

THE SMUGGLING CONSPIRACY.

Circumstances Attending the Arrest of Neilson, Alias Leonard.

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 17.—A. C. Neilson, alias J. M. Leonard, is the name of a man arrested in Denver, charged with opium smuggling. On Tuesday last Mark Harding, a special agent of the treasury department, reported to United States Marshal Hill that he suspected Neilson's presence in this city. Harding had a copy of a way bill from the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba railway for some freight shipped at Battineau, Dak., for this city. The consignors claimed that the freight consisted of household goods. This consignment was directed "A. C. Neilson, Denver, Colo." and weighed 850 pounds. Deputy Marshal Currier proceeded to the Union Pacific freight office for the purpose of making the arrest when the goods were called for. On Wednesday a stranger with ill-fitting clothes asked for the goods consigned to Neilson, and was placed under arrest. Neilson's trunk at the Metropolitan hotel was subsequently searched and found to contain 147 packages of prepared opium, amounting to seventy-three pounds. The prisoner waived examination when arraigned before the commissioner, and was taken Friday night by officers to St. Paul.

ST. PAUL, Dec. 18.—There is every reason to believe that the smuggling conspiracy which United States officials here discovered by the information of one of the band arrested at Denver, and the subsequent seizure of 800 pounds of opium at St. Vincent is more far-reaching and of vastly greater proportions than at first proposed. It is certain that the operations of the smugglers were not confined to opium, but that large quantities of silks and other costly fabrics from China had been landed in British Columbia and brought to various points on the Canadian Pacific railroad and consigned to smugglers. It is known that government officers have recently seized several small lots of silks that are to be disposed of to St. Paul and Minneapolis merchants. The officials are preserving the utmost secrecy in the hope of catching more of the smugglers.

A Protest From Utah.

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 18.—The liberal committee issued yesterday the following address to the country.

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 17, 1888.—The liberal territorial committee, representing republicans and democrats alike, desire to call the attention of the country to the fact that the gentiles of Utah unanimously oppose the Mormon state scheme, recently endorsed by the democratic congressional caucus. We are confronted by a condition—not a theory. Polygamy is not dead. The law is not supreme. Two hundred and thirty-four indictments were found at the present term of court, as proved for violations of the United States statutes, designed to suppress polygamy and polygamous living. To give Utah statehood would retard progress, depreciate values, perpetuate polygamy and hand the territory over to the Mormon priesthood. We call upon patriotic citizens everywhere to unite in a strong protest to congress against the proposed action. The admission of Utah to statehood would be a crime against Americans.

O. W. POWERS,
Chairman.

An Anti-Vice War.

ELKHART, Ind., Dec. 17.—The county sheriff Saturday arrested every saloon-keeper, every gambler and every abandoned woman in the city as well as several drugstore proprietors, who are likewise charged with violation of law. A detective has been working here under the direction of the law and order league, and the raid has stirred everything up from the bottom. The mayor called a public meeting for Saturday night to take further measures for relief from lawlessness, and the law and order league called in a circular that the entire city police as acting in conjunction with the disreputable element.

Fighting at Suakim

SUAKIM, Dec. 17.—An exchange of shots has taken place between the Arab redoubts outside the town and the Egyptian garrison aided by the British vessels. During the firing considerable damage was done to the enemy's breastworks. A reconnaissance was made on the left and rear of the rebels' position yesterday. The party was headed by Gen. Grenfell, and advanced under a heavy fire from the forts. The Arab opened fire, but did no damage.

The Chicago Anarchists.

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 17.—Two or three small meetings of anarchists and socialists were held here yesterday, but developed nothing sensational. Mrs. Parsons, contrary to announcement, did not arrive home last night from her trip to Europe. A committee of her friends who were to meet her at the depot were notified last evening that she would not reach the city till today.

Hold up the Wrong Train.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 18.—The officials of the Southern Express company say their loss by the train robbery Saturday night will not exceed $3,000. The train which followed had $139,000 in the express car.

He Had to Walk Home.

An interesting story was related to the reporter this morning concerning a young man of this city and a little love drama in which he is the star. As severe a trial, because he only loved a girl a little, he should not have been obliged to endure, but as such is the case with many under similar circumstances, he must practice patience and tolerate the joke and the many jests now brought to bear on account of it. We can only sympathize with him and offer a helping hand to bring the conspirators to task for their unbecoming conduct. The young man's name is withheld for fear that if it were given away his patience would be tested still more. This fellow loves a lassie about eight miles south of the city and his regular trips in that direction are numerous, so much so, that he is not the only person who knows the whereabouts of the attraction, and several of his friends in the city, through curiosity, have enquired and learned that a young lady lives about eight miles distant and that she is the attraction. As the boys found this city too quiet for their entertainment last Sunday, they decided on a course which they did not miscalculate on affording them much amusement. At the regular hour Sunday evening he started out for the young lady's home, and was followed a short time later by some of his friends. When they arrived at his destination they found his horse tied and it appeared to be under the impression that it was in for an all night stand, and it would not have been mistaken, no doubt, had not the boy interrupted the faithful animal and moved it on. They found more favorable quarters in a neighbor's barn, and tied it there, without notifying any one or asking any questions, to await the arrival of its thoughtless master. The desired work was then complete and the boys returned to the city to await the results. When the clock announced the wee sma' hours, the young fellow then attired himself preparatory to taking his departure. He reached the spot where he left his faithful horse many hours before, and the first disagreeable thought of the night passed through his head. "Some sinner has stolen my rig, and what am I to do now?" After a thorough search of the premises, the only thing left for him to do was to walk home, and the distance seemed much too "long" to suit him, but he made the best of his misfortune and started out. Yesterday he secured another rig and started out in search of the other. He scoured the country in that vicinity, and much to his delight, found the animal. As the farmer could not explain how the rig came in his barn, the young man is yet puzzled to know how it got there.

Warden Hyers Resigns.

Warden Hyers tendered his resignation yesterday to take effect on the first day of January, and asks leave of absence until that date. Deputy Warden Hopkins was appointed to act as warden during the absence of Mr. Hyers, and he will have temporary charge of affairs at the state penitentiary. No reason has been given for the resignation and the cause is a matter of conjecture only. Parties who pretend to know say that the step is due to the well known differences existing between him and the governor. The truth will doubtless come to the surface in a few days.—Omaha Bee.

Mr. Hyers and family are well known in this city, having resided here for several years. He filled the office of county sheriff here for a time, and all who formed the acquaintance of the family speak in the highest terms of them. Since Mr. Hyers has resigned, we trust that he may decide to return to Plattsburgh and make this his future home.

A Constitutional Amendment.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Representative Breckinridge of Kentucky yesterday introduced a joint resolution reported during the last congress by Representative Tucker from the committee on judiciary proposing an amendment to the constitution defining polygamy and making it unlawful at any place in the jurisdiction of the United States or any state.

Prosecuting the Rock Island.

DES MOINES, Ia., Dec. 18.—Atty.-Gen. Baker has begun twenty-four suits in the district court of Scott county upon informations filed by Davenport merchants against the Rock Island railway for alleged violations of the state law fixing the maximum freight schedule, a decision upon which is now pending in the supreme court. The penalty for each violation is $5,000.

Without Food or Shelter.

NORWALD, Conn., Dec. 15.—Three unknown men have been on Connektan island, three miles from shore, since yesterday without food or shelter. They went there Thursday to shoot ducks, and their boat got adrift. It is impossible to reach the island on account of the heavy gale.

Executed with Rifles.

ATOKA, I. T., Dec. 15.—Lyman Puslee, a fraticide, was shot Thursday near Pishkahompa in the presence of several hundred Choctaws, in the execution of a judicial sentence. His death was instantaneous, three bullets from as many Winchester piercing his breast near the heart.

A Strike in Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 18.—Strikes are reported from several points on the line of the Mexican National railroad owing to non-payment of wages to employees. Thursday the north-bound train was detained for a time at the depot in the City of Mexico on account of a refusal of the men to take the train out until they received their pay. The station agent telegraphed to the city office and funds were forwarded to the station.

Attempted Smuggling.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—A passenger who landed here this morning from the steamer Eururia, and who is thought to be a southern merchant, tried to smuggle in $55,000 worth of diamonds. They were discovered by the custom officials and seized. It is learned that the man's name is Gilbert Larres. He describes himself as a wholesale clothing merchant of Nicaragua. He said he had no intention of smuggling, not being familiar with our custom laws. He states that he intended to give the jewels to his fiancée.

Guarding Against Future Evils.

Sheriff (to doomed man): "I must now conduct you to the scaffold. Will you have a drink of whisky to stimulate you?"

"No, thank you; when I drink whisky I always have a horrible headache next morning."

The Sarcastic Man Again.

"You are a fish dealer, I believe, Mr. Haddock?"

"Yes, sir."

"I suppose that, having so much to do with fish, you seldom eat any?"

"Oh, you're wrong; I eat fish nearly every day."

"Well, how singular! I have always believed that fish is an excellent brain food."

Iowa continues to be the banner state of the union with her total enrollment of four hundred and seventy-seven thousand pupils in the public schools. The annual report of the state superintendent of education shows a remarkable gain in the attendance and school facilities as compared with other states. Not only is the standard of her public schools high, but the percentage of illiteracy is less than in any other state.—Bee.

Electric Lights.

ASHLAND, Neb., Dec. 18.—Ashland is to have some new lights. A car load of material arrived yesterday and work will begin at once to put in a system of electric lights. The power will come from the mill and will be made by the same water power that runs the mill. Ashland does not propose to be in the dark any longer.

A Fatal Collision.

CONCORD, N. H., Dec. 18.—Two shifting engines on the Concord railroad near here yesterday collided and Engineer J. E. Williams was killed, Engineer Frank Flanders badly injured, and Fireman Quimby less severely hurt. The accident was due to a thick fog.

High Water.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 19.—The Naugatuck is swollen by the heavy rain, and mills have had to stop at Seymour. Buildings in Ansonia are flooded. Considerable damage is feared.

The following reasons for purchasing lots in South Park still hold good:

As a whole they are the finest lying in the city.

They are shaded with beautiful forest trees.

They are located between Chicago and Lincoln avenues, the two finest drives about the city.

They are only a ten minute's walk from the business portion of the town, and five minutes' walk south from the shops.

Only one-half mile from the New Fair grounds.

The only addition to the city reached by two established avenues.

The only new addition to the city reached by water mains and with a prospect of being supplied in the near future with complete water privileges.

Has a new brick school house and good school.

Will certainly have street car privileges at no distant date.

If you wish a fine view of the river, locate in South Park.

If you wish a slightly and picturesque view of Plattsburgh, it can be had from a South Park lot.

To persons in the railroad employ, the eastern portion of South Park is the most desirable residence locality in the city.

To persons desiring a residence on Chicago Avenue, the western portion of South Park is suitable for that purpose.

The B. & M. railroad track runs near the east line of the addition, furnishing good facilities for manufacturing industries.

Over $14,000 worth of this desirable property has been disposed of within a short period and no part has been sold to outside speculators which is solid proof of the growth of this part of the city.

More substantial houses were built in South Park in the fall of 1887 and summer of 1888 than in any one locality in the city.

The projected line of the Missouri Pacific railway is along the west side of South Park.

Terms, one-third cash, balance in one and two years, or lots may be purchased on monthly payments.

Any number of persons, not less than five, purchasing ten lots in one transaction will be given a lot free to dispose of as they may deem proper.

Any person or persons purchasing 20 or more lots and paying 1/4 cash, may have one and two years on balance without interest.

The title of this property is perfect and clear from incumbrance.

The Following Remarkable Case from the lips of little Pearl Menzies, a 5-year-old girl, whose father was getting in readiness for a three months' trip. Alice, her older sister, was feeling badly over her father's prospective long absence, and Pearl, seeing her cry, approached her father, saying: "When day is today, papa?" "Why, Friday, my dear. Why do you ask?" "Then tomorrow is Saturday, and the next day Sunday, and then comes Monday, and you are going away on Monday, papa?" "Yes, my little darling, I am sorry to say I am." "Well, then, papa, I ain't going to cry till Monday."—Omaha Bee.

Oil on the Waves.

A new method of using oil for reducing waves in a storm is mentioned by The Liverpool Journal of Commerce, which consists of firing oil rockets to windward. This is a German patent, and in a recent experiment between Bremen and New York, the explosion of five rockets at distances of 4,200 to 4,500 feet from the vessel, covered a space of 1,500 to 2,000 square feet with oil, and calmed the waves immediately. A rocket has been thrown 900 feet against a strong wind. The patent is said to have been bought by the North German Lloyds.

Colony Rights.

The people of New South Wales and New Zealand are of the same mind with the people of Queensland as to the right of a colony to be consulted regarding the choice of a governor. They cordially approve the stand taken by Queensland in protesting against the appointment by the home government of a man who is held by the colonists to be unfitted for the office.
