THE democratic side of the Omaha World intimates that Mr. Connell paid money for the Otoe county vote in the late congressional convention. This 50 charge is silly. Otoe county was for Mrs C H Smith, hambrequins etc. . 1 00 Judge Chapman first last and all the time and that county was mainly responsible for his candidature. The gentlemen who lead Otoe county in that fight were Judge Chapman's friends and represented the sentiment of Otoe county fully in supporting Mr. Chapman, and when they voted for Mr. Connell it was only after they had learned of the irre-1 00 vocable determination of the two leaders of the Lancaster delegation to never let that county vote for Mr. Chapman. The charge that undue means were used with > Otce county is silly and weak. REPORTS differ as to the amount of Jay Gould's contribution to the democratic campaign fund; but there can be no dispute as to the fact that he expects 75 Pacific railroad funding bill which the 75 administration is diligently supporting.

Paine's Celery Compound

Jas. L. Bowen. Springfield, Mass., writes:—
"Paine's Celery Compound cannot be excelled as a Nerve Tonic. In my case a single bottle wrought a great change. My nervousness entirely disappeared, and with it the resulting affection of the stomach, heart and liver, and the whole tone of the system was wonderfully invigorated. I tell my friends, if sick as I have been, Paine's Colors Commented.

DESERVES IT .- No transcient occulist has ever visited this city before who has given to the public such excellent professional service, or has won such testimonials from the people, as Prof. Strassman, now in our city. We are not in the habit of volintarily testisying in these matters, but in Prof. Strassman's case we do it cheerfully, and entirely in an unsocited way—simply because he deservice it.—Oskaloosa Herald.

After a slay of several weeks, Prof. Strassman, the optician, is about to close his labors in our city.
