

S. & C. MAYR, THE LEADING CLOTHIERS

Only a short while and we will be located in our Large and Commodious Room in the Carruth Building. In the meanwhile we will keep up our Reduction Sale of Gent's - Overcoats, - Hats - and - Underwear !

And hope they will meet with the same success as they have since we announced our Great Removal Sale. Every one is astonished at the low prices (and the way they sell shows it is appreciated). We own them as low as cash can buy them from Eastern manufacturers, and that is the reason they can be sold at such a small margin. Every article marked in plain figures and we guarantee you perfect satisfaction. Everything sold by us is just as represented. This has been our motto and the reason of our success.

The ladies of St. Lukes Guild are agitating a Chrysanthemum social and hop, which is to be held in Fitzgerald's hall on Thursday evening, November 15th. The ladies of the above society are putting forth every effort to make the coming event, the event of the season. As it will vary much from the ordinary style, the coming social and dance will be a great novelty here. They will surely secure a good crowd.

Lewis & Stanley, the artificial stone walk contractors are making rapid progress with their work, and, as we have learned, have secured the fronts for the whole block from Carruth's corner to Boeck's furniture store, with the exception of one, and we feel quite confident that when that one firm notices the vast improvement on either side of them when the work is completed that they will also let a contract to the above firm. Only a few planks in a whole block front would present rather a tawdry business appearance, and people would form a habit of passing by.

An American press dispatch was received here last night to the effect that New York gave Cleveland a majority of about 15,000. The report called forth the most intense excitement for some time from both parties, until a party of our staunch republicans who could not view the dispatch as anything but a hoax or a money-making scheme, telegraphed to Omaha to learn the truth of the matter. Word was soon received that the report was false. This morning the Omaha Herald conceded that their ticket was lost, giving a detailed report of the cause and endeavoring to show up the great error the American people were to blame for.

The streets are crowded today with politicians of every description. Election topics are all that's afloat, and should a man open up on any other conversation he stands a poor show of being allowed to remain in the city.

The ladies of St. Luke's Guild are agitating a Chrysanthemum social and hop, which is to be held in Fitzgerald's hall on Thursday evening, November 15th. The ladies of the above society are putting forth every effort to make the coming event, the event of the season. Only a few planks in a whole block front would present rather a tawdry business appearance, and people would form a habit of passing by.

Mr. F. W. Spencer, who is visiting his parents in this city at present, met with an accident this morning while delivering groceries for Poissal & Spencer, which will necessitate several weeks lay-off for him. As he was driving over the Third street bridge, the bolt which held one side of the shafts to the delivery wagon gave way, letting them fall against the horse's legs. The horse became frantic in an instant and it was far beyond the control of the young man. When the horse started to run, the buggy was crumpled from one side to the other until the vehicle was upset. Spencer was thrown to the ground, cutting his face slightly and badly fracturing his left arm.

They have rented a convenient room in the Fitzgerald block, and have furnished it so completely that it will certainly prove to be a great attraction for their society during the long winter nights. Every accommodation has been provided by them, and we certainly believe, as well as everybody, that it was a wise move.

Dr. J. H. Hall, who is well known in the city, leaves tomorrow night for Philadelphia. He will be accompanied by his wife, who will remain here during the winter, while he attends the Jefferson Medical college to take a course of lectures. Dr. Hall was a student under Dr. Livingston about eight years ago after which he graduated at the Rush Medical college at Chicago, and then attended the Bellevue college hospital at New York for some time. He goes to Philadelphia to make a complete study of his profession, and he has the best wishes of the Herald for success in his work.

Jacob Hansen was brought in from Ashland yesterday and examined to ascertain if he was insane. The examination proved the trouble to be more imbecilic than real insanity, and he was taken out to the poor farm to be taken care of.

Last night a young men's bible study class was organized at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, to meet there one night each week and study the word of God. This is a class in which every christian young man in Plattsmouth should be an active member.

Milinda Hobbs, living south of Plattsmouth, died October 28th. She was aged 40 years, 8 months and 15 days, and left eight children. Lincoln S. Shepherd, brother to deceased, died Oct. 28. He was 21 years, 2 months and 9 days old.

The K. C. Train last evening arried two passengers who wished to go out on the cut-off toward Ashland, a gentleman and his wife, whose names we were unable to learn. They were to get off at Orepolis and wait for the Schuyler train. As told to us it seems the conductor there got off the front end of the train registered and signaled to go on, forgetting the two passengers here to change. The couple, however, attempted to get off while the train was moving and the lady received a sprain from the pain of which she fainted when helped into the station. Agent Clement telegraphed here for T. P. Livingston, who went out and treated the injury.

TO PRESERVE THE SOFTNESS OF FLANNEL GARMENTS, FOLLOW CAREFULLY THESE DIRECTIONS FOR WASHING.

Dissolve thoroughly in boiling water some IVORY SOAP, shaved fine. Add sufficient warm water to wash the flannels in one by one. Don't rub any soap on the flannels, but knead them well in the solution. Don't rinse them in plain water, use a fresh supply of the solution, warm, and well luted, for the purpose. Don't wring tightly with the hands, use a clothes-wringer. The freer from water you get these garments the softer they will be. Hang them out immediately, if the weather will permit; if not, dry before the fire. If left to mangle, the flannel will certainly shrink. Never wash flannel in water too hot to bear your hand in. Never rinse them in cold water. Always use IVORY SOAP, it is the best, much experience has proved this.

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory'"; they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

THE MARCH OF PROGRESS! OUR LATEST IMPROVEMENTS!

"Competition is the Life of Trade," and if you have not seen our latest improved goods you cannot imagine how lively trade is, or how hard our competitors have to work to keep within sight of us. Ask your retailer for the JAMES MEANS' $3 SHOE, or the JAMES MEANS' $4 SHOE, according to your needs.

Advertisement for James Means' shoes, featuring images of a $3 shoe and a $4 shoe with descriptive text.

Such has been the recent progress in our branch of industry that we are now able to affirm that the James Means' $3 shoe is in every respect equal to the shoes which only a few years ago were retailed at eight or ten dollars.

One of our traveling associates, who is now visiting the shoe retailers of the Pacific Coast and Rocky Mountain Region writes from there as follows: "I am more than satisfied with the results of my trip. I have thus far succeeded in placing our fall line in the hands of 'A No. 1' dealers in every point I have visited."

Now, kind reader, just stop and consider what the above signifies as far as you are concerned. It assures you that if you keep on buying shoes bearing no manufacturer's name or faded retail price stamping on the soles, you cannot tell what you are getting and your retailer is probably making you pay double what your shoes have cost him.

Now, can you afford to do this while we are instructing you by stamping our name and the exact retail price upon the soles of our shoes before they leave our factory so that you cannot be made to pay more for your shoes than they are worth?

Shoes from our celebrated factory are sold by wide-awake retailers in all parts of the country. We will place the name of the retailer in any State or Territory if you will send us a postal card and write to us.

GIVE 'EM A CALL Will You Read This for $500! For many years the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, who are abundantly responsible financially, as any one can easily ascertain by inquiry, have offered, in good faith, a standing reward of $500 for a case of nasal catarrh, no matter how bad or of how long standing, which they cannot cure. The remedy is sold by druggists at 50 cents.

Look out for change of "add" and hand bills of Joe's One Price Clothier. Judge Russell united in marriage last Saturday afternoon, Mr. John West and Miss Josepha Kastl.
