W. Smith and Robt. Donnelly. Among the many friends that gave timely aid were Mrs. Ryan, of Nebraska City, and Dr. Mansfield, cousin of Mr. Wescott, from Chillicothe, Mo. We will all miss this "True Israelite, indeed in whom there was no guilt." But the stroke falls heavily upon the faithful son and daughter, Mr and Mrs. Wescott, and their three dutiful boys—sons of promise—who were always ready to contribute in every way to her comfort and happiness.

In their home "Grandma," was the "Favored One." Her room must be the sunniest and her hearthstone the brightest She was the one never to be forgotten, and her unselfishness made all this service a pleasure.

But this beautiful life is ended, and the last tribute of love has been paid to all that was mortal, with folded hands and speechless lips, she rests beneath the silent clods—dust to dust; ashes to ashes But the beloved influences of such a life will live forever, and its illumination will brighten our pathway to the golden gate. "Where we with her may testify that the wideness of God's love, is as the wideness of the sea, and the justice of His Mercy more than liberty."

Are You Going to Miss This Opportunity?

Persons of feeble, weak eyes, can hardly afford it. It is not too late yet to obtain relief from glasses of such strengthening and sight-restoring power and quality as the learned optician. Prof. Strassman, at the Riddle house, has been supplying to hundreds of our citizens and those of surrounding towns, and still they are coming from far and near calling for help, which they have no trouble to obtain, no matter how complicated the conditions of their threatening or failing eyesight may present, whether unequal or otherwise deranged in the difficult optical complications of young or old.

"Try Ayer's Pills"

For Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout. Stephen Lansing, of Yonkers, N. Y., says: "Recommended as a cure for chronic Costiveness, Ayer's Pills have relieved me from that trouble and also from Gout. If every victim of this disease would heed only three words of mine, I could banish Gout from the land. These words would be—'Try Ayer's Pills.'"

"By the use of Ayer's Pills alone, I cured myself permanently of rheumatism which had troubled me several months. These Pills are at once harmless and effectual, and, I believe, would prove a specific in all cases of incipient

Rheumatism.

No medicine could have served me in better stead."—C. C. Rock, Corner, Avoyelles Parish, La.

C. F. Hopkins, Nevada City, writes: "I have used Ayer's Pills for sixteen years, and I think they are the best Pills in the world. We keep a box of them in the house all the time. They have cured me of sick headache and neuralgia. Since taking Ayer's Pills, I have been free from these complaints."

"I have derived great benefit from Ayer's Pills. Five years ago I was taken so ill with rheumatism that I was unable to do any work. I took three boxes of Ayer's Pills and was entirely cured. Since that time I am never without a box of these pills."—Peter Christensen, Sherwood, Wis.

ST JACOBS OIL

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR PAIN

WHAT IT IS. SIX STANDARD VIRTUES.

ITS EFFICACY.—1. Its effects are prompt. 2. Its relief is sure. 3. Its cures are permanent. 4. It cures: no return of pain. 5. It cures in all cases used according to directions.

1st. It is in one word a cure; it is not merely a relief and in no sense a cure-all; it is the product of scientific research.

2d. It strengthens while it soothes and subdues, heals and cures; it literally conquers pain.

3d. Its effects are curative and permanent to the whole group of muscular miseries and nervous agonies.

4th. It does not merely irritate the outer surface, nor does it merely soften or relax a constricted muscle. To its specific action a superior curative virtue is superadded.

5th. It penetrates deeply but gently; searchingly and surely, seeking the pain spot in an effort to conquer.

6th. Each constituent of the formula has a recognized intrinsic virtue to serve most surely the cure of pain.

Articles of Incorporation

We, the undersigned, hereby associate ourselves into a body corporate for the purpose of transacting a banking and loan business, at the village of Nehawka, Cass County, Nebraska, and do by these presents execute and adopt for the government of said body corporate, the following Articles of Incorporation:

Article First.—The name of the incorporation shall be "The Nehawka Bank."

Article Second.—The principal place of transacting the business of the same shall be at the village of Nehawka, in Cass county, Nebraska.

Article Third.—The general nature of the business of the corporation shall be that of banking, including therein full power to receive deposits of money payable on demand or otherwise, the loaning of money on real estate, personal or other property as security, the purchase and negotiation of bills of exchange, promissory notes, U. S. Bonds, state, county and municipal bonds, and all other incidental powers connected with banking business. It shall also have power to buy, sell and own real estate, and negotiate and place loans for other capital.

Article Fourth.—The capital stock shall be Fifty Thousand Dollars in shares of One Hundred Dollars each, all of which must be subscribed before the commencement of business and ten per cent paid thereon in cash to organize, and the remainder as the Board of Directors, upon [illegible] shall notice thereof.

Article Fifth.—This corporation shall begin on Sept. 14th, 1888, and terminate Sept 14th, 1908, unless sooner [illegible] two-thirds of the stockholders.

Article Sixth.—The highest amount of indebtedness to which the corporation is at any time to subject itself, is Twenty Thousand Dollars, aside from deposits it may receive in the regular course of its business.

Article Seventh.—The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of not less than six or more than [illegible] directors, as may be provided by the bylaws of the corporation, who shall be elected annually on the first Tuesday of October in each year, and shall serve until their successors are elected and organized, provided, however, that at the first meeting to organize the number elected shall be [illegible]. They shall choose from their numbers a President and Vice President. If for any reason the annual meeting is not held at the proper time such election may be held at any subsequent day, due notice thereof being given ten days prior.

Article Eighth.—The Board of Directors shall have power to appoint a Cashier and all subordinate officers and clerks, and to discharge them at any time when in their opinion the best interests of the corporation require it.

Article Ninth.—In case of a failure on the part of any stockholder to pay assessment upon his stock subscription, when same is due and payable, the Board of Directors may elect to declare the payments already made forfeited to the bank or to require the payment of additional assessments.

Article Tenth.—The stock of the corporation shall be assignable and transferable on its books, according to such rules and regulations as the Board of Directors shall adopt in its by-laws.

Article Eleventh.—All elections for Directors shall be by ballot, each share of stock being entitled to one vote, which may be given in person or by proxy, and a majority of entire stock shall be necessary to elect said directors.

Article Twelfth.—The Board of Directors shall have power to make and enforce such by-laws as it may deem proper for the management of the affairs of the corporation, not inconsistant with the laws of the State.

In the matter of the estate of John W. Shannon, deceased:

Notice is hereby given that the claims and demands of all persons against John W. Shannon, deceased, late of said county and state, will be received, examined and adjusted by the county court, at the court house in Plattsmouth on the 4th day of April, A. D., 1889, at ten o'clock in the forenoon. And that six months from and after the 2nd day of October, A. D., 1888, is the time limited for creditors of said deceased to present their claims for examination and allowance.

Given under my hand, this 2nd day of October, A. D., 1888.

C. RUSSELL, County Judge

THE advantage of using an article that is pure and always uniform, is, you are certain of having the same satisfactory results. Eight prominent Professors of Chemistry, of national reputation, have analyzed the IVORY SOAP, and the variation in each is so trifling that the quality of the "IVORY" may be considered reliably uniform. Each pronounced it to be remarkably pure, and a superior laundry soap.

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

Don't Put It Off Any Longer.

While the weather continues pleasant you have time yet to call on Prof. Strassman to obtain relief and comfort for your injured eyes. His services are called upon from other cities, and his time is limited. Remember you have now an opportunity at a small expense, which many citizens could not obtain at large expence in larger cities. Prof. Strassman is reasonable in his charges and a master of his profession. Hoping you will not neglect your eyes, call without delay at the Riddle house.
