—The Nebraska Telephone Company have located an exchange office at Union, a small village a few miles south of here. The instruments were put in there on Monday last. The business men are about to take hold of the improvement. Union, though only a small place at present, gives every promise of a thriving town in the near future. The paper of that place should Leader.
—The remains of Jerry Daniber, who accidentally shot himself while out hunting near Carlin, Nevada, one day last week, are expected to arrive tomorrow evening or Friday morning. If they arrive here in the evening, the funeral will not be held until the following morning, if not until morning, they will be conveyed directly to the Catholic church where a short service will be held after which, the procession will proceed to the Oak Hill cemetery, where interment will take place. All members of the A. O. H. of which he was a former member, here, are requested to meet at Fitzgerald's hall tomorrow evening at 8:30 o'clock to make preparations for the burial of their late brother.
—We are in receipt of "Fremont Illustrated," an attractive illustrated pamphlet issued under the auspices of the "Trade Bureau," Fremont, Nebraska.

This is a publication of more than ordinary excellence and interest, and is in reality a well-written essay, without personal advertisement of any kind, on the inexhaustible resources of corn, hay and live-stock of the whole state of Nebraska being devoted entirely to live-stock subjects. Fremont has come to be one of the great general live-stock centres of the West, and its great establishments which the book illustrates, and an immense showing of beef cattle, thorough-breds, native and imported horses, sheep-feeding and hog interests are splendidly indicative of the resources of the state generally.
—A certain boarding house that we know of in the city can boast of good protection, and when necessity demands it, can represent a good number of the professions. If any one of the boarders meets with any serious accident, there is a doctor in the house to stitch him up or set broken bones; if he receives the injuries from a scrapper, there is a lawyer on hand to prosecute him and a reporter near by to catch on and write him up. If any of the number wishes to purchase land, there is a capitalist there to buy from and a professor to figure for them, and a man to purchase the papers from and make them out. If any one of the party is financially embarrassed and wants to move to another town, and there would be no chance to get there, unless on a tie pass, there are three railroad men present to help him out, and a telegraph operator to forward the word to that town so that he can be given a royal reception upon his arrival.

Scrofula is one of the most fatal among the scourges which afflict mankind. Chronic sores, cancerous humors, emaciation, and consumption, are the results of scrofula. Ayer's Sarsaparilla eradicates this poison, and restores, to the blood, the elements of life and health.
—Manager Young's benefit, by the Andrew's Opera Company presenting the beautiful comic opera, "The Mascot" at the Waterman opera house Thanksgiving night, Nov. 29, with a fine company of 30 people and a good orchestra. Manager Young has secured this company at a large expense and has put prices within the reach of all, 35, 50 and 75 cents. Manager Young has never had a benefit to which he is entitled, having worked hard the past six years to build up a reputation for Plattsmouth as a good show town, and secure only first-class attractions, and it is hoped our citizens will appreciate his endeavors in the past, and therefore give him a large benefit Thanksgiving night.
—As soon as you discover any falling of the hair or grayness always use Hall's Hair Renewer to tone up the secretions and prevent baldness or grayness.

—Miss May Cranmer entertained a small company of about ten people at her rooms, corner of Fourth and Main, last night, in honor of two lady friends visiting Miss Olive Jass. A very pleasant evening was spent.
—The following prisoners were arraigned before Judge Chapman today on the following charges: Moore, of Weeping Water, robbery; Coon, of Weeping Water, selling liquor without license; and Keough, of this city, robbery. The case will be set today.

—Last night about twenty young ladies and gentlemen met at the home of Miss Carrie Guthman, preparatory to marching to the home of Miss Annie Baumeister, to whom they tendered a surprise at her home west of the city, yesterday being her twentieth birthday. Upon their arrival there they found their surprise complete, after which a very pleasant evening was spent by indulging in the dance and the usual games until a late hour.
—A very pleasant farewell party was tendered Mr. W. P. Keeler last night by Miss Laura Reinhaeckel, at her home on First street, on Winterstein hill. The evening was spent at cards and the usual amusements, after which the guests were invited to partake of a very inviting supper prepared for the occasion. Those present were: Miss Merges, Mr. Kellogg; Miss Cora Wayman, Mr. Shelton; Miss Hattie Latham, Mr. Aug. Reinhaeckel; Miss Georgie Oliver, Mr. Will Reinhaeckel; Miss Kate Oliver, Mr. C. Morgan; Miss Celia Goos, Mr. H. Millary.
—The enterprising firm of S. & C. Mayer are moving into their new quarters in the Carruth block, corner Fifth and Main streets, which has been fitted up specially for their fine large clothing stock. We bespeak for the above firm great success, for they have ever been popular as live and accommodating business men, and now that they have a store room one hundred and thirty feet long where they will find room to show off their stock to good advantage, every indication points to the change as a successful one. The room has been fitted up in first-class style and presents a very charming appearance.
—Jerry Donaher, a young man about twenty-five years of age, and who is well known in this city, having resided here the greater portion of his life, met with a fatal accident while out hunting near Tucson, Arizona, where he has resided since his departure from this place. The report came that he was accidentally shot while out hunting. The parents of the deceased, who live in this city alone, were terribly shocked by the news, and the mother has suffered intense agony ever since. The young man was a boiler maker by trade and learned the trade in the B. & M. shops here. The remains were shipped to San Francisco where they will be embalmed, after which they will be forwarded to this city for interment. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their severe affliction.

Strade, Lincoln.
—The leap year social given by the "Ys" at the residence of Mr. Wash. Smith, last Saturday night, was very largely attended.
—Tickets for the concert to be given under the auspices of the Woman's Relief Corps will be on sale from now on at the usual place.
—Rev. W. B. Alexander preached a sermon for the benefit of a large congregation of young men at the M. E. Church last night.
—Mr. W. J. Campbell, brother of Mrs. J. P. Young, will be married on Wednesday next at California, Mo., to an estimable young lady of that town. THE HERALD extends congratulations.
—Mr. Henry Babb, of Cheyenne county, is attending court today. He informs us that a widow lady living in the locality he comes from, has raised a large number of potatoes this year weighing over five pounds each.
—The September adjourned term of the district court of Cass county opened in Rockwood hall, to-day Judge Chapman presiding. Nothing special has transpired as yet and preparations were only made to commence work.
—The body of Harry King who was murdered at the Paxton Hotel last Saturday morning, passed through here on the flyer yesterday afternoon enroute for Chicago where the remains will be interred. Mrs. King number 3 accompanied them.
—The work of grading the fifth street hill south of Main street has already been commenced. Messrs. George Poissal and Fred Kroehler were tendered the contract of grading at fifteen cents per yard, and they started their men to work yesterday morning. At the present rate of progress the work will be completed in a very short time. The city will be vastly improved by the continuation of Fifth street through the bluff.
—The King murder of last Saturday afforded the Omaha newspapers a whole page sensational article yesterday. As was stated in the Saturday issue of the HERALD, King was murdered by a woman who claims to be his wife, at the Paxton hotel. Harry King the murdered man, is the son of H. W. King, sr., of the great clothing firm of H. W. King & Co., of Chicago. He is about thirty-two years of age. He grew to manhood in Chicago, enjoying all the pleasures of that great city under the liberal gratuities of his father who is ranked among the wealthy men of that place. The firm is one of the most substantial clothing houses in the world. It has eight branches, one in each of the cities of Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Boston, Kansas City, St. Paul, Milwaukee, St. Louis and Omaha. Mr. Harry King was engaged in doing the outside business for the firm. He had come to Omaha to open up the business there and after he had come west had married a Miss Duffy, a daughter of Judge Duffy, of St. Louis. He had been married three times. His first wife was divorced, and his second wife, the murderer, claimed to be deserted. When she learned of his last marriage she followed him to Omaha to prosecute him as she said, for bigamy. After she arrived at the Paxton Saturday morning she was directed to Mr. King's room by a bell boy. She persuaded him after several attempts to go to the parlor. A short conversation was held there and when she threatened to prosecute him when he was about to leave he seized her by the throat and threatened to choke her to death. She then shot him three times, each shot taking effect. She is at present in jail at Omaha.

From Saturday's Daily.
—The winter again at hand. The second snow storm of the season was seen here today.
—Judge Russell granted license to wed last evening to Mr. Mathew A. Daugharty and Miss Emma H. Butler, also today, to Mr. Wm. Knadle and Miss Clara Weltou.
—A small party of Plattsmouth people were entertained last night at the home of Mr. W. J. Hesser, who lives about five miles southwest of this city. A very pleasant evening was spent.
—Gertrude McCarthy, infant daughter of Mr. Con McCarthy, section foreman, died last night at 10 o'clock of membranous croup. She was aged one year and eight months. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the fathers residence, Third street.
—Mr. T. H. Leach was very agreeably surprised yesterday by receiving an order for $115.00 from the treasury department, being the amount due him for a horse and saddle which he sold to the government in 1862, the voucher for which was lost. He had tried repeatedly to collect the bill, but without avail, and had almost given up all hope of doing so.
—Mr. Pete Keeler, a popular young man in this city who has worked as tinner for Mr. J. R. Cox and Messrs. Weidman & Breckenfeld, for some time, has severed his connection with the latter firm and leaves this city next Tuesday to seek his fortune in a new field in the far west; Spokane Falls, Washington territory being the point of his destination. Mr. Keeler has been a resident of Plattsmouth since the spring of 1884, and many friends wish him well. A tin smith from Omaha has been engaged to fill the vacancy.
—The meetings at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms this week have been very interesting and well attended, one young man who attended the rooms last night, went into the parlor where the young men were holding their meeting. He became interested and after the meeting was over he spoke to one near him saying he had concluded to become a Christian. The week of prayer has been well attended, and the young men think much good done. These series of meetings will close tomorrow evening with a union service of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches, at the latter church, where a sermon will be preached to young men by Rev. Alexander; unlike the meetings at the rooms, which were for men only, this service will be for everybody. The usual gospel meeting for men only will be held at the rooms at 4 p. m.
—A report was put in circulation this morning by some train men upon the arrival of the Kansas City train from Omaha that a Plattsmouth man had been shot in the Paxton hotel there this morning. The news spread over the city like lightning and to gain a true statement of the matter, the reporter interviewed Sheriff Eikenbary concerning it. Before that time he had heard no such report and went immediately to the telephone office and telephoned the Police headquarters at Omaha, asking if the report was true. He was informed that the murdered man's name was King, and that he was a member of the firm of King, Browning & Co., a large clothing firm in Omaha. The report was that King had registered at the Paxton house with a woman as his wife, and about 7:30 this morning his wife, who suspected his disloyalty, had visited the above house and found her husband's name registered with another woman as his wife. She sent the bell boy to his room requesting him to come down immediately. He came, and upon his arrival, the woman shot him twice, killing him instantly. No further particulars were learned.

From Thursday's Daily.
—On figuring by the vote of Cass county at the last election, it is estimated that the population will aggregate about 41,550, showing a growth since 1870 of 18,850.
—The street car company are engaged in laying their track again, and the work has been completed as far as Sixth street, on Vine. The city has been without street transportation for some time, and the suburban residents of the city who are obliged to walk to their places of business daily, will be pleased to see the work progress.
—The Chrysanthemum social and hop given by the young ladies of St. Lukes church at Fitzgerald's hall last night met with encouraging success. The most beautiful display of Chrysanthemums ever seen in this city adorned a large table which reached from one end of the hall to the other and won much praise for Mr. L. Moore, the florist who furnished them for the society. The hall was comfortably filled with pleasure-seekers who indulged in a delightful dance until a late hour. The Bohemian band furnished the music for the occasion.
—The Y. M. C. A. rooms, which are located on Fourth and Main streets, have become a very desirable quarter for young men of the city. The rooms are comfortably furnished, convenient to the city, abundantly supplied with first-class literature of all kinds, and various game tables. No stranger, who can enjoy himself at any edifying amusement or study can feel himself anyway but admirably provided for. The rooms are fast becoming popular among the young men, and as the nights grow colder and the rooms present a more attractive appearance, there will no doubt be difficulty in accommodating the crowd. Success for this popular association in Plattsmouth is already apparent.
—Mr. Coon Valley, a staunch democrat living a few miles west of this city, has signed contracts which will, unless he manages to throw up the job in some mysterious way he is not onto at present, keep him hustling for the entire winter months. If pressed for a bet we believe he would have staked his life on Cleveland's election if he had run short of funds, but as it is he has only signed contracts, and the execution of them is apparently worrying him enough at present. We learned that he made a contract with one, Wm. Witten-camp, to shell two thousand bushels of his corn gratis, if Harrison was elected president for the coming term, and if defeated, those with whom he contracted were to pay him double money for shelling the same amount. "Coon" will not run across many lonesome hours during the winter because of no work for has made a number of such contracts which he will be obliged to complete. He straddled the wrong "hoss" that time.
—The fire alarm was sounded last night about 10 o'clock and news spread that a fire had broken out in the 3rd ward. It was discovered that a small shed, at the rear of a house on Marble street in which Mr. Ed Emery and family reside, was on fire. Great difficulty was experienced in extinguishing the flame before it reached the house, and had a mild south wind been blowing at the time there would have been no possible chance to save the main building. A short time after the alarm was sounded the Richey hose team of the 3rd ward put in an appearance, but as their hose lacked several hundred feet of reaching the desired spot, no effective work could be done by throwing water and it was abandoned. The cry arose "Where are the other hose carts?" and the excuse came that the second ward cart could not be pulled from its station on account of the high bank left in front by the grading, and all attempts to get it out to the fire were given up. The general opinion is that half the town would have burned before another effort would have been made to get more hose to the fire. Such a way of leaving the fire apparatus seems very negligent on the part of the fire company and steps should be taken immediately to make preparations for another fire should one ever occur again.
