

The Plattsmouth Weekly Herald KNOTTS BROS., Publishers & Proprietors.

CITY BRIEFS.

From Wednesday's Daily. Mr. Saul Pitzer, County Clerk at Chadron, arrived in the city this morning. Don't go to Mike's blacksmith shop for arctics when you can get them for 85c at Sherwood's. Mr. Rosewater, of the firm of Rosewater and Christie, Omaha, is in the city today on business. The mother of the Peterson brothers, who fell down a cellar stairs several weeks ago, is able to move around on crutches. Miss Kittie Gephart, of Kearney, who has been the guest of Miss Stadelman for a short time, returned to her home this morning. Mrs. J. N. Mason, of Burlington, Iowa, is in the city, being called here by the serious illness of her grand-daughter, little Ruth Houseworth. Mr. G. F. Nyles, wife and daughter, took their departure for Kansas City to spend Thanksgiving at the home of his sister, who resides there. Mr. Ed Straight of the county treasurer's office, has been confined to his home for the past few days. He is threatened with an attack of fever. Mr. Joe Zuckweiler, of Sioux City, who is well known here, arrived in the city this morning. He signified his intention of residing here permanently. As tomorrow will be a holiday, and Mr. Sherman will have a day off, we consider it a splendid opportunity for him to fulfill his contract made on the result of the election. There is a block on Main street already for him. Mr. John H. Cox, proprietor of the tea and coffee mills, of Burlington, who recently opened up a branch tea and coffee store here, left for Nebraska City this morning, where he intends to locate another one of his branch stores. Riggins Bros., who have recently opened up a butcher shop on Main street in the stand formerly occupied by Mr. Fickler, made the HERALD a present of a very fine turkey yesterday. It was one of the largest brought to the city this fall, and should they happen along tomorrow noon they will find the recipients giving thanks for their fine present. Mr. C. E. Harris, of Nebraska City, was married to Miss Lizzie Leasley, at the home of Mr. J. E. Leasley, brother of the bride, yesterday afternoon. Mr. H. B. Burgess, pastor of the Episcopal church here, performed the ceremonies. The happy couple took their departure for Nebraska City this morning at which place they intend to make their future home. The HERALD wishes them much happiness. Tomorrow will be a day of thanksgiving, and the publication of the HERALD will be suspended. The printers and editors are anxious to give thanks for their lives during the year past, and for the small number of cursings from the enraged men who were struck in the eye by disagreeable items. We could relate many hair breadth adventures and narrow escapes from an untimely death, but we will be more contented to give thanks. An entertainment for the benefit of the Sunday school library will be given in the Presbyterian church on Friday evening of this week. A very good program has been prepared, consisting of solos, duets, quartets, recitations, select readings &c. The small sum of 10 cents will be charged at the door, and it is hoped the house will be filled, as it is an object worthy of patronage. The program will appear Friday. Everybody is welcome. From Monday's Daily. Mr. Philip Seidenstriker, of Omaha, is in the city. Mr. Elmer Smith, of Lincoln, is attending court today. Mr. Lee Sharp spent Sunday at his home in this city. Mr. August Meyer, of Omaha, is in Plattsmouth today. Mr. Ed Cummins was a passenger to Omaha last evening. Mr. Fred Engle, of Omaha, is in the city today on business. Mr. S. A. Davis visited with relatives over Sunday at Weeping Water. Miss Mamie Vivian went up to Omaha last night to remain there for a short visit with relatives. Mr. Sam Patterson, a student at the Bellevue college, has been spending a few days at his home here. He returned to Bellevue this morning. Mr. Charles L. Coleman takes his departure this evening for the Rock Island excursion, for Denver. He will visit at that city for about one week. Henry E. Maxwell, son of Judge Maxwell, who has been in town the past few days, a guest of his cousins, the Misses Wiles, returned home this morning. Judge Russell joined in holy bonds of matrimony yesterday Mr. Henry S.

Tucker and Miss Ella Dunston, at the home of the bride's parents in this city. Mr. J. J. Lockridge received a dispatch yesterday stating that his father-in-law, who lived at Sabetha, Kas., had died. He took his departure for there this morning by the K. C. Prof. Manley, who represents the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of New York, and who has been canvassing the city for several days, took his departure for Omaha this morning. Messrs. Ira Ingalls and Ed Moore, who have been employed in this office for weeks, took their departure for Kansas City yesterday morning to seek employment at the trade, there. Will J. Warrick, our wide-awake druggist, received Saturday a car load of holiday goods, he is looking for more this week and when they arrive will have the largest and finest stock of holiday goods ever brought to the city. Mr. Ed Grimes and wife, of Kansas City, who came to Plattsmouth to attend the funeral of her brother, Jerry Daniker, last Saturday, returned to their home Saturday evening. A large number of friends accompanied the bereaved couple to the depot. The coach which was smashed up in the bridge wreck between Malvern and Glenwood last Saturday, was received at the shops today. About one-half of the coach is torn open and badly smashed. It had the appearance of a load of kindling wood more than a passenger coach. Since election is over and protection has won, every one should patronize home industries, and buy the flour that is made at Hessel's mills. These mills make corn meal, buckwheat flour, graham flour and a good quality of wheat flour. Buy your flour at home and thus keep your money at home. Mr. H. Waterman accompanied by his cousin, Mr. John Thurston of New York who has been visiting here for the past week, left for a trip over the western part of the state. Mr. Thurston informs us that he is well pleased with the western country and signified his intention of locating if he can find a farm suitable for stock raising. We were furnished a sack of buckwheat flour from Hessel's mills this morning as a sample of their first-class work. The mill has only recently been opened up here and the proprietor has so far met with good success and their future prospects are very promising. Any first-class grades of flour, feed, graham and meal can be purchased at their mill. Mr. Joe Martin, a farmer living a few miles west of the city, sold about the largest hog ever brought to the city to Mr. Riggins, butcher, last Saturday. The porker weighed over six hundred pounds when dressed, and reached the whole length of the farmer's wagon box. Wonder if he has any more like that? Wm. D. Murray, who died in the county jail here last Thursday night, was buried yesterday afternoon in the Oak Hill cemetery. A short service was held at the Episcopal church by the Rev. H. B. Burgess, before the remains were conveyed to the cemetery. The obsequies were under the direction of the Knights of Labor of this city, of which he was a member. There was a good attendance and the orders well represented. Mr. Charles Eads and wife, who have been spending their honeymoon in Burlington for the past week, returned to this city last evening. The bride was made the recipient of some very handsome presents upon their arrival at Burlington, and upon their return here they were surprised to find several very nice presents which had been received from friends at a distance after they had taken their departure. We are pleased to welcome them among us as citizens. The boys all say, "we have a horse on Omaha." Yesterday a man living in this city went to the telephone office here and told the central at Omaha that he wanted to talk to a certain man there, whose name is withheld out of respect for him. A messenger boy was sent to him with a check informing him that he was wanted at the central office, as a man in Plattsmouth wished to talk with him. He scoured his traveling apparel and started out in great haste for the B. & M. depot. He arrived in this city by the flyer, and went directly to the telephone office here and inquired for the man who wanted to talk with him. The man was sent for and a conversation was held with no wire to intervene. That man believes the telephone is a great convenience, but we believe he wants to do the whole thing himself. Wonder if they have any more like him in Omaha? From Saturday's Daily. Mrs. T. Kempster presented her husband with a young son last Thursday. The regular teachers meeting was held at the high school yesterday afternoon. Mr. J. J. Walters, wife and child, former residents of this city, arrived by the flyer yesterday afternoon from Garnett, Kas. They will visit the home of Mr. J. C. Stewart, here.

—Only one month until Christmas eve. We take great pleasure in wishing you all a merry Christmas. —Judge Russell issued a marriage license yesterday to Mr. John Buckingham and Mrs. Clara Kruger, both of Weeping Water. —The jury which was sent out yesterday on the Ellis case, returned a verdict of guilty. Ellis will probably receive a sentence of two years. Mr. J. K. Keithley, proprietor of the Weeping Water Republican, was in the city today and made a pleasant call at this office. Mrs. John Stewart, who has been visiting her father, Mr. Sparks, of Lincoln, returned home by the flyer yesterday afternoon. —It is reported that No. 5 going west this morning, was being switched at Malvern. A locomotive and an empty car were standing on the track, and the train was coming so rapidly that the engineer on the first engine, fearing a collision, opened the throttle and jumped off. The coach was struck and knocked out of place, being turned half way on the tracks. The front engine was under a full head of and started forward. As the coach passed all posts, standing near the track were broken off. When the bridge between Malvern and Glenwood was reached, the car came in contact with the trestle work, and smashed things up so badly that trains were delayed for several hours today. —The Bohemians in the western part of the city created havoc among themselves last night. A young man whose name we were unable to learn had rented a house from his father-in-law who had left some apples in the cellar of the house, which he claimed, but the son-in-law contested that they belonged to him, when he rented the house, and refused to give up anything. The old man had made up his mind to have what he thought belonged to him, and while the young man was at work in the shops, yesterday, he went to the cellar and carried away the fruit. Last night when the son-in-law returned from work, upon learning of the course pursued by the old man, he went to his house and pommelled him severely. It is reported that the old man was laid up in bad shape. —The Gospel Meetings held every Sunday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. rooms are growing in interest. Last Sunday there being the largest attendance since moving into the new rooms, which proves our young men know a good thing when they see it. Mr. D. A. Campbell, Prof. Chaburn, John A. Davies, and Mr. H. P. Chapin, are organizing a Literary Society to meet at the parlors one night in the week. This will be quite an attraction this winter for the young men. All young men who are interested in such an enterprise should call on the above named gentlemen or the secretary at the rooms. The young men are trying to have a larger attendance tomorrow than last Sunday, although that was the largest yet. Full orchestra tomorrow; at 3:45, commences a fifteen minute song service, preceeding the regular meeting. From Friday's Daily. —Mr. G. W. Turner is passing around the cigars to his friends, celebrating the arrival of a daughter at his house yesterday. —Mr. Wiley Black, a prominent stock dealer of this city, after buying a car load of hogs, shipped them to South Omaha yesterday. The hogs out-weighed any car load sold there this fall. —The trial of Patrick Moore, of Weeping Water, who was arrested for robbery some time ago, was set for today, but as the prisoner is sick, the case has been continued until Wednesday next. —Grandma Todd, of Plattsmouth, is spending a few weeks in this vicinity visiting relatives.—Louisville Observer. —The case of Buzzell vs. John Kennedy, which was continued until this term of court, has again been continued until the next term of court. —Coon, of Weeping Water, who was arrested a short time ago for selling liquor without license, and who has been residing at the "Bird Palace" here ever since, was before Judge Chapman yesterday and sentenced to thirty days imprisonment in the county jail. —A much degraded character who has been popular here for years as "Jack Mueary," died last night in jail while standing upright with his hands firmly gripped on the iron bars of the cage in which he was confined, and while conversing with his fellow prisoners. He had been on a spree for several weeks, the first time in a year, as he had reformed and resolved to keep straight. The excessive drinking which he had indulged in for the past two weeks brought on delirium tremens, and his constitution could not endure the attack. He slept in the doorway some of the coldest nights and it is thought that hastened his death. Coroner Boeck has embalmed the body which will be kept until Sunday. The burial ceremonies will be under the direction of the K. of L. His father is said to be wealthy, and lives in Canada.

Thanksgiving Day. From Wednesday's Daily. Tomorrow will be a day of thanksgiving and praise, and the people of this state and this great nation, have abundant reason to be thankful for the cause to feel grateful on this sacred day. No season has been more profitable to the toilers of Nebraska than this, and all recognize the fact that it is their duty to give thanks to Him, who hath given us our health, daily bread, peace and a prosperous harvest to the husbandmen. Every business house in the city should be closed tomorrow, if for the first time in the year, and the day held sacred as one for thanksgiving. Churches of the city will be open in the morning to those who wish to assemble and offer up prayer to the Almighty. Let the day not be broken into by a few, but let the general public recognize it. The light running Howe at Robert Sherwood's only $25.00. —At the district court Friday the authorities found the jury short, and the deputy sheriff started out in search of victims. The door opposite Rockwood hall was opened by the deputy, and the first man he met was a reporter. He invited him to the hallway, and upon the reporter's arrival there, the door of the court room was opened and he was hustled inside, without any ceremony, and the door barred on him. A highway robber was on trial at the time and a witness who was on the stand was questioned as follows: "Did you read the articles in the newspapers concerning the robbery?" Witness—"Yes." "Did you form any reliable opinion from what you read?" Witness—"No, the papers were not reliable during the campaign." The reporter looked on that speech as a providential act, knowing that they would not accept an unreliable man to act as jurymen. The thought that he would not be obliged to listen to the parley of lawyers for a whole day and then be locked in a room for three nights without any nourishment, as a penalty, was as good as a feast. He then persued his work with a light heart. Why go to grocery and dry goods stores for arctics when you can get them for 85c at Sherwood's? The light running Howe at Sherwood's only $25.00. The New York Tribune CONGRATULATES Every American Farmer, Wage-earner and Business man, the Union Volunteers, the Settlers of the Western Territories every Young Man and Woman, Freedmen of the South, our American Fishermen and Shipbuilders, and the Whole People Generally, on the SALVATION OF THEIR WELFARE, which was won at the polls on November 8th. The prosperity, which is likely to follow, the men of both parties will share; but to the Republican voters, workers and press, is due credit. During Gen. Harrison's administration, THE TRIBUNE has initiated a great variety of public policy, with which its name is identified. Great responsibilities now rest, not only on the new administration, but on the Republican party and press, with reference to shaping legislation so as to give practical effect to the will of the people. It is no time now, for farmers, wage-earners, Union veterans, and others, whose interests have been imperiled by an administration of free traders and rebel brigadiers, to relax their interest in public affairs, and let things take their course. On the contrary, it would seem to be the duty of all voters to co-operate earnestly in the advancement of measures undertaken in their behalf, and to lend their support to great newspapers which are doing original and aggressive work to promote their welfare. It is conceded by the entire country, that the NEW YORK TRIBUNE has initiated a great variety of the valuable and successful discussions of the past year. Its labor for the farmers and yet not finished, but its aggressive and effective. Its great exposure of the "sham" of the Cleveland administration was crushing and final; no attempt was ever made to answer it. Its position on temperance brought back numerous third party voters to the Republican ranks. Its broadened on the tariff and other questions have done much to prove, beyond question, that the Republican party is the best friend of the people of the country and of the settlers of the western territories. It has beyond controversy the responsibility for the defeat of much-needed pension legislation in Congress. On many other important questions THE TRIBUNE did loyal and successful work. It undertook, for the sake of the cause, many important, laborious and far-reaching tasks, involving immense research, and useful in setting in quicker motion the forces which won the victory. Its course in the future may be judged by the past. THE TRIBUNE is not exclusively devoted to politics. It is a general newspaper, presenting the news of the world in each issue, together with fiction, miscellany, matters for the "Home Circle" and "Young Folks," with excellent and accurate market reports, book reviews, and foreign correspondence, and two pages a week on Agriculture. For the family it is absolutely unexcelled among newspapers. Subscription Rates.—Weekly, $1 a year; extra copy with every five. Semi-weekly $2 a year, extra copy with every five. Daily $5.00 per year. Sunday TRIBUNE, $2. New Subscribers receive the paper until Jan. 1, 1890. Premiums.—(1) Waverly Novels, complete in 6 volumes. (2) Cooper's fascinating "Leather Stocking Tales." (3) Irving's "Life of Washington." (4) Ten one-dollar books, any one of which is sent for to subscribers, viz: "Essays of Lord Bacon," "Edgar A. Poe's Tales," "French Revolution by Carlyle," "Great Generals by Great Authors," "Poems of Sir Walter Scott," "Greek Mythology," "Don Quixote," "Arabian Nights," "Robinson Crusoe," and "Swiss Family Robinson." (5) Winchester Hunting Rifle, breech loading. (6) Remington breech-loading shot gun. (7) "New York Tribune's History of the United States and Pocket Atlas of the World." (8) THE TRIBUNE's great "Book of Open Air Sports." (9) "Wood's Household Medicine." (10) Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. (11) Waltham Watch. Sent for circular describing them in full. LIBRARY OF TRIBUNE EXTRAS. Every year THE TRIBUNE prints an immense and luxuriant and several hundred "Extras." It is proposed to systematize the publication of these Extras, and to issue them, regularly, once a month, 12 numbers per year. The Almanac will be issued in its old form, only with new, valuable and extensive additions to the contents, the number for 1889, by the way, containing complete returns of the Presidential election. The other numbers will be made up with pages of about monthly magazine size. There will be one or two numbers per year, devoted to the latest ideas in "knitting and crocheting." Several will contain complete novels. Others will be made up of interesting features of special and permanent value relating to Science, Society, Literature, Politics, etc. Single copies, 25 Cents. Price, per year, for 12 numbers, $2. THE TRIBUNE, NEW YORK.

What the Editor Has to Do. We apologize for mistakes made in all former issues and say that they were inexcusable, and all an editor has to do is: To hunt news and clean the rollers and set type and sweep the floor and pen short items and fold the papers and write the wrappers and talk to visitors and distribute type and carry water and saw wood and read the proofs and correct the mistakes and hunt the shears to write editorials and dodge the bills and dupe delinquents and take cussings from the whole force and tell our subscribers that we need money—we say that we've no business to make mistakes while attending to those little matters and getting our living on gopher tail soup flavored with imagination, and wearing old shoes and no collar, and a patch on our pants, obliged to turn a smiling countenance to the man who tells us our paper isn't worth $1.00 anyhow and that he could make a better one with his eyes shut.—Ex. Don't go to Mike's blacksmith shop for arctics when you can get them for 85c at Sherwood's. For sick headache, caused by a disordered stomach, Ayer's Cathartic Pills are the most reliable remedy. "My mother first recommended these Pills to me, thirty years ago. They are the mildest and best purgative in use."—S. C. Bradburn, Worthington, Mass. Wool boots with rubbers reduced to $2.00 at Sherwood's mens arctics only 85c at Sherwood's sold elsewhere for $1.25. The Great Dismal Swamp, of Virginia, is one enormous quagmire of decayed vegetation, a region of gloom and desolation; but not more so than the human system when blocked up by decayed animal matter, which poisons the blood and brings gloom to an otherwise happy household. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets remove all waste matter, and give Nature a chance to build up. Why go to grocery and dry goods stores for arctics when you can get them for 85c at Sherwood's? To strengthen the hair, thicken the growth, stop its blanching and falling out, and where it is gray to restore the youthful color, use Hall's Hair Renewer. Wool boots with rubbers reduced to $2.00 at Sherwood's mens arctics only 85c at Sherwood's, sold elsewhere for $1.25. Do you suffer from indigestion, or loss of appetite? Are you troubled with liver, or kidney complaint? Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This preparation purifies and vitalizes the blood, thus restoring strength and health to the digestive and assimilative organs. Try it.

Special Meeting. PLATTSMOUTH, NEB., NOV. 29, 1888. To whom it may concern: Notice is hereby given that there will be a special meeting of the county commissioners of Cass county, Nebraska, on Friday, November 30th, 1888, for the purpose of selecting names for jurors for the December term of District Court, to be held in Cass county, Nebraska. BIRD CUTCHFIELD, County Clerk. "Death has so many doors to let out life," sang an old time poet. In those days they had not discovered remedies that shut these doors. How different is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, from the old time doses. Consumption or lung-rot, ulcers, is one wide door that it shuts, if taken in time. Don't waste a moment then, lest life slip through that open door. —Daniel O'Neil, of Weeping Water, was brought to the city Friday and lodged in jail here, as a lunatic. The man evidently became as crazy as he is, from excessive drinking, and the main affliction is "jim jams." Sheriff Eikenbury while conversing with him yesterday afternoon, asked him what was the matter with him. He answered that he could see a mob of Weeping Water men following him and that they were about to compel him to give them his vote. The Weeping Water people will find many sins to answer for. The regular annual meeting of the Cass County Agricultural Society, will be held next Saturday, December 1st 1888, in Plattsmouth, at the County Judges office at 2 o'clock p. m. All members are requested to be present and every one holding a family ticket is entitled to a vote. FRED GORDER, Pres. —Charles Ellis was sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the penitentiary, Tuesday morning. There's a blessing in the bottle on whose label we can read Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the woman who has need Of a remedy for troubles none but women ever know. 'Tis her best and truest friend, and happy thousands call it so, As they think of years of suffering that were theirs before it came, Bringing them the balm of healing, and they bless the very name of this wonderfully, and deservedly, popular remedy for the various ills women is heir to. "Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.
