Allen Beeson the Right Man.
KEARNEY, Neb., Oct. 8, 1888.

DEAR EDITOR:—In reading the proceedings of the Cass County Republican Convention in yesterday's Bees, I noticed that Allen Beeson, of Plattsmouth, was re-nominated for county attorney and the nomination means that the people of "Old Cass" will do their duty by electing him for a second term. If all the voters of Cass county had the opportunity of knowing him as I knew him while I was a student in his office, his candidacy would meet with but little opposition. Should like to be able to cast a vote in Cass county for him and friend Polk, but will have to content myself with a vote for Harrison and Morton.

Yours Truly,
CHAS. L. GRAVES.

A. O. U. W.
There will be a reunion of the A. O. U. W. held in Omaha on October 12, and all members and their families are cordially invited to attend. Delegations from all the A. O. U. W. lodges are expected to be present, and preparations for a grand time have been made.

—It is astonishing how many people have been benefited by Prof. Strassman's glasses.

The Home Fire Insurance Company of Omaha, insures horses and mules against fire in any private barn, stable or shed on farm or within twenty-five miles of farm, and against lightning, winds, cyclones and tornadoes, wherever they may be. This is a great advantage to the farmer, as his teams are covered by the Policy against fire as well as lightning, in his neighbors' farm buildings, or in any private barns in town, the same as in his own.
